Any one might know, from glancing over the fashions displayed this month in that popular publication, the Standard Designer, that winter was on the wane. Heavy wraps and gowns are replaced by dainty and stylish creations that foretell the approach of spring as surely as the almanac. There are eighty-five handsome designs given of garments suitable for ladies, misses, girls, children and men besides four artistic color plates, and numerous illustrated suggestions for trimming, etc. The literary portion of the book is replete with articles—many of them illustrated, that are of interest to everyone. To recount all these would require too much space, but especial mention must be made of "Home-Made Valentines", telling how to manufacture charming novelties in this line; "The Coquettish Stubbard Locks", giving illustrated directions for the arrangement of little folks' tresses; "The Chainless Wheel", of especial interest to bicyclists, and "The Arts of Beauty", embodying suggestions for the enhancing of feminine charms. The February Standard Designer will be, as always, a welcome visitor.

Miss Allie Hughes, Norfolk, Va., was frightfully burned on the face and neck. Pain was instantly relieved by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which healed the injury without leaving a scar. It is the famous pile remedy. M H Taylor.

The February issue of The Delineator is called the Midwinter Number and again thoroughly justifies its reputation as woman's authority in Fashions and Literature. The latest Winter styles are elaborately illustrated and accurately described. Prominent among the literary features is Emma Churchman Hewitt's article on Household Expenses. Dr. Grace Peckham Murry contributes a valuable paper on "The Common Ills of Life." In "Children and Their Ways" Mrs. Alice Meynell continues her series of Child-Studies, directing attention to the danger of overtaxing their brains. In "The Care of Belongings" are many suggestions which will prove of material value to housekeepers. "Dona Maria" is a fascinating character study of the Southwest by Eva Wilder Brodhead. Mrs. Cadwalader Jones' department, "Social Observances," "The Flower Garden" by Mr. Vick, "Fancy Stitches and Embroideries" by Emma Haywood, Knitting, Lace-Making, etc., add to the attractiveness of the issue. Address Buttreick Pub. Co., 7 to 17 W 13 St., New York.

A NEW FORM OF PERSONALITIES.
The old style of portraying famous people through a "sketch" or "biography" is to be modernized in The Ladies' Home Journal during 1898. Five of the most prominent Americans have been chosen for the departure: President McKinley, Mrs. Cleveland, Mark Twain, Joseph Jefferson and Thomas A Edison. Each will have a special article, which will consist of about fifteen or twenty fresh, unpublished stories and anecdotes strung together, each anecdote showing some characteristic trait or presenting a different side of the subject. The idea is to show famous personalities through their own doings and sayings, and to make these articles accurate, the relatives and closest personal friends of the subjects have assisted and given to the Journal the best stories and anecdotes within their own knowledge. Each article will thus represent the closest view of the one sketched. No authorship will be attached to any of the articles.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fails every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder, and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention THE ADVERTISER and send your address to Dr. Kilmor & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietor of this paper guarantees the genuineness of this offer.
