

VERDICT OF GUILTY.

Ten Years' Imprisonment Is the Penalty Against Dreyfus.

Court-Martial Brought in a Verdict That Was Expected of It—The Prisoner Hopes to Establish That He Has Suffered Enough.

Rennes, France, Sept. 10.—The judges found Dreyfus guilty of treason. The verdict was announced at five o'clock. Dreyfus was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. The court stood five to two for the condemnation of the prisoner. The verdict was announced at 5:02 o'clock, and the crowd outside greeted the announcement with cheers for the army.

Had one more judge voted for acquittal Dreyfus would have been acquitted. By the rules of the French court-martial the bare majority of the judges would not have convicted. Therefore, a vote of four to three for conviction would have resulted in acquittal. The vote of five to two was the lowest limit by which he could be convicted. The court found extenuating circumstances.

The judgment was read to Dreyfus in an adjoining little room by the clerk of the court, M. Coupois. Dreyfus listened impassively, did not give the slightest sign of emotion, did not utter a word and marched back to prison like an automaton.

It is understood Dreyfus will be sent to Fort Corte in the island of Corsica.

Dreyfus Hopes to Be Released.

Rennes, Sept. 11.—Capt. Dreyfus is convinced that the ten years' imprisonment to which he is sentenced will be wiped out by the five years of solitary seclusion he has undergone on Devil's island, and he expects to be released by October 15, which will be five years from the date of his former condemnation.

Indignation in London.

London, Sept. 11.—It would be difficult to describe adequately the indignation the verdict of the Dreyfus court-martial has evoked everywhere in England. The excitement in the Jewish quarters of London is only natural. Special prayers were offered throughout Saturday in all the synagogues on behalf of Dreyfus and as soon as the verdict was known, Jews and Jewesses were seen at every street corner, expressing execration and many sobbing bitterly.

Will Petition the President.

New York, Sept. 11.—Upon learning the verdict of the Dreyfus court-martial, Assistant District Attorney Maurice B. Blumenthal took steps for the organization of a committee of citizens, irrespective of religious belief, and including clergymen of different denominations, to hold a mass meeting to protest against the conviction. A representative committee will be appointed to wait upon President McKinley and petition him to appeal to the president of France to pardon the captain.

Kansas City Jewesses Take Action.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 11.—Because Capt. Dreyfus was convicted by the court-martial at Rennes women of the Hebrew Ladies' Relief society of Kansas City have pledged themselves not to visit the territory of the French republic, buy or handle any merchandise or other thing manufactured or grown in French territory until the innocence of Dreyfus shall be shown to all the world by a fair and impartial trial. And the Jewish women ask the co-operation of all other American citizens in making their resolution effective.

Will Boycott the Paris Exposition.

St. Louis, Sept. 11.—At an informal meeting of some of the members of the Merchants' exchange it was unanimously agreed to boycott the world's fair at Paris because of the Dreyfus decision. Each member present agreed not to go or to make any exhibit at Paris. C. H. Spencer, president of the Merchants' exchange, said: "The Dreyfus decision means that the Paris exposition will be a failure so far as America is concerned."

Washburn Afraid of the Trusts.

New York, Sept. 11.—The Tribune publishes an interview with ex-United States Senator Washburn, of Minnesota, in which he warns the republican party of the danger of the trusts and declares that the party must do something at once to stop the building up of trusts.

CANNIBAL IN THE INK.

He Was from the South Sea Islands and There Was Character in His Writing.

Rather an amusing incident was connected with the return to San Francisco, en route to Washington, of Justice W. L. Chambers, who has been for a number of years chief justice of Samoa. The judge is a well-educated and highly cultivated Alabamian, with that polish of that rarest, the Southern gentleman of the best type. In an interview, published at Honolulu on his way up, the chief justice was so seriously misrepresented in his alleged statements regarding Samoan matters that he took the wise precaution in San Francisco of writing out his views on the more ticklish matters concerning which he was interviewed. Like most gentlemen, Judge Chambers' penmanship would never be taken as a model in a district school. A printer on a morning paper to whom it was given to set up was in despair.

"Look here," he said, "this is positively the worst writing I ever was up against!" "But that was written by the chief justice of Samoa, man. Look how much character there is in the writing!" "Chief justice of Samoa?" snorted the compositor. "That accounts for it. There is character in his hand. I might have known he was a South Sea islander. I could smell cannibal in the ink!"—San Francisco News Letter.

Polly in Paradise.

Their parrot had died, and young Master Tommy, with his little sister Jennie, had just concluded the funeral services over the grave of their feathered pet. "I s'pose Polly is in Heaven now," remarked Jennie, tearfully. "Yes," returned Master Tommy; "I s'pose he is." "He—he's got wings, but he wouldn't be an angel up there, would he?" inquired the little maid, anxious about his present status. "Oh!" cried Tommy; "he wouldn't be an angel; only people is that." "Then what do you s'pose he is now?" persisted his sister. Tommy thought for a moment. Then the light of inspiration dawned on his beaming countenance. "I guess Polly is a bird of paradise now," he announced joyfully.—Troy Times.

Discovery of Life Plant.

Science has discovered a plant so full of life that if one of its leaves be broken off and merely pinned to a warm wall another plant will grow from it. It is these same vitalizing principles which enable Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to arouse to life and duty the overworked stomach, the weak blood and sluggish liver. The sufferer from dyspepsia or any stomach trouble needs Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. See that a private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.
