JOHN L. CARSON.
 Brownville Sun.
 John L. Carson was born in Franklin county, Pa., August 30, 1832. He was in early life a clerk in a mercantile establishment in Pennsylvania.
 In 1856 he went to Keokuk, Iowa, and in 1857 came to Brownville, and in that year the banking firm of Lushbaugh & Carson was organized. Mr.
 Lushbaugh retired later and Mr. Carson went it alone until 1871, when the First National bank of Brownville was organized, with himself as president. He had in the meantime served through the civil war in the commissary department of the union army and attained the rank of captain. In 1881 a branch bank was started at Calvert, now Auburn. Later the Brownville bank was merged in the new institution and the name changed to the Carson National bank, Mr. Carson retaining the presidency. Several years ago Mr. Carson and family moved to Lincoln, but still retained their beautiful home in this place and frequently returned to their old home. Last spring he became president of the First National bank of Lincoln and was active in its management until his death.

He was married in 1863 and leaves a widow and three children—Lind and Misses Mamie and Rose.

The funeral services were held Monday in Lincoln. Rev. H. O. Scott of Carthage, Mo., formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church in Brownville, conducted the services, and D. D.
 Muir, G. M. Lambertson, W. W.
 Hackney and W. M. Leonard of Lincoln, J. A. Creigh of Omaha, M. H.
 Quick of Des Moines and A. R. Davisou of Denver and Dr. Stewart of Auburn were the pall bearers. The body of Mr. Carson was laid to rest in Wyuka cemetery, Lincoln.

Christmas day was the 82nd birthday of Mr. John N. Lewis, and it was also the 20th anniversary of the marriage life of his daughter and her husband, Mr. W. G. McGeehie, and both events were celebrated at the home of Mr. Lewis, a family reunion of all of his children and grand children, living in this part of the country. There were 36 persons in all who sat down to dinner, all descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, while the families of three of the children were not represented.
 One living in Ohio, John, living at Wymore, and Danne, being unable to get out. After dinner there was music vocal and instrumental, and other pleasant pastimes engaged in, until time to depart. These reunions have occurred regularly on Christmas for the past 20 years and are looked forward by the children, as the most pleasant days in all their lives. May Mr. Lewis live to celebrate in like manner many more of these occasions. —Shubert Citizen.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twentyfour hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.
 There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.
 Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention THE ADVERTISER and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietor of this paper guarantees the genuin-ness of this offer.

WOMAN IN THE HOME.

The Workers Who Go Not Out Into the World.

"It's glorious to be independent."
 "It's grand to be able to stand alone."
 "It's worth labor, toil and care to reach one's hand out and take what one will from among the gifts for which strong men are striving. To make one's own place, to work so well that work brings recognition and remuneration—all that is good." So say the women who never tried to do these things by way of encouragement to those who have been forced to try. But faint and small the echo of such words from the ranks of the workers themselves. If we could hear their heartbeats in the stillness of the night, in their little country homes from which they take the business trains for their days of labor in the city; in their boarding houses; in their tiny apartments which they try to make like homes, we should find them throbbing out a different tale.
 They are out in the world, out of their homes. Yes, but not of their own wish or will, driven out by such demons as intemperance, misfortune, or poverty, and in nine cases out of ten working with the heart still clinging to the home. Then in nine cases out of ten there's always somebody else for whom they work. It may be a father, kind but inefficient and unfortunate. There is a mother well stricken in years.
 There are invalid relatives to be taken gently down to the grave side, and money smooths even that weary way.
 There are brothers to be helped through college. There are sisters to be instructed and trained, not in order that they can go out into the world. Oh! no, but so "that they can do something, too, to add to the income and yet stay at home."

This is the kind of burden they carry; these are such utterances as we should hear if we listened to their heartbeats in the night. So the noblest class of working women, even like men, would keep their little sisters in the home.— Washington Home Magazine.

Reading as a Mental Stimulus.

An eminent French critic said in a lecture recently in New York that "To distrust what we like is the first requisite of progress in art and in life." He did not mean that books that are disagreeable are the only books worth reading. But he did mean that a book which opens up a new field of knowledge, a new outlook upon literature or life, is not at first likely to give the pleasure that comes from one which simply reflects the old familiar ideas of which we say complacently: "How good and true that is, for I've felt it or said it myself." A book that puts you on the head or heart all the time is apt to be little more than a reflection of your own narrow experience, and you will not learn anything from it. A book that makes one feel ignorant is as mortifying to one's pride as a superior person.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Baked Tomatoes.

Choose six large smooth tomatoes.
 Cut a slice off the stem end, and carefully scoop out the seeds. Mix half a cupful of finely-chopped, cold boiled ham, two tablespoonfuls of stale bread crumbs, a tablespoonful of chopped parsley, half a teaspoonful of salt, and a dash of cayenne, with a tablespoonful of melted butter. Fill the tomatoes with the mixture, heaping it in the center; sprinkle over the tops with bread crumbs; put the tomatoes in a granite baking pan, baste with melted butter, and bake in a hot oven over 30 minutes.
 When done take up and serve hot.— Housekeeper.

Small precautions often prevent great mischiefs. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very small pills in size, but are most effective in preventing the most serious forms of liver and stomach troubles. They cure constipation and headache and regulate the bowels. M H Taylor.

Whirling Mice of Japan.

There are certain breeds of mice in Japan very sensitive and susceptible to impressions. Under proper conditions these little creatures will whirl like dervishes for hours at a time. They have been taken up by naturalists when in this condition and held stationary for several minutes, but will instantly resume the "whirling" when released.

Electric Bread Cutter.

A machine has been devised which goes by electricity and which can cut and butter 750 loaves of bread an hour.
 The butter is spread very thin by a cylindrical brush—so thin that a large pad of butter is guaranteed.

Elephant's Shower Bath.

The elephant, in a wild state, is a nocturnal animal, rarely if ever stirring in the daylight from his haunts in the shady forest, and, when domesticated and compelled to work or travel in the daylight, his enormous size and dark color causes him to be a great sufferer from heat. To relieve him, the animal has contracted a habit of withdrawing from his stomach a quantity of water by means of his trunk, which he then squirts over his back and sides in order, by its evaporation, to cool his skin. As this process is repeated on an average of once in every five minutes, and as the elephant's aim is not good, his efforts to keep cool cause considerable inconvenience to his riders, who are frequently sprinkled by the water, though the fluid is quite clear and has no offensive odor. The habit is acquired in domestication, for it is not known to be practiced by elephants in the wild state, and is altogether one of the most singular in natural history.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Why They Gave It Up.

Mrs. Bradish—I thought you were going to spend the summer in your cottage, out on the lake shore?
 Mrs. Huntley—We did intend to do so, but we've had to give it up.
 "Why, is it impossible for your husband to attend to business and go so far out every night?"
 "Oh, no, he could do it all right; but our hired girl's beau can't."—Cleveland Leader.

"The worst cold I ever had in my life was cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes W. H. Norton, of Sutter Creek, Cal. "This cold left me with a cough and I was expectorating all the time. The Remedy cured me, and I want all my friends when troubled with a cough or cold to use it, for it will do them good." Sold by M. H.
 Taylor, Druggist, Nemaha, Nebraska.

There is nothing so good as Dr.
 King's New Discovery for consumption else to be just as good. You want Dr.

 King's New Discovery because you funded. For coughs, colds and consumption and for all affections of
