MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.

A musical entertainment will be given at the Methodist church Saturday night, December 18th, to raise funds for Christmas tree. Adm ss on 10 cents; children under 12, 5 cents.

Elder A. J. Barnes will preach at the Christian church next Sunday, morning and evening—at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Everybody is invited.

Christmas entertainments will be given at both churches on Christmas eve—next Friday night—and the children made happy with presents.

Mr. Buell is again carrying the star route mail to Barada. He has to use a crutch, yet, on account of his dislocated ankle. Mrs. Buell goes with him now.

Dr. J. L. Melvin went to Omaha Monday, returning Thursday. While in the city he bought a number of surgical instruments to better fit himself for difficult operations.

Stephen Cooper was taken to the asylum at Lincoln Friday of last week. His wife went with him, coming back the next day. It is hoped he will soon return permanently cured.

According to the thermometer at the depot Thursday morning was the coldest morning we have had this winter, the thermometer showing five degrees below zero. Friday morning it was three below.

OYSTER SUPPER.

Mrs. Viola Norfleet and Mrs. Fannie Fairbank will give an oyster supper at Mrs. Fairbank's millinery parlor next Friday night—Christmas eve. Everybody is invited.

Dr. W. W. Keeling reports the following births:

To Lee Plasters and wife, on Dec. 14th, 1897, a fine son.

To Abe Lawrence and wife, on Dec. 16th, 1897, a fine son.

C. Shuck shipped two more of his fine Berkshire hogs to Guide Rock Wednesday. As this is Mr. Shuck's second or third shipment to Guide Rock, they must be well pleased with the hogs he is sending out.

Thos. B. Skeen and Mrs. Margaret Snow came in from Auburn Wednesday, to see their mother, Mrs. A. D. Skeen, who is very sick with pneumonia. As Mrs. Skeen is in her eightieth year, her recovery is doubtful.

Rev. C. H. Gilmore writes us that there will be no preaching at the Methodist churches at Brownville, Bethel or Nemaha next Sunday, as he is assisting in a protracted meeting at Adams. He went to Adams Monday.

Rev. J. W. Taylor and wife went to Auburn Tuesday, to visit their daughter Mrs. E. M. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Colerick and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoskins started for Alliance Monday. Elmer has a homestead near that town. Mr. Colerick, we understand, expects to take a homestead and make a home there.

Elder A. J. Barnes, who has been holding a protracted meeting at Shubert, came up to Nemaha Monday, having closed the meeting Sunday night. He will remain in Nemaha until next Monday, when he will return to his home in Iowa.

Andy Jarvis and Joe Stillwell spent over a week in hard work hunting, paid out $1 25 each for ammunition, shipped their game to Omaha, and then waited patiently for the returns that would enable them to open a fat bank account. When the returns came in they received $3 each as the proceeds of the sale of game shipped.

J. G. Sanders got out the first issue of the Brownville Sun last week. The Sun is the same size as THE ADVERTISER, four pages printed at home, and is a newsy paper. The merchants advertise liberally, and as John has had considerable experience in newspaper work and is a number one printer as well as a good writer, we are confident he will make a success of the Sun.

County Clerk Peery is evidently going to introduce a new style of official envelopes at the court house. He advertises for bids for printed envelopes "2x6½, 2x10 and 2x11." What the county officials want with envelopes of that shape is more than we can imagine. They will have to be manufactured to order as none are made of that size. The ordinary 6½ envelopes are 3½x6½ inches; 10s are 4½x9½, and 11s are 4½x10½.

E. M. Baker, of South Auburn, gave us a social call Tuesday. Mr. Baker took Steve Cooper to his home Wednesday of last week and took care of him until he was taken to the asylum at Lincoln on Friday, and he says he is confident Steve will soon entirely recover. He says he was considerably better before he left Auburn, and has got over many of his wild ideas. He thinks it will be only a few weeks till Steve will be as well as ever.

There was a sudden change in the weather about three o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Up to that time the weather was quite warm, the sun shining and the snow melting rapidly. Suddenly the sky became overcast with clouds, a very cold wind began blowing fiercely, and it was freezing. The change from warm sunshine to cold, cloudy, freezing weather occurred in a very few minutes. Inside of two hours the thermometer fell twenty-five degrees.

We are interested in seeing the farmers of this country prosper, for they are our friends and patrons. This is the reason why we commend to their attention the Iowa Homestead, which is one of the greatest aids to successful farming that is published in the west. It is so practical and so full of constantly helpful information on agricultural and live stock topics that it is hard to see how progressive farmers can get along without it. Its Special Farmers' Institute editions, which appear monthly and are sent out gratuitously to all subscribers, are the most popular and most useful publications in the way of farm counsel that have been devised in many years, for they consist entirely of the discussion, by practical farmers, of questions of immediate practical interest. Send for sample copies of both the regular and Special Farmers' Institute editions, addressing Homestead Co., Des Moines, Iowa, and see how useful they are.

COAL—Duquoin, Bevier, Walnut Block, McAllister and other grades of coal for sale, ranging in price from $2.25 to $4.00.

Brownville,

Nebraska.

A surprise party was given Mrs. O. K. Fisher last Monday, in honor of her seventy-third birthday anniversary. About ten o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were surprised to have their home invaded by a number of their neighbors, who brought well filled baskets and proceeded to make themselves at home. Shortly after noon the table was set with the good things brought by the good ladies, and it was a feast fit for the best company in the land. Every one present had a thoroughly enjoyable time, and on departing wished Mrs. Fisher many more birthday anniversaries.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lu Morris, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Webber, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Howe, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Colerick, Mrs. Isabella Seabury, Mrs. Cora Gillespie, Mrs. Cora Webber, Mrs. Sarah Hill.

THE ADVERTISER was remembered and a generous supply of excellent cake, pie, turkey and other good things to eat, which were thoroughly enjoyed.

THIS IS NO JOKE.

Kind friends and patrons: This is the close of 1897, and I have carried you for a year. In order to meet my bills I must have what is due me.

Truly yours,
M. H. TAYLOR.

LOOK HERE, $3.50 buys one of Dr. Gray's new syringes from his agent, D. F. Richardson, Brownville, Neb.

M. H. Taylor has a Christmas tree in one window of the drug store that attracts general attention. He got a handsome evergreen from the Titus Nursery, which he has decorated and hung full of toys, dolls, books and other suitable presents which he has in stock. In front of the tree Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus are standing, ready to start on their long journey. At one side is the home of Santa and his good wife, with a wide mouthed chimney, in which several Brownies are climbing. Numerous Brownies are also on the roof, at the door and window, in the yard, and climbing over the back of a calf near the house. The house and yard are apparently covered with snow. It is a beautiful scene. Mrs. Taylor trimmed the tree, and Mrs. Fairbank dressed the dolls.

Some fellows who had visited Auburn last Saturday got too full for comfort, and proceeded to "explode" that night, creating quite a disturbance. As a consequence four of the boys were arrested by Marshal Jarvis. Two of them had their trial before Squire Gilbert Monday morning and were fined $10 and costs, the total amounting to $13.45. The other two appeared on Wednesday and plead guilty to disturbing the peace. Their fun cost them $4 apiece.

HUNTERS, TAKE WARNING, and stay off my farm (the Wray Taylor bend) and save trouble. J. W. WEBBER.
