Yellow Fever.

Several cases of yellow fever were reported from points in Louisiana in the first week of September. On Sep. 8 it had made its appearance in New Orleans, also in Ocean Springs, Miss. In rapid succession came reports from Edwards, Miss., and Biloxi, Miss., and other southern points, until on Nov. 23 the fever was considered as practically stamped out. It has been estimated that the Gulf states suffered a financial loss of fully $60,000,000, the chief factor in which account being the loss in trade and traffic on account of the strict quarantine regulations. On Nov. 23 a report issued by the surgeon general of the marine hospital service, giving the returns up to a recent date, showed there had then appeared during the yellow fever epidemic in the south a total of 4,259 cases, of which 446 had proved fatal. Of the total number of cases 1,847 were reported from Louisiana, 1,625 from Mississippi, 740 from Alabama, 52 from Tennessee, 16 from Texas, 4 from Florida and Kentucky. Yellow Fever.
