Next Wednesday will be election day again, and we will have an opportunity to say whether we want a good court house that will keep records safe or whether we will be satisfied with our present ramshackle affair. We believe the bonds will carry by a good majority.

Will F. Keeling and his class of Sunday school scholars, all of them boys ten to twelve years of age, went fishing last Saturday. The boys had a good time, caught a few fish, and came home declaring they had the best teacher in the Sunday school. And Will enjoyed the outing as much as the boys.

Wednesday morning while Frank Seid was closing the gate in driving out of W. W. Seid's, the team started to run with little Ray on the spring seat alone. He has a compressed air apparatus that is especially useful in treating catarrh and diseases of the nose and throat. Call in and see his outfit, especially if in need of treatment.

The entertainment given by the Sniggles Family at the opera house last Saturday night was a grand success. The Widow Sniggles (Mrs. Earle Gilbert), who had the principal acting to do, was fine. The high notes reached by the fourth daughter, Selvita Lorena (Miss Lillian Minick) brought down the house, and the eighth daughter, Jemina (Miss Mellie Minick), never failed to giggle for the people. But all the daughters were fine. The recitations given by Miss Kate Barnes and Mrs. Alice McCandless, before the Sniggles' came on the stage, were most excellent and the singing of Miss Mae Gaither, Pearl Duff and Coy Rives and little Lela Gaither was good. The receipts of the evening was $18.95, which shows that a large audience was present, as the admission was only 10 and 15 cents.

LaGrippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Shepard, Publisher Agricultural Journal and Advertiser, Eldon Mo., says: "No one will feel disappointed in using One Minute Cough Cure for LaGrippe." Pleasant to take, quick to act. Keeling, the druggist.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned saying the doctor need not come as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by Keeling, the druggist.

STORE FOR BARGAINS!

On Tuesday, May 16th, J. W. Webber was 51 years of age, and his neighbors took advantage of this circumstance and gave him a surprise party. The ladies brought the dinner with them, and judging from the liberal samples brought us it was a feast fit for any one.

After dinner the guests undertook to blacken Mr. Webber's face, and succeeded after quite a struggle. J. M. Fuller, who was present, was 66 years of age the same day, and Miss Frankie Morris, also one of the guests, was 22, so they also had to undergo the ordeal of having their faces blackened. Then they retaliated and blackened the faces of three of the ladies. A jolly good time was enjoyed. Those present were Mr and Mrs Rufus Rowen, Mr and Mrs Dave Brimble, Mr and Mrs Seymour Howe, Mr and Mrs Henry Seid, Mr and Mrs Lou Morris, Mr and Mrs O K Fisher, Mr and Mrs J M Fuller, Mr and Mrs Ed Knapp, Mr and Mrs C L Russell, Mrs A L P Thompson, Mrs Frank Gillespie, Mrs John Webber, Mrs W W Seid, Mrs Ed Stiers, Mrs Seabury, Miss Frankie Morris, Mrs John Lambert, Mrs W W Reif, Mrs John Stiers, Mrs Dory Ginn, Mrs Chas W Roberts, Grandma Young.

The County Commissioners say if the court house bond proposition carries they will make a contract for the erection of a court house that will be complete in every way for not more than the amount of the bonds voted. There will not be any additional cost to finish it up, as so many seem to fear. The contractors will have to finish it before they get their money.
