A Life and Death Fight
Mr W A Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free at Keeling's Drug Store.
A. R. DeFluent, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails. For sale by Keeling the druggist."

James F. Drain started for Red Cloud with his car of household goods Monday. Mr. Drain and family will be greatly missed here, and especially so in church and Sunday school work in the Christian church, of which they were leading and active members. May prosperity, health and happiness attend them in their new home.
Roikjer, who advertised to give a spiritualist performance at the opera house last Saturday night, gave an entertainment, but failed to show any spirits or in fact anything of that nature. He gave a good exhibition of mind reading, sleight of hand performance, etc., and those present were well satisfied. He left an engagement for Saturday night of this week.
F. Wesley Peterson of the State University at Lincoln lectured at the Methodist church to a small audience. The lecture was excellent and was greatly appreciated by those present. Mr. Peterson has a splendid voice, and the thoughts expressed were noble, his language well chosen and his theme good. We hope when he comes again he will be greeted by a full house, which he certainly deserves. He has a bright future before him.
