 Miss Veva Clark and Miss Lulu Buchenau went to Brock Friday.
 Today is potato planting day, but we do not believe many will be planted.
 An early Easter doesn't indicate an early spring this year, by any means.
 Carpenters are now pushing the work on the Duff elevator at this place.
 Instead of planting potatoes on Good Friday, some of our citizens were sleighriding.
 Call in and see us for way down clubbing rates on your winter's supply of reading matter.
 An elegant line of latest styles wall paper just received at Keeling's drug store. Call and see.
 T. B. Skeen returned to Auburn Tuesday morning after a short visit with Nemaha friends.
 Mrs. Alex. Maxwell, who has been visiting friends in this vicinity, returned to Auburn Monday.
 Another snow storm set in Wednesday night and continued until noon Thursday. Several inches of snow fell.
 Miss Jennie Calvin went to Johnson Monday. She will assist Miss Eleanor Galbraith in the millinery store for awhile.
 There was an inch or two of snow fell Sunday morning, about as much Monday morning, and a little more Tuesday.
 FOR SALE.—The best 40-acre fruit farm in Nebraska. For prices and terms apply to J. G. Sanders, agent, Brownville, Nebraska.
 Mrs. W. S. Thompson and children started for Missouri Tuesday. We understand they go to Norborne, where Will will probably locate.
 There was no preaching at the Methodist church last Sunday night. We presume the roads were so bad Bro. Gilmore could not get here.
 Mrs. Benj. Bunn, of Brock, came to Nemaha Saturday and visited Mrs. Robt. Frost and Mrs. David Frazier and families until Monday.
Wanted—Peach Seed.
 The Titus Nursery want to buy a lot of peach seed. If you have any bring them in at once.
 David C. Miller, of Auburn, gave us a social call Tuesday and paid for The Advertiser to June 9th, 1900. He gets the Farm Journal five years as a premium.
 Mr. Bruce, a blind man, an instructor of piano tuning at the blind asylum at Nebraska City, was in Nemaha Saturday and tuned the pianos for Miss Maud Minick, Miss Veva Clark and Dr. Gaither.

J. P. Linn rode up to Brownville Monday evening on the three wheeler. Dick Duff went along to see that Jim did not get into any trouble.
 Miss Kate Barnes went to Peru Thursday afternoon. Miss Leta Seabury took charge of the intermediate department during her absence.
 Bert Fairbank is quite sick with la grippe and stomach trouble. On that account Mrs. Fairbank will not have the millinery opening Saturday.
 Mr. Eldredge, living near Stella, will move on the Frost farm. Lester Russell, the owner, will remain on Dr. Keeling's farm for another year.
 Jim Titus says he is going to run the farm this year. That is, he is going to do the bossing. We will see this fall how successful a farmer he is.
 Miss Maud Minick received a bicycle Wednesday. We are not going to tell who sent it to her. She says she is not going to practice riding for a few days.
 In setting up the list of presents received by Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Frost for last week's paper we accidentally omitted a water set given by Mrs. Mary Lesley.
 The Titus Nursery are receiving an immense quantity of grape baskets and berry boxes. They evidently look for considerable small fruit, judging by the preparations.
 The Methodist Sunday school will give an Easter service at the church next Sunday night. A good program will be given. Everybody is given a cordial invitation to attend.
TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
 Take Leta's active Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L.B.B. on each tablet.
 We are requested to extend a special invitation to the ladies to call at Keeling's drug store and examine the handsome line of wall paper just received. There are some beautiful new designs.
 Mrs. James Hill, of Lawrence, Kan., arrived in Nemaha Wednesday evening. She is a sister of Mrs. A. V. Farson, jr., but got here too late for the funeral. She went on to Barada that night.
 In giving prices agreed on by the assessors last week we gave the price of horses at $10 per pound when it should have been $10 per head. The price as printed would make horses pretty high priced.
GARDEN SEEDS
 Go to Kerker & Hoover for all kinds of fresh bulk Garden Seeds and seeds of all kinds. They are the Old Reliable Seed House in Nemaha county. Call and see.

POSTPONED!

On account of the bad weather and bad roads it has been decided to postpone until some future date the supper to be given by the Methodists Saturday night of this week.
 Drs. Boal & Dillon, of Auburn, have received a trial case of lenses from one of the largest manufacturers in the country, and are now prepared to treat all diseases of the eye and fit glasses correctly. Eyes examined free of charge.
 Sam Soper, who has been making his home in Oregon for the past twenty-four years, but who has been visiting Nemaha friends for several weeks, gave us a social call Monday. Mr. Soper is thoroughly enjoying the reunion with old friends.
 Miss Leta Thompson went to Omaha Monday to receive medical and surgical treatment at one of the hospitals. Mrs. R. J. Duff and Dr. H. S. Gaither went with her. Miss Thompson has been sick for a long time and her many friends here earnestly hope the treatment will restore her to permanent good health.
 Dr. John B. Jack, of Brownville, has accepted a position as medical examiner (we believe that is what he is called) for the C. B. & Q. R. R. Co., with headquarters for the present at Galesburg, Ills. This is a good position for a young man, but Dr. Jack will fill the position with credit. He is a finely educated physician and will make his mark.
 Charley Howe came near crippling himself one day last week. He was trimming a tree when the axe glanced and struck him in the leg just below the knee, cutting a long gash clean to the bone. It was a bad cut and if it had been a little higher it would have cut through the knee joint and crippled him for life. Dr. Keeling dressed the wound, taking three stitches to draw the cut together.
 The car containing Robert Frost's goods started for Perry, Oklahoma, Thursday evening. From there the goods will be hauled by team to the farm near Pawnee. Charley Tinkle paugh and his wife went with the car. Mrs. Frost, Robt. P. Frost and wife, Miss Bessie and Charley started Friday forenoon. A large crowd of friends and schoolmates were at the train to bid them good-bye.
His Life Was Saved.
 Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and am now well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cts and $1. Trial bottles free at Keeling's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.
 Drs. Boal & Dillon, of Auburn, are prepared to make chemical and microscopical examination of blood, urine, sputa and stomach contents for diagnostic purposes. They are also prepared to perform all kinds of surgical operations.

STORE FOR BARGAINS!

The wife of A. V. Farson, jr., died Tuesday, March 28th, 1899, after a lingering sickness. Mrs. Farson was taken sick with the grip. This finally settled in the head, affected the spinal nerves, and finally developed into inflammation of the brain. Mrs. Farson leaves a husband and three children aged five years, three years and sixteen months of age, who will sadly miss a mother's care. The little ones will be taken care of by the grandmother, Mrs. A. V. Farson, sr.
 Lena Annetta Sullender was born Sept. 5th, 1874, in Richardson county, Neb. She was married May 17th, 1892, at Falls City, Neb., to A. V. Farson, jr. She died March 28th, 1899, aged 24 years, 6 months and 23 days. The funeral services were held at Barada Wednesday afternoon. Elder Shaffer preached the funeral sermon. A large crowd of sympathizing friends were present at the services. The bereaved husband and children have our sympathy in their great affliction.
 We are requested by A. V. Farson, jr., to return thanks to the friends and neighbors who were so kind during the sickness and death of his wife. Their kindness will ever be remembered with gratitude.
 The following resolutions were adopted by the Methodist Sunday school Sunday morning, March 19th:
 Whereas, Our Heavenly Father, in His divine wisdom, has been pleased to remove our brother, David A. Morton, to the home prepared for His loved ones; and
 Whereas, Our deceased brother was for many years an active worker and a faithful attendant of our Sunday school, we deem it fitting to express as a Sunday school our sorrow at the departure of Bro. Morton and our appreciation of his services while among us; therefore be it
 Resolved, That the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school of Nemaha extend to the bereaved wife and children our sympathy in the great loss they have sustained.
 Resolved, That while bowing in humble submission to the will of the Heavenly Father, we realize the loss our Sunday school has sustained in the death of one of our most earnest workers and constant attendants.
 Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the minutes and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased,
 W. W. SANDERS, Sup't.
 LETA SEABURY, Sec'y.

No Right to Ugliness
 The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50c at Keeling's drug store.

Old papers for sale at this office.
 The smallest things may exert the greatest influence. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled for overcoming constipation and liver troubles, small pill, best pill, safe pill. Keeling.

W. W. Keeling guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whoopingcough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

Seymour Howe was fifty-eight years old Thursday and his friends had arranged to give a surprise and a dinner. We were one of the fortunate ones to be invited and had been calculating for a week on a big dinner and a good sociable time, but when we saw the snow storm we backed out. Those who braved the storm had a good time and a good dinner, and we have been regretting ever since that we did not go. We will not miss another such opportunity if we can help it.

Bismark's Iron Nerve
 Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where stomach, liver, kidney and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at Keeling's drug store.

We have a very large stock of evergreens and forest trees, leading kinds three years old and once transplanted. at 50c per 100, $3.50 per 1000. Other stock in proportion. Send for price list. UECKE & STILSON, Corwith, Ia.
