Rev. C. H. Gilmore, and Rev. Mr. Stannard, of Adams, gave us a pleasant call Monday. Rev. Stannard is assisting Bro. Gilmore in the protracted meeting at Brownville.

The county treasurer opened bids for the depositing of the county funds for the coming two years. The bank of Peru was the highest bidder, its bid being 4 per cent for the full amount allowed by law which is 30 per cent of its capital stock. The other banks, i. e., Johnson, Brock, Julian, and the Carson National bank bid only 3 per cent. The Carson bank only wanted $10,000, the other banks asked for the full amount allowed them, i. e., 30 per cent of their capital stock. The First National of Auburn, did not put in any bid, as it claims to have all the money it wants without the county funds.—Auburn Post.

In casting about for a competent man to collect the delinquent taxes of this county, Treasurer Engles decided that ex Deputy Sheriff W. H. Hill was the proper man to appoint to do the work and this week he appointed him for the work and his bond has been approved by the county commissioners. In speaking of this appointment Treasurer Engles said that it was purely business and nothing else. He wanted a man who would collect the taxes and he knew of no better than Hill and the many friends of Mr. Hill are congratulating him upon his good fortune in securing the appointment.—Auburn Post.

WHY NOT?

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a local by Gov. Furnas regarding a canning factory in Brownville. Why not have such an institution in our town? Nemaha county is the banner fruit county of the state, and Brownville is the centre of the small fruit industry. Last year there were shipped from this station 37,800 quarts of berries, 40,668 baskets of grapes, besides an immense quantity of apples, peaches, pears, plums, etc. A canning factory would provide a home market for most of this fruit. A demand would also be created for sweet corn and tomatoes, and we can beat the world in quality and quantity of these products. No where in the state could a factory be run at so little expense as in Brownville.—Sun.

The Poultry Farmer is the name of a new paper published at Des Moines, Ia., in the interests of the farmer and farmer's wife who raise poultry and produce eggs to pay the grocery and dry goods bills. It is a 16 page monthly published at 50 cents a year, and is a practical farmers' poultry paper as distinguished from a poultry fanciers' journal. It is just the kind of paper that is wanted on every farm where a hen cackles, for its purpose is to help make cackling profitable. Send for free sample copy, address The Poultry Farmer, Des Moines, Ia.

Mrs. Moses Banks died Tuesday, January 18th, 1898, at 3 o'clock a. m. at the family residence in Nemaha Nebraska.

Mrs. Banks has been practically an invalid for several years, and a number of times it was thought she could not recover, but rallied and was enabled to attend to her home duties again. She had been confined to her bed this time only about a week or ten days.

Mrs. Banks was 72 years of age last October. She came to Nebraska with her husband and family in October, 1866. She was married over fifty four years ago and was the mother of eleven children.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks were among the oldest settlers of this county. They lived to see a large family grow up, and all living children married except one—James, who lives at home. They have seven living children—Mrs. Robt. Frost, of Nemaha, Mrs. David Frazier, of Carl Junction, Kansas, Mrs. John Frazier, of St. Deroin, Mo., Mrs. Maxwell, of Harlan, Iowa, W. T. Banks, of North Platt, C. C. Banks, of west Nebraska, and James Banks, of Nemaha.

The funeral services were held at the Christian church on Wednesday, at 2 o'clock p. m., conducted by Rev. C. H. Gilmore. A large number of friends and relatives followed the remains to the last resting place.

The aged husband and children have the sincere sympathy of all in the bereavement.

WEDDING BELLS.

Again the wedding bells have chimed, and two of our young people have linked their lives for weal or woe. Mr. George H. Culwell and Miss Rhoda Anderson were married on Thursday evening, Jan. 13th, at the home of the bride's parents in this precinct. At eight o'clock, as the air was filled by the beautiful strains of the wedding march played by Miss Jessie Dye, the happy young couple, attended by Miss Edith Dye and Mr. Charles Anderson, entered the room, where the Rev. Diefenbach, of the Lutheran church, Auburn, pronounced the words which united them in the holy bonds of matrimony. The two are among the best known and most popular young people of this vicinity, the groom being the eldest son of Dance Culwell of Bedford precinct, and the bride the daughter of William Anderson, and are exemplary young people in every respect. About fifty friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. After receiving congratulations the young couple led the way into the dining room where a bountiful repast, served as Mrs. Anderson only knows how to serve, awaited the company. About twelve o'clock, the supper having been disposed of, the guests began to depart all feeling that they had spent a most enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Culwell will go to housekeeping about the first of March on the farm of Patrick Daugherty, about five miles southeast of Auburn. That their path may lie through the sunny fields of life, little shadowed by the clouds of adversity is the wish of a multitude of friends.
