Miss Gertie Flack, who has been at Bracken for two or three weeks, returned home last Saturday.
Mr. Pruyar, who lived in this vicinity in the early days, was visiting old friends here Saturday and Sunday.
Miss Trixy Seabury returned home Tuesday from Glen Rock, where she has been visiting relatives for the past week.
Mrs. Dr. Keeling returned home last Saturday after a visit of almost two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Ed. L. Culver, at Omaha.
James Huston, a former Nemaha citizen but who for several years has lived at Alliance, remits $3.00 on subscription this week.
L. H. Barnes went to Omaha Monday, in the interest of his ratchet wheel wrench. He returned home Wednesday forenoon.
There was quite a wind storm Monday afternoon, which blew over fences, outhouses, well curbs, etc. In the evening a good rain fell.
Mrs. Fannie Fairbank went to Auburn Tuesday, to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Lydia Skeen. She returned home Wednesday.
Our attention has been called to the fact that Master Charles Elliott Minick, of Bracken, also visited Grandma Minick and Aunt Maud last week.
Wm. Peery was down from Glen Rock Tuesday and on Wednesday moved his sister, Miss Crosby Peery, to Glen Rock. Her mind has been very much unsettled for some time, and she had to be taken care of.

Gene Combs, of Pawnee City, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday, in the interest of a Kansas City commission house of which he is the representative.

Miss Effie Wheeldon, the popular teacher in district 35, on the bottom northeast of Nemaha, attended services at the Methodist church in Nemaha Sunday night.

Lester Peabody, who has been having a lay-off for a few weeks, received orders to go to Wymore Wednesday night, to go to work again as brakeman on the B. & M.

Dr. Keeling, D. A. Morton, Lester Fox, Peter Kerker, J. P. Hoover, Babe Elliott, Joe Littrell, Robt Frost, John White and a host of other Nemaha people were attending court at Auburn Thursday.

Robt. Frost, jr., and Miss Annie Frost gave a party to their young friends last Friday night. The young people had a splendid time. Mr. and Mrs. Frost and Rob and Annie understand the art of entertaining their guests.

We received a call Tuesday afternoon from Misses Lillian Minick, Veva Clark, Ethel Paris and Lizzie Melvin, the handsome graduating class from the Nemaha school. All were wearing the class colors, which are pink and green.

Our friend B. H. Bailey, of Brock, is having a streak of good luck just now. He was recently appointed postmaster of Brock, and last week he received the good news that he had been granted a pension of $6 per month, dating back to last July.

Ed Corn, of Salem, uncle of Enoch Haneline, has been at Nemaha and Auburn this week. He is an important witness in the law suit of Judge Broady and Enoch Haneline against Bud Stockton and others on the sandbar northeast of town.

Judge Stull was in from Auburn Monday. He got as far as the Titus Nursery just as it commenced storming. So he stopped and swapped lies with Jim until morning, and incidentally ordered a good sized bill of fruit trees for one of his farms.

A GREAT SUNDAY PAPER FREE.

The Semi-Weekly State Journal wants to get 5,000 new subscribers during the next thirty days, and as a special offer, one that is bound to bring new subscribers, will send The Semi-Weekly State Journal every Tuesday and Friday for a whole year for one dollar, and as a special premium will also send the Great Sunday State Journal, sixteen pages every Sunday, for three months free. Remember, you will get The Semi-Weekly Journal a whole year and the Great Sunday paper for three months all for one dollar. To get the advantage of this greatest of all offers you must send your dollar direct to The State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., and not through an agent. Never before has so much good reading matter been offered for one dollar. The Sunday Journal contains more reading matter alone than many magazines. If you want to keep up with the world's doings, here is a chance such as has never been offered before. This offer may be withdrawn soon, so do not put off sending your dollar for fear you may be disappointed. One dollar does it all.

Mrs. Laird and daughter, mother and sister of Mrs. Kemp Colerick, visited the latter two or three days last week, leaving for Shenandoah, Iowa, Friday, near where they have recently bought a farm, having sold the home place near Humboldt.

John Knight, who has been one of the regular hands on the B. & M. section, some time ago slipped and fell while carrying a heavy load, injuring himself so that he has been compelled to quit work. He has moved on the Colerick farm southwest of town and will try gardening and farming on a small scale this summer.

There has been some moving in this section this week. Lester Fox moved in town in the house with S. K. Anderson. John Kemptherne moved on the farm he recently bought of Mr. Fox, and R. T. Devors has moved on the farm he bought of Mr. Kemptherne.

S. H. Avey, of Auburn, gave us a social call last Saturday. Sam had been on a little trip through the southeastern part of the county, and had a disagreeable experience south of town a short distance. He pulled out of the road and off the grade to where it seemed better traveling, but the wheels filled up to the hub with gumbo and the team got stuck. Sam had to get out and knock the mud out before he could proceed.

The Methodist ladies' aid society has been given the use of the Episcopal church for their meetings, through the kindness of the trustees of the church. They have been meeting for a long time in the brick building south of F. L. Woodward's residence, Frank having generously given them the use of his house, but as he desires to remodel the house and rent it the society had to look for a new place to meet. They are very thankful to Mr. Woodward and the trustees of the Episcopal church for the generous treatment.

HUNTERS, TAKE WARNING,
