WANTED—SEVERAL PERSONS FOR DISTRICT OFFICE MANAGER in this state to represent me in their own and surrounding counties. Willing to pay yearly $200, payable weekly. Desirable employment with unusual opportunities. References exchanged. Enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope. S. A. Park, 329 Caxton Building, Chicago.

Notice of Probate of Will.
 State of Nebraska, county of Nemaha, ss. In the County Court of Nemaha County, Nebraska.
 To David Thompson, the heirs at law of Carrie B. Baker, the heirs at law of Sarah Johnson, deceased, and to all persons interested in the estate of Lewis Thompson, deceased.
 You are hereby notified that Jane Thompson has filed a petition praying that an instrument filed in this court purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased may be proved, allowed and recorded as the last will and testament of Lewis Thompson, deceased; that said instrument may be admitted to probate, and administration of said estate granted to John H. Seid as executor, and that the 3rd day of February, A. D. 1900, at 10 o'clock a. m., at county court room of said county, at Auburn, has been fixed as the time and place of proving said will, when you and all interested persons may appear and show cause, if there be any, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, and contest the probate thereof.
 Witness my hand and seal of said court this 4th day of January, 1900.
 RICHARD F. NEAL, County Judge.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.
 It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.
 Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and one dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Lecture Postponed!

A telegram was received by Prof. Eugene Howe Friday saying that F. Wesley Peterson, who was to lecture that night, could not be here but would fill his engagement next Monday night, January 8th. The lecture will be at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Mary A. Burgess died at 12 o'clock noon on Monday, January 1st, 1900. For a number of days previous to her death she realized that she could live but a short time but she was prepared for the great change. She arranged her business affairs and calmly awaited the end.

The deceased was born in Macoupin county, Illinois, December 5th, 1845. She came to Nebraska in 1887 and was married the day she arrived to T. J. Kerley. About four years ago she married Green Burgess. She joined the Baptist church when she was 15 years old, and in 1891 united with the Methodist Episcopal church. She leaves one son and two daughters—William H. Kerley, Mrs. May Baldwin, and Mrs. Emma McCain. Three brothers are living.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist church Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. Rev. J. M. Darby preached the funeral sermon. The remains were taken to Hillsdale for burial.

You never know what form of blood poisoning will follow constipation. It is on the liver clean by using De Witt's Little Early Bitters and you will avoid it. They are famous little pills for constipation and liver and bowel troubles. Keeling.

IN MEMORIAM.
 Grandma Skeen heard the call, "Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord," and accepted the invitation on the afternoon of December 26th. Death can never mar the life she lived. A patient sufferer for about 4 years, always hopeful, full of faith to the end. Death's terror was at a distance. When unmasked it showed to her a smiling face. The dome of thought, the palace of the soul, sleeps quietly in the cemetery at Nemaha. The writer was called upon to speak words of comfort to the children, relatives and friends, and to think of the precious promise of Jesus "I go to prepare a place for you." The fact that the spirit has returned to the God who gave it, and that the light of eternal day is hers and joy and gladness forevermore, is a gentle reproof to pale sorrow that sits weeping at the home of our noble dead. We are glad that the shadow that death has cast over the souls of the living cannot dim the light of hope, or frustrate that faith that overcomes the world. Like the flower that goes to sleep with the setting sun, she closed her eyes and death was done, for to her it had no sting and by faith in Jesus Christ the grave has lost its victory. Death waits on all but waits for none. In gladness, hope for the meeting over there. Think not of the dead but of the living, for she lives with God and the angels. Rejoice evermore in the hope of the redemption of our bodies.
 Mrs. Mary (Blevins) Skeen was born in Green county, Kentucky, October 5th, 1818. She was married to Alex D. Skeen April 3rd, 1834. She died December 26th, 1899, aged 81 years, 2 months and 21 days.

THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN
 LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY POLITICAL PAPER IN THE WEST
 It is radically Republican, advocating the cardinal doctrines of that party with ability and earnestness. But it can always be relied on for fair and honest reports of all political movements.
THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN SUPPLIES ALL THE NEWS AND BEST CURRENT LITERATURE
 It is Morally Clean and as a Family Paper is Without a Peer.
 The Literature of its columns is equal to that of the best magazines. It is interesting to the children as well as the parents.
 THE INTER OCEAN is a WESTERN NEWSPAPER, and while it brings to the family THE NEWS OF THE WORLD and gives its readers the best and ablest discussions of all questions of the day, it is in full sympathy with the ideas and aspirations of Western people and discusses literature and politics from the Western standpoint.
$1.00—PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR—$1.00
 THE DAILY AND SUNDAY EDITIONS OF THE INTER OCEAN ARE BEST OF THEIR KIND.
