 And in the harness never slow.

 Seek Workman's place, and come again.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned saying the doctor need not come as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country.
 For sale by Keeling, the druggist.

 ing in Nemaha this year. The carpen-five years to any subscriber, new or

 The Advertiser. Thus for only $1.00 you will get The Advertiser one year and the Farm Journal five years.

As our readers are aware, we have been able to secure for them this year an unusually advantageous clubbing arrangement, which includes The Iowa Home-stead, its Special Farmer' Institute editions, The Poultry Farmer, The Farmers' Mutual Insurance Journal and The Humane Alliance, together with our own paper, all for the surprisingly low figure of $1.50. Nothing like this has ever before been offered to our farmer readers. The Homestead with its Special Institute edition for January contains 64 pages of practical farm information, and reading the paper and its Special Institute editions for a year practically amounts to a liberal agricultural education. The Special Farmers' Institute edition for the present month considers four interesting, practical topics relating to farm prosperity, sheep husbandry, winter's work, etc., and on them more than 200 practical farmers and farmers' wives in the West contribute their views and experiences, making it a remarkable collection of the best thought on western farms. The Poultry Farmer, The Mutual Insurance Journal and The Humane Alliance, the best of their class, should be in every farm home. Take advantage of this great offer.
