Mrs. Wm. Moore, of Stella, visited her sister, Mrs. Seymour Howe, several days this week.

Call in and see as if you want to subscribe for any paper published in the United States.

For Sale—Two good colts; one a two-year-old and one yearling. Inquire at this office.

Chris Shull took three or four sweepstakes on his Berkshire hogs at the county fair last week.

Mrs. Ray Scofield came in from Johnson Saturday and visited her mother Mrs. Minick, until Monday.

The Crother sale was postponed Tuesday afternoon until Friday on account of the funeral of S. Gilbert.

Elmer Rumbaugh has gone to Smithfield, Iowa, where he will stay with his parents until his health is restored.

John Watson was surprised Thursday to have his brother walk in on him. They have not seen each other for a time.

J. W. Webber says if he is elected assessor he will assess Nemaha precinct for $50. That is certainly cheap enough.

Mrs. Rosina Wheeler went to Johnson Wednesday and will stay with her granddaughter, Miss Eleanor Galbraith for awhile.

Rev. E. J. Feeny, pastor of the Catholic church at Auburn, was in town Tuesday, the guest of N. B. Scrivener.

F. F. Sperry shipped a car of apples to Sioux Falls, S. D., Monday. Scott Colerick went with the car and will sell the apples.

John Flack is moving into Mrs. Wheeler's house. The owner of the house where he has been living, Mr. Steele, is moving to Nemaha.

Mrs. Minnie Culver and children, of Omaha, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Keeling, who are enjoying the visit of their daughter and grandchildren.

Wm. S. Van Blaricum, of Coldwater Mich., arrived in Nemaha Tuesday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law Stephen Gilbert. He will visit his sister for a few days.

Rev. E. S. Murphy, of Auburn, requests us to announce that divine services will be held at St. John's Episcopal church, Nemaha, next Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m. Everybody invited.

Jeff Drumm fared well at the county fair last week, carrying off all the premiums in the chicken show in the lines he showed in. He has the Black Minoreas and Indian Cornish Games.

Smith Lesley and Miss Emma Burns were married by Judge Lambert, at his office in Auburn, Thursday, Sept. 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Worden, of Kalamazoo, Mich., arrived in Nemaha Tuesday to attend the funeral of S. Gilbert. Mrs. Worden is a niece of Mr. Gilbert.

Rose Gilbert has been appointed special administrator of the estate of S. Gilbert, deceased, and is authorized to collect all indebtedness. The business will be continued as usual.

I wish to say to the ladies of Nemaha and vicinity that I do dressmaking and solicit their patronage. All work guaranteed. At residence of Dr. Gaither. JENNIE CALVIN.

Geo W Likens, of Carson City, Nevada, made us a pleasant call Thursday. Mr Likens was one of the pioneers of Nemaha county, coming to Brownville in 1857. He owns a farm in Aspinwall precinct.

Rev. J. M. Darby, the new Methodist pastor on this circuit writes us that he will hold services at Nemaha next Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. He shipped his household goods from Red Cloud Thursday morning.

Candidates were thick at the picnic Wednesday. We noticed the candidates on both tickets for treasurer, judge, sheriff, district clerk, superintendent, and one candidate for clerk and one for coroner, besides the candidates for precinct offices.

Horrible agony is caused by Piles, Burns and Skin Diseases. These are immediately relieved and quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of worthless imitations. Keeling

Rev. C. H. Gilmore moved his household goods to his new field of labor at Filley Tuesday. Mr. Gilmore and James went with the goods. Mrs. Gilmore and the other members of the family went next day. May peace and prosperity follow them.

Mrs. W. H. Hoover came down from Lincoln Tuesday and will remain here for a couple of months. She will have room where The Advertiser office now is, fitted up for dwelling rooms and make her home there. She has had her household goods shipped here.

Charley Anderson has not withdrawn as a candidate for district clerk on the fusion ticket, having reconsidered his decision to that effect. Charley is a first class young man in every respect except his politics, but does not expect to be elected and therefore will not be disappointed.

We received a pleasant call Wednesday morning from Hon. Josiah Towne special deputy Woodmen of the World who was the orator of the day at the picnic. Mr. Towne is a cousin of the famous free silver congressman of that name from Minnesota, but is a gold bug republican himself. He is a very witty and entertaining talker.

J. C. Shull wants to know why we said that it was conceded he would not be elected county judge. Well John, we believe you realize by this time that the bosses in the fusion party did not put you up with the intention of electing you. But you can have the satisfaction of knowing when you are defeated that you have plenty of fusion company.

The ladies aid society of the Methodist church gave Mrs. Huntington a farewell reception at the church Wednesday. Mrs. Huntington has been a valuable member of the society for some time and the ladies regret very much to part with her. Those present were Mesdames Huntington, Fisher, Cooper, J. M. Sanders, John Maxwell, Allie Sanders, Keeling, Woodward, Collins, Watson, Yackly, Carse, W S Maxwell, Howe, Hadlock, White, and Minick. Messrs. Fisher, Woodward and Stephen Huntington were present at the dinner.

Mrs. Dora Myres, who has been visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs H H Vonfelden, at Auburn, for some time came to Nemaha Monday to visit friends.

The Woodmen of the World picnic at Nemaha Wednesday was a success, although the Woodmen labored under serious disadvantages. In the first place the lateness of the season and the fact that the farmers had begun gathering corn kept many away. Then the fear of whooping cough and other diseases caused many to stay away. The weather also looked unfavorable in the morning. On this account the crowd was slow in gathering, and no exercises were held until in the afternoon. Hon. Josiah Towne of Minneapolis, Minn., special deputy of the Woodmen of the World, with headquarters at Omaha, made an address that was well fitted for the occasion. The picnic was a very pleasant occasion and will give the Woodmen new strength in this vicinity.

The Modern Woodmen camp at Brownville, gave Rev. C. H. Gilmore a farewell reception Monday night in their handsome lodge room. The room was crowded with friends met to show their appreciation of the services of Bro. Gilmore during the past four years. After a number of songs, Gov. Furnas, in a few well chosen sentences, voiced the sentiment of those present over the parting with Bro. Gilmore and family. Bro. Gilmore responded briefly and feelingly. The rest of the evening was passed in social enjoyment. Those present from Nemaha were Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Howe, Mrs. F. L. Woodward, Miss Vera Clark, Eugene Howe and W. W. Sanders.

DEATH OF STEPHEN GILBERT.

Stephen Gilbert died at his residence in Nemaha, Nebr., Sunday, October 1st, 1899, at 4:20 a. m. Mr. Gilbert had been in poor health for several years, suffering from stomach trouble caused probably by a wound received while defending his country in the civil war. Last spring he suffered a great deal and was confined to the house much of the time, but recently had been feeling better, and was speaking only two or three days before his death of feeling better than for a long time. He went home Friday evening feeling about as usual, but was taken sick during the night and suffered terribly until near the end.

Stephen Gilbert was born in East Kent, England, August 28th, 1843. He was brought to the United States by his mother when he was only six months old. His father, who had come to this country a short time previous, died a year or two later from consumption.

Mr. Gilbert was cast on his own resources at the age of nine years. By hard work and study he managed to fit himself for teaching when only sixteen years old. When eighteen years old he moved from New York to Michigan, where he worked and taught school for a year, and then enlisted in Co. C of the 19th Michigan Volunteer Infantry. He was wounded in the service, it was thought at the time fatally, but by the skilled treatment of a surgeon he was saved, but always suffered from the wound and it was probably the cause of his death.

He was in the service until the close of the war, serving almost three years. He then engaged in farm work and teaching, going to school as he could and took most of the college course at the Hillsdale, Mich., college.

In 1871 he came to Nebraska, but did not stay here. March 25th, 1873, he was married to Miss Rose Van Blaricum. They moved to Nebraska and have made it their home since then. In September, 1873, he began clerking in the store of John S. Minick, at Aspinwall, staying with him until Mr. Minick's death, twelve years later, moving to Nemaha in 1879 when Mr. Minick moved his store here. In the fall of 1885 he formed a partnership with R. J. Skeen, buying his interest in the store three years later. He has carried in addition to the stock of general merchandise, a stock of lumber and for several years was engaged in banking, until failing health caused him to close the bank about eighteen months ago. He owns several farms in Nemaha county, besides a number of houses in Nemaha, and though in poor health for some time he looked carefully after all his business enterprises. He was for years the leading business man of Nemaha, and will be greatly missed in business circles. His standing as a business man and as a citizen was of the highest.

Mr. Gilbert was for many years a prominent member of the Christian church of Nemaha.

The deceased leaves a wife, a son, Earle Gilbert, and a daughter, Mrs. Emily McCandless, to mourn the departure of a loving husband and father. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Chas. Deurfeldt.

The funeral services were held at the Christian church Tuesday, Oct. 3d, at 2:30 p. m. Rev. John T. Smith, of Nebraska City, an old friend of the family, preached a fine sermon. The church would not hold the friends who had gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to a departed citizen. The remains were laid at rest in the Nemaha cemetery.
