The Auburn Chautauqua begins Saturday of this week. If you want a good chautauqua patronize it as liberally as possible this year. The manager has got up a good program, and if the patronage justifies it the chautauqua will become a permanent institution.

LaGrippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Sheperd, Publisher Agricultural Journal and Advertiser, Eldon Mo., says: "No one will feel disappointed in using One Minute Cough Cure for LaGrippe." Pleasant to take, quick to act. Keeling, the druggist.

W. W. Keeling guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whoopingcough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

"Weapons of War" by Rev. C. M. Shepherd, of Nebraska City, the lecture which will be given at the Auburn chautauqua next Wednesday, will be worth hearing. The collection of ancient and modern weapons of warfare are worth hundreds of dollars.

J. H. Dundas, manager of the Auburn Chautauqua, writes us that the wargraph movable pictures will not be given Monday evening, as advertised, but that on next Thursday evening Frank Roberson, the celebrated traveler and lecturer, will occupy the tent with movable pictures. Mr. Roberson will interest all, as he makes so plain what he has seen, with the aid of the movable pictures and his wonderful descriptive powers that we can almost see the scenes depicted.

The populists are having lots of trouble over the [clerk's office] these days. J. M. Wright, the county clerk, has discharged his deputy, Mrs. Peery, and her friends are now making war on Mac. Bert Engles, who is the pop leader, says Mac shall not be nominated for clerk—sooner than see this he will take it himself. Mac is quite popular and his friends say they will see he is nominated or know the reason why. The democrats say they are entitled to the clerk and they intend to have it or have war. Mrs. Peery's friends say she must be vindicated by being nominated and so it goes.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding. Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.

John E. Crother received a telegram Monday from his brother, Oliver Crother, giving the sad news of the death of their mother, Mrs. M. H. Crother, at Nevada City, California, Sunday, August 6th, 1899, at 1 o'clock p. m. Mrs. Crother went to California about a year ago to help take care of a sister who had a cancer. The sister died about two weeks ago. A letter received by G. N. Sanders from Oliver Crother written on the 3rd inst., but which was not received until Wednesday, says that Mrs. Crother was then suffering severely with heart trouble and the doctors gave very slight hope of her recovery.

The deceased was an old resident of Nemaha, coming here with her husband, the late J. P. Crother, in 1857. She was a member of the Episcopal church. She leaves three children—Mrs. J. L. Melvin, of Guthrie, Oklahoma, John E. Crother, of Nemaha, and Oliver Crother, of California.

The telegram stated that they would start for Nemaha with the remains Tuesday. Nothing farther has been heard, but the relatives look for the arrival on each train. The funeral will probably be held at the Episcopal church Sunday.

Ed Maxwell's team took a lively little run Thursday afternoon. The team was hitched to the post in front of the drug store when they pulled back, broke the snap to the hitching post and started on the run. Wm. Maxwell ran out and headed them off in front of the hardware store and caught one by the rein, and with the help of others got the horses under control. No damage was done.

Food does more harm than good when not digested. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. It prevents wasting diseases and cures stomach troubles. It cures indigestion, sour stomach and belching and allows a worn-out stomach rest. It acts instantly. W. W. Keeling.
