James F. Drain returned from Red Cloud Wednesday. He has bought a quarter section of land four miles northwest of Red Cloud and expects to move out next week. He says he has a good farm and is well pleased at the outlook. He stopped two nights with R. J. Skeen and says he is doing well financially but his health is poor, although he is feeling some better now. He is going to quit farming and move to Red Cloud. Frank Henderson, Jim Clark, Sam Barnes and other ex-Nemaha county people in that section are all doing well and are well satisfied. We hate to have Mr. Drain leave us. He is one of our best citizens and will be greatly missed. May prosperity attend him.

Olive Camp No. 14, Woodmen of the World, had a public installation of the officers Wednesday night, in the opera house. The stage was occupied as a lodge room, the officers took their respective positions, and the camp was opened in regular form. The officers-elect were then installed by W. W. Seid, the outgoing Consul Commander, with J. L. Dalby as Escort. The following are the officers installed:
C C—A B Paris
Adv Lieut—S F Bridge
Physician—Dr W W Keeling
Manager—S F Bridge
Banker—W E Seid
Clerk—W F Keeling
Escort—S W Hodges
Watchman—J L Haith
Sentry—Fred Crane

After the installation ceremony a social entertainment was given, with the following program: Guitar solo by Herry Linn; an able and entertaining address on life insurance, and especially fraternal insurance, by B. Frank Neal, of Auburn; duet by Misses Grace Paris and May Gaither; address on the Woodmen of the World and the Woodmen Circle by J. L. Dalby; solo by Miss Grace Paris; instrumental solo by Will F. Keeling. The music was excellent and was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

The camp was closed in regular form and the audience adjourned to the Minick hall where a tempting supper was served. The whole entertainment reflects credit on the Woodmen of Olive camp.

A Life and Death Fight
Mr W A Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free at Keeling's Drug Store.

A. R. DeFluent, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails. For sale by Keeling the druggist."

The Methodist Sunday school last Sunday elected officers for the ensuing six months, as follows:
Superintendent—W W Sanders.
Assistant Superintendent—Dr W W Keeling.
Secretary—May Kerker.
Assistant Secretary—Ambrose Howe
Treasurer—Noma Haith.
Librarian—Nellie Sanders.
Assistant Librarian—Cora Haith.
Organist—Lillian Minick.
Assistant Organist—Veva Clark.

The average attendance during the past three months was a fraction over 72.

Talk about prosperity! When one small family can afford four turkeys for Christmas it looks like prosperity was here indeed. Mrs. E. A. Minick had four turkeys provided for Christmas dinner and they were nice ones, too. They spoke to Ally McCandless bring them one, but he did not get around with it until Saturday afternoon before Christmas. In the meantime Miss Mellinger Minick became uneasy on the turkey question and bought one ready dressed at the meat market. Then Miss Lillian saw W. W. Seid with some live turkeys, and as she did not know about the other turkey she paid for a nice one and had it taken to the house. Mr. McCandless brought the one they had engaged from him. Christmas morning Oscar Minick came in with a big turkey ready dressed. So they were well supplied with turkeys

Mrs. T. C. Hacker died at the home in Red Cloud, Neb., Friday, Dec. 29th, at 4:30 p. m. The deceased had been an invalid for many years, suffering from a complication of diseases. She was well known in Nemaha and at Brownville, having lived here many years before her marriage, and at Brownville from the time of her marriage to T. C. Hacker, May 12th, 1871, until their removal to Red Cloud in 1884. Her maiden name was Miss Sallie Johnson. She was 60 years, 9 months and 17 days old at her death. A husband and two daughters, Mrs. Wm Parker, of Red Cloud, and Mrs. Frank Parker, of San Francisco, are left to mourn the departure of a loving wife and mother.

The body of Mrs. Hacker was brought to Nemaha for burial, as four children are buried in the cemetery here. The remains arrived here Wednesday at 3:05 p. m. As services had been held held at Red Cloud none were held here except brief remarks and a prayer at the cemetery by Rev. E. S. Chamberlain.
