We have made arrangements whereby we can give absolutely free the Farm Journal, a splendid monthly, five years to any subscriber, new or old, who pays one year in advance for The Advertiser. Thus for only $1.00 you will get The Advertiser one year and the Farm Journal five years.

Call in and see us if you want to subscribe for any paper published in the United States.

HOGS.

I will buy hogs at Nemaha and McCandless Siding Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week. Highest market prices paid.

HARRY K. McCANDLESS.

LaGrippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Sheperd, Publisher Agricultural Journal and Advertiser, Eldon Mo., says: "No one will feel disappointed in using One Minute Cough Cure for LaGrippe." Pleasant to take, quick to act. Keeling, the druggist.

Money to Loan

On good farms at as low rate of interest as the lowest and the best of terms. Call and see us.

GILMORE, GILLAN & BURRESS, Auburn, Neb.

WW Keeling guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whoopingcough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCandless went to Chicago last week with their little boy who was bitten by a supposed mad dog. The little fellow is being treated in a hospital especially for such cases, and all possibility of his having hydrophobia will be removed. They expect to return some time next week.

We are requested to announce that services will be held at the Cumberland Presbyterian church Sunday, July 30th. One of the services will be a lecture on the Sunday school by Rev. A. W. Green, now of Wagstaff, Kansas. A basket dinner will be one of the features of the occasion. Everybody is invited.

Misses Ethel Paris, Maggie Strain and Jennie Hawxby gave this office a pleasant call Thursday afternoon and presented the editor with some delicious cake saved from the ice cream social given at the Cumberland Presbyterian church the night before. The social was a success, over $21 being taken in.

The funeral services of Richard Young were held at the Methodist church at one o'clock Sunday. Rev. C. H. Gilmore preached the sermon. Mr. Young was an old settler in Nemaha county. Birthdays will come, and when a person gets on the shady side of life, when they get to middle age and beyond, the recurring anniversaries seem to come with more and more rapidity. Some people, however, make such occasions so joyous that the regret of growing old, if any there be, is taken away for the time being. Another pleasant event of this kind occurred Sunday at the residence of Mr and Mrs Rufus Rowen, that day being the sixty-ninth birthday of Mrs Elizabeth Young, mother of Mrs Rowen. Those present enjoyed themselves heartily, not the least part of the enjoyment being the dinner that was served. We know it was good because Mrs Rowen sent us a good sized box of cake, pie, chicken, ham, etc. Fears were entertained that Bill Relf and Charley Roberts would make themselves sick eating so much but the fears proved groundless and everything passed off pleasantly. These present were Mr and Mrs Fuller, Mr and Mrs Webber, Mr and Mrs Peabody, Mr and Mrs Thompson, Mr and Mrs Young, Mr and Mrs Swan, Dr and Mrs Gaither, Mr and Mrs Roberts, Mr and Mrs Relf, Mr and Mrs Brimble, Mr and Mrs Stiers, Mr and Mrs Mead, Mrs Hill, Mrs J Stiers, Mrs Colerick, Mrs Seabury, Mrs Mead, Mrs Gillispie, Cora Webber.

Ed Sanders and family departed this life last Friday and went to Shubert, where he takes charge of the Shubert Citizen. Mr. Sanders belongs to the tribe of that name who are printers, and upon his assuming charge of the Citizen it makes 3 of them in a row—Shubert, Nemaha and Brownville—and should they form a brotherly trust for mutual protection the people of those towns would have to dance to their music.—Auburn Post.

Volcanic Eruptions

Are grand but skin eruptions rob life of joy. A Sure Sign of Group.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by M. H.
