ROSE GILBERT,
Special Administratrix S. Gilbert estate

I wish to say to the ladies of Nemaha and vicinity that I do dressmaking and solicit their patronage. All work guaranteed. At residence of Dr. Gaither.
JENNIE CALVIN.

The town was well supplied with preachers Monday morning. Revs. Slack and Diltz, of Brownville, Hallam, of Shenandoah, and Goldsmith, of Stella, were all in town at the same time.

J. T. Owen, of Joplin, Mo., gave us a pleasant call Monday. Mr. Owen is a brother-in-law of James and Wyatt Jones and was here on business connected with settling the estate of their father.

Rev. W. W. Hallam preached his farewell sermon at the Christian church last Sunday night, the year for which he was engaged having expired. Bro. Hallam has made many friends in Nemaha during his sojourn among us.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Waterman and Miss Flossie drove in from Auburn Sunday to see John Goff, having seen in The Advertiser an account of the runaway. They took Mr. Goff home with them and he remained there until Tuesday, when he returned home.

Thirtyfive years ago last Wednesday Walter Hadlock was struck by a shell which shattered his good right arm from the wrist to the shoulder and also wounded him on the head and nose. His arm was amputated that night. He was "marching through Georgia" with Gen. Sherman's men at the time.

J. W. Wambold & Co., of Peru, have recently added considerably to their stock of lumber and now have as good and complete a stock as there is in the county. They carry coal, lime and all kinds of building material. Also wagons, buggies, road wagons, etc. Their prices are low as the lowest. Give them a call when in need of anything in their line.

The weather this week has been enough to give a man the blues. It has been cloudy, drizzly, foggy weather from Sunday till Friday morning, but this morning the sun is shining bright again and life seems worth living once more.

H. D. Beebe, who is to have charge of the new lumber yard, has been in town several days. The proprietors of the yard are Edwards & Bradford, of Sioux City, Iowa. Work will be commenced on the buildings and sheds in about two weeks.

Mr. Francis F. Glenn, of Telluride, Colorado, and Miss Lucretia Buchenau of Nemaha, Neb., were married at the Midland hotel, Omaha, at noon Thursday, Nov. 16th, 1899, by Rev. Alan Russell, of St. Clement's Episcopal church. The young couple will make their home in Shevlin, Minn.

"John I. Moore, Margaret Christie, married Tuesday, November twenty-first, at 7:30 p. m., eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, Lincoln, Nebraska. At home after December first, 135 North Fourteenth street, Lincoln, Nebraska."

A card containing the above was received Wednesday. John and his bride have our heartiest congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous married life

The funeral services of Mrs. Simon Gongwer, who died last Friday, were held at the Prairie Union church on Sunday at 1 o'clock p. m. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Goldsmith, pastor of the Methodist church at Stella. Mrs. Gongwer was sick for a long time before her death and suffered a great deal. She was a sister of Mrs. W. T. Russell and of Harry Shadley. The bereaved husband has our sympathy in his great affliction.

Ben Parker, the Singer sewing machine man at Auburn, has engaged the services of C. W. Norton, an expert machinist, and is prepared to clean and repair sewing machines of all kinds. If you have a machine you want cleaned or repaired write to Mr. Parker or send him the machine. Second hand machines for sale.

Rose Gilbert has been appointed special administrator of the estate of S. Gilbert, deceased, and is authorized to collect all indebtedness. The business will be continued as usual.

A Sure Sign of Croup.
Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by M. H. Taylor.

DR. W. W. KEELING, DRUGGIST,

Peter Kerker a few days ago received a letter from Robert Frost, dated Nov. 7th, from which we are permitted to make the following extracts:

"Your letter came to hand last night and found me with a broken leg; quite a sad accident. Last Friday Rob and I started to the timber to get a load of poles for a corn crib, Bessie and little Charlie going along to gather hickory nuts. On the way there Charlie got to crying and on looking back to see what the matter was my foot slipped off the sawn and caught my foot between the brake and a stump that was in the road and broke the big bone clear off in my right leg. The doctor bandaged it up and is coming out again the last of the week to put it in a plaster Paris cast. * * * Two of the Odd Fellows were out from Pawnee to see me. They are very kind to me and wanted to know if they could help me in any way. I tell you, Pete, there are lots of good neighbors out here. There were about 25 neighbors in to see me Sunday—two preachers. They sang two real nice songs and cheered me up considerably. Among the rest were Babe and his wife. They stayed all night Minnie Devoras is teaching but Babe is afraid she will have to give it up. She isn't a bit well. So far I like the country all right. It is pretty rocky. "We have the postoffice here now. I am postmaster and Rob is assistant. Rob is going to Pawnee tomorrow after the outfit for the office, so you can send your next letter to Rutherford Oklahoma, instead of Pawnee. Old man Neal lives about six miles from here. He has been to see us once and his wife too. * * * We didn't have any frost till the first day of this month. It was pretty dry for awhile but we had a nice rain of three days last week, so everything is all right."

John I. Moore and Miss Margaret Christie, both of Lincoln, were married Tuesday evening, November 21st, at 7:30 o'clock, at the future home of the bride and groom in the Webber block. It was a beautiful and happy wedding, the ceremony being performed by Rev. T. J. Thompson, pastor of the First Christian church, the only guest present being W. S. Christie, the father of the bride.—State Journal.

Tim Vice, living north of town, had a runaway Tuesday night which resulted in a manner as to lay him up for some time. He was driving along and the team became frightened and started to run, whereupon he threw his entire weight against the lines, and in so doing his feet slipped from under him and he fell down in the bottom of the wagon. On rising he let the lines slack and the team gave a jump, which caused the tongue to drop and run into the ground, breaking it in two, throwing Mr. Vice over the endgate on his breast, injuring him quite severely.—Shubert Citizen.

I wouldn't be without DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for any consideration. writes Thos B Rhodes, Centerfield, O. Infallible for piles, cuts, burns and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. W W Keeling.
