TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Fake Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets
All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

Two or three weeks ago Mr. Morrison, of Brownville, who has been teaching the school on the bottom between Nemaha and Brownville, left for parts unknown. No reason, so far as we have heard, has ever been discovered why this action should have been taken. As this left the school without a teacher, the board last week engaged Miss Effie Wheelon, of Auburn, as the teacher for the remainder of the year. She commenced teaching Monday.

Peter Muntz and family started last Sunday for Box Butte county, Nebr., where they expect to make their home in the future, although Uncle Pete has not sold his little farm here and so will have a home to come back to when they get tired of the west. They drive through with team. Before leaving Mr. Muntz subscribed for THE ADVERTISER, State Journal, Inter Ocean and New York Tribune, so he will have plenty of good republican literature.

LATER—Uncle Pete got as far as Johnson and then concluded to wait until spring, as he could hardly breathe from asthma, so he turned around and come back. He expects to make another start early in the spring.

The remedy cured me, and I want all my friends when troubled with a cough or cold to use it, for it will do them good." Sold by M. H. Taylor, Druggist, Nemaha, Nebraska.

The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lyon Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, and a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by M. H. Taylor, Druggist, Nemaha, Nebraska.

Certainly you don't want to suffer with dyspepsia, constipation, sick headache, sallow skin and loss of appetite. You have never tried DeWitt's Little Early Risers for these complaints or you would have been cured. They are small pills but great regulators. M. H. Taylor.

The newly elected sheriff is having a whole lot of trouble just now over the appointment of his deputy, and some of the other pop officials are being brought into the muddle. He had decided to appoint Bill Hughes, of Howe, as deputy, but it appears that Bill does not stand very well with some of his neighbors and they are protesting vigorously against his appointment, and some of them are blaming Bert Engles, Henry Peery and Mac Wright for the state of affairs, claiming that they recommended Hughes. Bill Daily has a candidate, Mr. Demaree, of Auburn, but as he is one of the fellows that made a kick to the pop state central committee against Cornell being put on the list of state speakers during the recent campaign, it is not likely the latter will consent to his being appointed. Probably the bosses will agree on some new man.

TO DELINQUENT TAX PAYERS.

AUBURN, NEBR., Nov. 18, 1897.—Sec. 98, page 926, of the 1897 statutes, relative to personal tax, says in substance:

If any collector shall be unable to collect any tax on any property charged in the tax list, he shall at the time of final settlement with the county, make a statement showing in detail the name of each person charged with personal property tax, which has not been paid, the value of such property tax and the amount of each kind of tax so charged, and the cause of delinquency in each and every case; and such statement shall be accompanied by an affidavit that the same is true and correct, that the sums therein remain due and unpaid, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief none of the persons so named in said statement have any personal property within the county out of which the personal property tax can be collected. And in no case shall any collector be entitled to any abatement of the tax charged against until said statement and affidavit are filed with the county clerk.

It is my desire to make no man any extra or unnecessary expense; however, I expect to comply with the law, and will on Dec. 1st, 1897, turn over to the sheriff all of the personal property tax for 1895 and prior years.

Kindly call before Dec. 1st and save the extra expense.

Respectfully,
A. M. ENGLS, Co. Treas.
