Andrew Aynes

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams were up from Shubert Sunday.

The Methodists held a sunrise prayer meeting Sunday morning. Twelve were out.

Frank Skeen has moved into one of S. Gilbert's houses, south of the latter's residence.

S. Gilbert & Son sell best prints at 5 cents per yard. Table oil cloth 15 cents per yard.

The Ladies' Aid Society has had a good fence built around the grounds of the Methodist church.

Robt. McManus was down from Brock Monday, after some fruit trees from the Titus Nursery.

For sale—Two thoroughbred Berkshire boars, eight months old. Inquire at this office. Will exchange for other stock, or for corn, wood, etc

Mrs. J. F. Wykes, of Highland Station, Kas., arrived in Nemaha Monday and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Crim.

O. H. Whyman, of Adams, came to Nemaha Monday and is now working in the interests of the Royal Highlanders.

We understand that Levi Johnson is very sick, with consumption. He is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wallace, near Howe.

C. Shuck started for Iowa Monday, on a visit. He will spend a week or two, perhaps longer, in Derby, Newton and other towns.

HUNTERS, TAKE WARNING.

and stay off my farm (the Wray Taylor bend) and save trouble. J. W. WEBBER.

ELEGANT WALL PAPER DESIGNS

It's no longer a question of "Can I afford to paper," but the thought is, "Can I afford to look at that old style pattern on the wall, year in and year out, when the cost of paper is so little—5 cents a roll up."

M. H. TAYLOR, THE DRUGGIST.

DON'T

Spend all day scrubbing that kitchen woodwork. A quart of our best paint only costs you 40 cents and then your kitchen will look like new. Change the color in your rooms every year.

We were pleased to see James A. Titus on our streets last Saturday. He is quite weak yet, but is steadily gaining. We hope his improvement will continue.

Mrs. Lillie Mather stopped THE ADVERTISER about two weeks ago, but on Wednesday she subscribed for it again, saying she could not well get along without it.

We received a few days ago a package of Prowers county (Colo.) papers from David Barnes, formerly of this place, who is now county superintendent of Prowers county.

Kerker & Hoover have moved into their new quarters, one door north of the old location. Pete has only one complaint to make. He says the new room is so light it hurts his eyes.

Phil Shuck recently bought an outfit for housekeeping and has been enjoying that pleasing occupation in the house on the farm Mrs. N. E. Morrison recently bought of John Dorrman. We have advised Phil to take a wife, but fear he is a confirmed bachelor.

Lloyd Sissel, who is working for Ed Morrison, was splitting wood a few days ago, when the axe went through the stick of wood and into his foot, cutting it clean through for over an inch between the big toe and the one next to it. He will not be able to do any work for some time.

ARTICHOKES AND MILLET SEED

I have for sale for cash only White Jerusalem Artichokes at 50 cents per bushel. Also good clean new millet seed at 50 cents. J. H. SEID.

SEEDS!

Go to Kerker & Hoover for all kinds fresh bulk Garden Seed and seeds of all kinds. They are the Old Reliable Seed House in Nemaha county. Call and see.

Money to Loan

On good farms at as low rate of interest as the lowest and the best of terms. Call and see us.

GILMORE, GILLAN & BURRESS, Auburn, Neb.

The members of the Christian church have reshingled that building this week. They torn off all the old shingles on the north side of the house Tuesday morning, getting the last of them off just before it commenced to rain. As a consequence of the rain they will have considerable replastering to do.

O. S. Jones, who lived east of Barada, was found dead in his yard Saturday morning, with his skull crushed. He had been beaten over the head and killed. Over $30 was found in his pockets, so it was evident robbery was not the motive of the crime. The murdered man was a bachelor and a quiet, inoffensive man, but he had had some trouble with two men who had formerly worked for him, and these two men have been arrested. Mr. Jones worked for John H. Shook a few years ago when the latter lived at Hillsdale, and was well known to many of our citizens.

W. W. Sanders is agent for R. V. Muir's town lots in Nemaha. If you want to lease or buy one apply at THE ADVERTISER office.

Rabe Elliott, Dr. Melvin and John Dorrman came back from Oklahoma Wednesday night. They all express themselves as being highly pleased with the country, but it is not probable either of them will move there.

James C. Sparks, of Bracken, gave us a social call Monday. Jim informs us that he has decided to quit farming for a year. He has rented his farm to Harvey Smith, and will move his family to Auburn, while he will go to Omaha and endeavor to get a position in the Trans-Mississippi exposition.

Charles M. Woodward, of Nemaha, Neb., arrived last week and is employed as assistant bookkeeper for the H. O. Barber grain firm in this city. We have known Charley's family for a number of years, and can recommend him to the young people of Holdrege as an exceptionally worthy young man. —Holdrege Journal.

David Frazier, who has been wandering around for several years, trying to find a better country than Nemaha, has decided that such a country cannot be found, so he has decided to again take up his residence with us. He has been living in southwestern Missouri for some time. He arrived in Nemaha Sunday, having driven through with a span of mules. The next day he went to making garden and getting ready for farming, and is feeling happy again except when he is kicking himself for ever leaving Nemaha.

COAL—Duquoin, Bevier, Walnut Block, McAilister and other grades of coal for sale, ranging in price from $2.25 to $4.00.
HARRY McCANDLESS.

W. W. Sanders, Notary Public. Pensions papers of all kinds made out accurately. Legal documents drawn up. All business given prompt and careful attention.

Frank Sherwood was down town today, the first time since he had his tussle with cholera morbus. He says he drove thirty miles after he was taken and never came so near dying in his life. After this when he goes out in the country he will take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him. —Missouri Valley (Iowa) Times. For sale by M. H. Taylor.

A GREAT SUNDAY PAPER FREE.

The Semi-Weekly State Journal wants to get 5,000 new subscribers during the next thirty days, and as a special offer, one that is bound to bring new subscribers, will send The Semi-Weekly State Journal every Tuesday and Friday for a whole year for one dollar, and as a special premium will also send the Great Sunday State Journal, sixteen pages every Sunday, for three months free. Remember, you will get The Semi-Weekly Journal a whole year and the Great Sunday paper for three months all for one dollar. To get the advantage of this greatest of all offers you must send your dollar direct to The State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., and not through an agent. Never before has so much good reading matter been offered for one dollar. The Sunday Journal contains more reading matter alone than many magazines. If you want to keep up with the world's doings, here is a chance such as has never been offered before. This offer may be withdrawn soon, so do not put off sending your dollar for fear you may be disappointed. One dollar does it all.

Whooping cough is the most distressing malady; but its duration can be cut short by the use of One Minute Cough Cure, which is also the best known remedy for croup and all lung and bronchial troubles. M. H. Taylor.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding. Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.

A thrill of terror is experienced when a brassy cough of croup sounds through the house at night. But the terror soon changes to relief after One Minute Cough Cure has been administered. Safe and harmless for children. M. H. Taylor.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds. M. H. Taylor.

Children and adults tortured by burns, scalds, injuries, eczema or skin diseases may secure instant relief by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is the great pile remedy. M. H. Taylor are busy from morning till late at night, selling goods. With them business is always booming. Nobody can make them believe that Nemaha is a dead town. Their lumber business keeps increasing, and most of the lumber and building material that they sell is used in Nemaha or its vicinity.

Gilbert & Son say they have no occasion and no time to find fault with Nemaha. They are receiving a large stock of seasonable goods.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

The partnership heretofore existing for the transacting of the business of a commercial bank, under the name of the Gilbert Bank, wherein H. C. Gilbert, of Waynesboro, Pa., S. Gilbert and R. Gilbert, of Nemaha, Neb., were general partners, is this 25th day of March, 1898, dissolved by mutual consent. The affairs of the firm will be adjusted and settled by S. Gilbert.
