SELFISH MAN PUNISHED.

Justice-Loving Passengers Much Joy.

Passengers on an Atlantic City train a few evenings ago were treated to a speciacle of retributive justice that tickled them famously. The car was crowded, and, as the dust was flying pretty thickly, all the passengers save one had their windows down This unpleasant exception was a disgrantled looking party, with a pientiful growth of weedy-looking whiskers, and these he allowed to sway in and out of the window with the gusty zephyrs. Of course, he got none of the dust and cinders, for these always blow in the seat directly behind. Two nicely dressed women occupied these unfortunate quarters, and, after suffering martyrdom for about 20 minutes, one of them asked the "open-window fiend" if he would mind put-ting the window down. "No!" he replied, gruffly, "It's too warm. If you don't like it change vour seat.

In front of the man sat a traveling man, who took in the situation at a glance. Quick as a flash he raised his window, and instanter the flowing facial appendages of the man . behind began to perform a most fearful se-ries of gyrations. The dust speckled them, and the wind twisted them. Their owner, after a few moments of such violence, got red in the face and then put his window down. A few moments later he leaned over and asked the other passengers to shut off the draught in a similar manner, but, to the intense amusement and gratification of the balance of the people in the car, who had watched the little comedy all the way through, the drummer, without so much as a twinkle of the eye, replied: "No! It's too warm. If you don't like it change your warm. If you don't like it seat!"-Philadelphia Record.

Wise Hen.

A duck which had faithfully stuck to business during the summer and laid several dozens of large fawn-colored eggs com-plained that she wasn't appreciated. "See that hen over there," said the duck, "she hasn't laid as many eggs as I have, nor as big, but she has books written about her and verses composed in her honor, while nobody is saying a word about me." "The trouble is saying a word about me. The frouble with you is," said a wise rooster that was standing near, "that you don't tell the pub-lic what you have done. You lay an cgg and waddle off without saying a word, but that sister of mine never lays one without letting everybody in the neighborhood know it If you want to cut any ice in this community you must learn to advertise."-Boyce's Hus-tler.

A Left-Handed Admission,

Three citizens-one a lawyer, one a doctor and one a newspaper man-sat in a back room recently in the gray light of the early dawn. On the table were many empty bot tles and a couple of packs of cards. As they sat in silence a rat scurried across the hearth into the darkness beyond. The three men shifted their feet and looked at each other uneasily. After a long pause the lawyer spoke. "I know what you fellows are think-ing," he said: "you think I thought I saw a rat, but I didn't!"—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Logic.

"You are wanted around the corner," exclaimed the citizen, confidently,

The policeman laughed aloud. "I know better," he replied. "When I am wanted I can't be found. Since I have been found, I can't possibly be wanted!"

Here we see how important after all it is to understand something of the formal or many. scholastic logic which it has become the fashion of modern science to sneer at .- De-

WILLLIAM GOEBEL WON OUT.

After a Week of Excitement the Kentucky Democratic State Convention Names a Candidate for Governor.

Louisville, Ky., June 28.-William Goebel, who, with an iron grasp, has ruled the democratic state convention since it assembled nearly a week ago, was last night nominated for governor on the twenty-sixth ballot, after a contest unparalleled in this state for bitterness, determination on the part of the winner and for skillful manipulation. The end of the long, exhausting fight brought a reasonable degree of harmony to the faction which throughout the fight battled for every inch of ground. Stone and Hardin proved unable to control enough of the Stone votes to win. The scenes during the last ballot were dramatic, though not so exciting as many pated. It resulted: Goebel, 560; Hardin, 531.

Why the School Board Resigned.

Lincoln, Neb., June 28.-The school board of this city resigned in a body because the high school graduating class persisted in appearing on the stage on commencement night garbed in overalls. tal degeneracy, and this can often be gested that the food of prisoners seutenced to long terms should be increased and still further varied. It is believed that a liberal diet, coupled with judicious exercise, will do the prisoners more good, physically and mentally, than any other means. A committee which has just been looking into this subject proposes that for the daily mass of stirabout, for which all clusses of prisoners have such a keen loathing. shall be substituted porridge on three days, potatoes on two and suct pudding on two days of the week. Potatoes are never to be struck out of the dietary, and the use of Demarara sugar is recommended. In making these changes the mistake is to be guarded against of making the dict so generous as to tempt the loafer or beggar to get into prison, for the recommendations provide for only the plainest food, unattractive but wholesome.-St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
