Frank Flack has leased two lots in the west part of town and has moved thereon the house that he built last spring on the John Lewis eighty, south of town.

Oscar Scovill and family, who moved to Kansas last spring, returned to Nemaha last Saturday. Oscar recently had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs and is now in a bad condition.

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Norris, living on the bottom road about three miles north-east of Nemaha, last Saturday night. Nearly all the neighbors were present and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Miss Pearl Finch visited Nemaha friends Tuesday. Miss Pearl and her grandmother, Mrs. Polock, have been staying with Mrs. Polock's daughter, Mrs. W. H. Rhodes, of St. Joe, for some time, but returned to Brownville about three weeks ago.

R. T. Rainey, of Brownville, visited Nemaha Tuesday—not because he particularly wanted to come that day but because he went on the train at Brownville and tarried until it had got too much of a start for him to get off comfortably.

COAL—Duquoin, Bevier, Walnut Block, McAilister and other grades of coal for sale, ranging in price from $2.25 to $4.00.

HARRY McCANDLESS.

The preachers at Auburn appear to be in a resigning mood just now. Rev. Cox, the Baptist minister, resigned two or three weeks ago, and this week Rev. E. S. Chamberlain, pastor of the Christian church, resigned.

We understand that James W. Argabright will soon move to Shubert, in order that Mrs. Argabright may care for her grandchildren, the motherless children of C. H. Henderson. Mr. Argabright will assist Mr. Henderson in the store, and the boys will run the farm.

Miss Mabel Bridge was fifteen years old Monday, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Bridge, gave a party that night in her honor. Although the night was quite stormy twenty or twenty-five persons were present, and all thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality of the host and hostess until a late hour.

GENERAL SUPPER.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will give a general supper at the Minick hall Saturday evening, Feb. 26th. Price for adults, 15 cents; children, 10 cents. Supper will be ready at 5 o'clock. Everybody is invited to come and get a good supper and help raise some money for the pastor.

John Kempthorne has sold his little sixteen acre farm south of Nemaha to R. T. Devors, who has been living on the old Hite farm in Aspinwall precinct for two or three years. Mr. Devors has rented the Lewis eighty acre farm south of town, which he will tend this summer. Mr. Kempthorne will build on the farm he recently bought on the county line northeast of Shubert.

James A. Stephenson's father, who has been visiting here for several months, started for Wisconsin Tuesday afternoon, where he will visit his daughter for a short time and then return to his home in New York state. Mr. Stephenson is over eighty years of age, but is hale and hearty and as active as many men of half his age. His visit here was greatly enjoyed not only by his son and family and old friends but by all those who made his acquaintance. We hope he will make us another visit soon.

NEW BLACKSMITH SHOP.

Lindsey & Lilly having bought the Finch blacksmith shop, ask the patronage of the public, guaranteeing first class work at low prices. Give them a trial.

To Whom It May Concern:

I being acquainted with Mr. Charles Lindsey will say he is a first class horse shoer and a good general workman. Having had him in my employ I know him to be honest in all his work.

Respectfully, E. M. SMITH.

S. Gilbert & Son

Thomas Elliott Minick arrived at Bracken Monday evening, February 14th, and the young gentleman will make his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Minick. Grandma Raburn Elliott is assisting the mother in entertaining the youngster. Babe says it is the finest boy in the world, and was named after Tom Majors and grandpa. Charlie Minick was kept busy telegraphing "It's a boy," and going across the road to see that the boy was all right and to be assured that he "looked just like his papa."

The singers of Nemaha and those musically inclined met at the Christian church Tuesday night and formed a "Choral Union." The class will meet every Tuesday night at 7:30, at the Christian church. "Shorty" Hudson, the B. & M. brakeman who had his shoulder crushed while making a coupling some days since is getting along finely and it is now thought his arm will be saved and will not have to be cut off, as it was first thought it would be. This will be indeed good news to his many friends.

Married.—At the home of the bride's parents in Carl Junction, Sunday, February 8, 1898, at high noon, Dr. Wooty W. Frazier and Miss Lillian Mae LaFollette, by the Rev. S. Glascock.

The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of rich tan colored mohair, trimmed in light blue, and the groom in a conventional black suit. Both parties were graduates from the Cotner University of Nebraska, the one from medical department, the other from the musical.

They will reside in our midst, in which the Dr. already has a large practice, and the bride the leading pianist of Carl Junction.

The quiet wedding will not soon be forgotten by the friends and parents who witnessed it. And the feast of good things, and the melodious music enjoyed on that occasion is seldom surpassed. The bride and groom have the best wishes of their new made friends, and a bright and prosperous future awaits them.—Carl Junction (Mo.) Standard.

TITUS NURSERY

G. N. Titus, proprietor of the Titus nursery, located half a mile west of Nemaha, attended the Farmer's institute in Johnson last week, returning home Friday. Nat, as he is nicknamed at home, is a man of considerable push and business and our opinion of him formed after a long acquaintance, is that he is a man of his word—trustworthy and honest. Mr. Titus is said to own one of the neatest and most complete nurseries in the west and being but a short distance from Johnson it would certainly be advisable for our farmer friends to consult him when in need of any nursery stock. His charges are reasonable and he pays the freight.—Johnson News.
