SENSATION AT BEATRICE.

A Man Who Outrivals Schlatter is Healing the Multitudes.

A fellow by the name of Kharas is at Beatrice and is curing cripples and all sorts of invalids without the use of medicines. His hands are said to give a shock as strong as a battery. He cannot be a fake for he charges no money in advance, but usually gets well paid for the good he does, and from reports he is doing lots of it. He is not a "faith doctor" or a "divine healer," but says he learned the science in India. Before he went there he graduated in medicine at the university of Kentucky, yet he does not "practice."

People are flocking to see him, and not a word is said against his work.—Filly Republican.

Mr. J E Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and am now well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cts and $1. Trial bottles free at Keeling's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

Alva N. Leedy died in Omaha Tuesday morning, April 25th, of pneumonia, aged 27 years, 3 months and 25 days. The deceased was born near Logansport, Ind., Dec. 31st, 1871. His mother died when he was a little child. He came with his father to Nemaha county when he was seven years old, and two years later was placed in the home of I. J. Jarvis, where he remained until he was 21 years of age. He has made his home in this vicinity since that time until last fall, when he went to Omaha. The remains were brought to Nemaha for burial, the friends of the young man taking the matter in charge, as he had no relatives here. He has a grandmother and sister living at Logansport, Ind., and a sister living at Chicago, Ills. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church at 10:30 a.m. Thursday. Rev. C. H. Gilmore preached the sermon. The church was filled with friends of the deceased. Alva was an upright young man and won friends wherever he went. He was a member of the Christian church, having united about five years ago.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned saying the doctor need not come as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by Keeling, the druggist.
