THE ADVERTISER'S office has been moved into the west room of the opera house building, where we invite everybody to call and see us.

Sherm Titus returned home Thursday evening of last week, after a visit of several days with his father at Iowa Point, Kansas.

Our schools closed Wednesday until next Monday, to enable teachers and pupils to appropriately celebrate Thanksgiving.

Parties wanting extra copies of the abstract of the official vote of Nemaha county, can get the same by calling at this office.

Dr. Melvin says he is just as lucky as if he carried the left hind foot of a graveyard rabbit. He put five cents into a raffle a few days ago and won a team.

Frank Hodges and Charles Hodges, brother and cousin of S. W. Hodges, returned to Tracey, Iowa, Tuesday, after a stay in this county of about a month.

Dr. H. S. Gaither, who is now located at Arlington, Nebr., is thinking of returning to Nemaha. His many friends here hope he will come. He is a good doctor.

The elevator at the McCandless Siding caught fire near the roof Thursday afternoon of last week. By hard work the fire was put out before any great amount of damage was done. It is not known how the fire originated.

Oscar Scovill got a bad fall Wednesday. He says if the wicked stand in slippery places he evidently doesn't belong in that class, as he couldn't stand on the slippery places in his door yard. He has been staying at home nursing his bruises.

J. H. Linn has been sick for the past ten or twelve days. Mr. Heacock, who has recently arrived here from Canada, a brother of P. S. Heacock of Falls City, is filling Mr. Linn's place as engineer in the elevator at the McCandless Siding.

Mrs. J. W. Taylor and Miss Nelle Merton drove in from Auburn Friday of last week and visited Nemaha friends until Monday, when they became uneasy on account of the storm and returned to Auburn on the train. Prof. Crichton drove the team out Wednesday evening.

Walt Faris, who is Ed Workman's right hand man in the livery stable, started to drive to St. Dorein Tuesday, but got stuck in a snow drift about a half mile east of I. N. Cooper's farm. After the horses had broken a single-tree and one tug Walt unhitched and came back to town, got another buggy, and by driving around the drifts got to his destination all right. Ed went down the next morning and pulled the buggy out of the drift.

I can furnish you anything required in the line of pure bred Poland China hogs at reasonable prices.

J. S. HARRIS,
Tecumseh, Neb.

Thoroughbred Duroc-Jersey Hogs for Sale.

Both sexes. Fine stock and good pigs. Prices reasonable. Come and see them. Farm 1½ miles southwest of Nemaha. W. W. SEID.

Late to bed and early to rise, prepares a man for his home in the skies. But early to bed and a Little Early Riser, the pill that makes life longer and better and wiser. M. H. Taylor.

To Cure Headache in 10 Minutes. Take Dr. Davis' Anti-Headache. All druggists.

At high noon on Wednesday, November 23, at the home of the bride's parents in East Lincoln, occurred the marriage of our popular young merchant, Mr. C. B. Swan, and Miss Lillah Wheeler, by Rev. L. T. Guild, pastor of the Grace M. E. church of Lincoln. After the ceremony the happy young couple took the train for Omaha where they remain till Friday, when they return to Auburn. The parents of the groom give the young couple a reception at their home on Friday evening to a few intimate friends. The groom, Bert Swan, needs no introduction to our citizens. He has grown to manhood in our midst, and for a number of years has been head clerk in his father's large store and is known and liked by every one for his genial and obliging ways. The bride has made her home in Auburn most of the time during the past year, as a teacher of instrumental music. She has made many friends who welcome her back to Auburn as Mrs. Swan. All friends here wish them a long and joyous married life.—Post.

M. H. Taylor has sold his stock of drugs, etc., to Dr. W. W. Keeling. Invoicing was commenced Wednesday. Minor has not yet fully decided what he will do, but will probably be a citizen of Nemaha for some time yet. We hope he will conclude to remain here. Dr. Keeling is a good business man, and we are glad to see him engage in business in Nemaha. He will carry a good stock of drugs and other goods, and will deserve the patronage of the public. His son, Will F. Keeling, will assist in the store.

Dr. Kyle says his father-in-law was elected mayor of Sioux City Tuesday, and the doctor has generously consented to accept an appointment and serve the dear people, and will soon leave for that city.—Johnson News.

Strayed.—From my farm about three weeks ago a thoroughbred Jersey Red boar pig weighing about 75 pounds. Finder will please notify me and I will pay expenses. PAUL ARGABRIGHT.

Please Take Notice.

As I have sold my business in Nemaha, all persons owing me are hereby notified to call at once and settle and save trouble, as I must have what is due me. Respectfully,

M. H. TAYLOR.

PICKLES' HOLIDAY OFFER.

$1 Reduction on Cabinet Photos

OFFER NO. 1.
$3 per dozen for Platino Photos until the first of January, 1899. This is the price you would pay for the old style glossy.

OFFER NO. 2.
Each patron taking one dozen Cabinets at $3.00 will be entitled to a life size portrait at $1.50; when not taking the cabinets the price of the portrait will be $2.50, size 16x20, either Platiniun Bromide or Crayon—your choice of the two made from an original negative which I make for you free of charge, thereby getting you a better picture than when copied from a photograph. Portraits are not framed at this price and there is no obligation on your part to take a frame.

Your attention is called to the fact that you cannot have your sitting made too early, before the holiday rush commences. A word to the wise on this point is sufficient.

Good wood will be taken in exchange for work at the highest market price.

J. W. PICKELS,
South Auburn, Nebr.

We will send the Kansas City Journal and THE ADVERTISER both one year for only $1.15.

HOGS.

I will buy hogs at Nemaha and McCandless Siding Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week. Highest market prices paid.

HARRY K. McCANDLESS.
