

Nebraska Advertiser.

Journal

VOLUME XLIV

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1900.

NUMBER 42

Local News

Cooler weather.
 Next Sunday is Easter.
 Who will start a bank in Nemaha?
 See Keeling's new stock of wallpaper.
 Miss Ethel Paris went to Peru Thursday afternoon.
 Miss May Gaitner has been sick with the grip but is getting better.
 Mrs. E. A. Minick has had a large cistern put in at her residence.
 Mrs. Peter Kerker is confined to her bed with a severe attack of the grip.
 M. H. Taylor, of Shubert, was shaking hands with Nemaha friends Thursday.
 Miss Lulu Lebao has been very sick with malarial fever but is now some better.
 Frank Woodward returned from Diller last Sunday morning in time for church.
 Mrs. E. A. Minick went to Johnson Thursday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Ray Scofield.
 A. N. Harris went to Lincoln Thursday to attend the republican congressional convention.
 A few flakes of snow fell on Thursday—a rather unusual occurrence for this time of year.
 Rev. James Hiatt is burning the hedge brush around the Hoover farm northeast of town.
 Little Gilbert McCandless has been very sick with fever, whooping cough and stomach trouble.
 J. H. Seid seems to be a little better, though he is confined to his bed yet and suffers severely.
 Dr. V. M. Boal, of Auburn, was called to Nemaha Tuesday to see little Gilbert McCandless.
 Miss May Kerker was one of the numerous grip sufferers for a few days but is about well again.
 The new firm of Gilbert & McCandless are receiving the new goods. They are putting in a good stock.
 Mrs. H. E. Williams drove up from Shubert Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Titus. She returned home the next day.
SEEDS! SEEDS!!
 Best western grown flower, garden and field seeds, warranted fresh and true to name, for sale by Kerker & Hoover.
DR. W. W. KEELING, DRUGGIST, invites the continued patronage of the citizens of Nemaha and vicinity. The patrons may be assured of receiving fair treatment. A good line of DRUGS
 and druggist's sundries always kept in stock. Also latest patterns in WALL PAPER.
 A good stock of JEWELRY
 in handsome designs and latest styles.
STATIONERY
 Best of PERFUMERIES
 A handsome line of LAMPS
 A full stock of
PAINTS AND OILS
 If you want anything in our line call and see us. Prices right

Mrs. Scott, who had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Zook, returned to Sella last Saturday.
 Charley Zook has been kept busy for some time painting the lumber company buildings, sheds and fences.
 Mrs. Rose Gilbert will have a public sale of household goods at her residence on Saturday, April 14th, beginning at 2 o'clock p. m.
 The Kerns brick hotel building north of the court house in Auburn burned Thursday night. The house had not been used as a hotel for some time but was occupied by roomers. It was owned by G. W. Cornell.

EARLE GILBERT. A. R. McCANDLESS.

Gilbert & McCandless

having bought the S. Gilbert stock of goods, and added a large invoice of new goods which are now being received, giving us a full and complete stock of

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, NOTIONS, HATS, SHOES, ETC., ETC.

A fine line of Shirt Waists just in.
 Sunbonnets, ready made, and cheaper than you can buy the material and make them.
 A large stock of Slippers and shoes—good goods—low prices.
 Latest styles in Hats—large assortment—lowest prices.
 We have the goods and have put prices low enough to sell them. Your patronage is invited. We will treat you right.

GILBERT & McCANDLESS.

Pasture.
 I have pasture for 100 horses and cattle. Terms reasonable.
 LUTHER H. BARNES.

The ladies who failed to attend the opening at Mrs. Fannie Fairbank's millinery parlor last Saturday missed seeing some beautiful creations in spring millinery.

R. J. Tussey, who has lived at Hillsdale for several years, moved to DeWitt this week, where he has a nice home of several acres in the edge of town. May prosperity attend him.

D. A. Youtzy will give a Ben Hur entertainment at the Christian church in Nemaha Wednesday evening, April 18th. Mr. Youtzy gives a lecture on Gen. Lew Wallace's popular literary production, "Ben Hur, a Story of the Christ," illustrated with more than fifty beautiful stereopticon views, life size. Admission: Adults, 15 cents; children under 12 years of age, 10 cents.

Entertainment and Concert.

Mrs. Alice McCandless, assisted by some of the best local talent, will give an entertainment and concert at Hoover's opera house, on Saturday night, April 14th. Mrs. McCandless will give a number of recitations, one of especial merit and interest being entitled "Hagar's Farewell," which will be given in costume. There will also be good music, etc., etc., and altogether it will be one of the very best entertainments ever given in Nemaha. Admission, 15 cents; reserved seats, 20 cents. Reserved seats on sale at the drug store.

Wall Paper!

Keeling's drug store has just received a handsome line of wall paper—latest styles and handsome ones too. Prices very reasonable.
 E. E. Wood & Co., proprietors of the second hand store at Auburn, have just received a car load of new and second hand goods which they are selling at way down prices. Call and see them.

See Hill & Keeling for fire insurance
 James A. Titus does not seem to get any better. He is talking of going to the hospital at Omaha again.

Seymour Howe went to Lincoln Thursday to attend the republican congressional convention, to which he was a delegate.

The Methodist Sunday school will give an Easter exercise entitled "Easter Praises" at the church Sunday night. Everybody is invited.

The young folks had a delightful time Friday night of last week at a party given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Howe.

MRS. THEO. HILL
 cordially invites all the "Queens of America" to call and see her fine new stock of

Spring & Summer Millinery

Pattern Hats in abundance.
 The Largest and Finest Stock,
 with Best Bargains in Millinery ever brought to Nemaha. Call and see her at the STORE FOR BARGAINS!

LIGHT BRAMA EGGS—A few settings for sale at 50 cents per setting.
 JOHN HIATT.

Insure your farm and town property with Farmers and Merchants Insurance Co. of Lincoln. F. H. D. Hunt Agent, Nemaha, Neb.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing.

E. E. Rumbaugh has put in four new gasoline lamps in the barber shop. The lamps give a very bright but at the same time a soft light, and are a great improvement on the ordinary kerosene lamp.

Chaplain Mailley made an address on the Philippines Wednesday night, in the opera house. The talk was interesting to all, even to those who did not agree with him. The stereopticon views were fine.

County Superintendent W. C. Parriott gave us a social call Thursday afternoon. He had been visiting our schools and was warm in his praise of the excellent work done by the teachers of the Nemaha school.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
 Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature on every box. 25c

CANE SEED.—About 75 bushels of good cane seed for sale at 75 cents per bushel—60 pounds to the bushel. Also some Early Ohio potatoes at 40 cents per bushel—pure seed.
 NEWTON C. JARVIS.

Lulu Cooper, daughter of Isaac N. Cooper, has been suffering severely for some time with a gathering in her head. Steve Cooper's baby has also been sick, threatened with lung fever.

The many friends of Mrs. Cornell, of Omaha, formerly Miss Belle McCandless, will sympathize with her in her bereavement over the death of her little girl, about three years old, which sad event occurred a short time ago.

John A. Hiatt has decided to supply a "long felt want" by putting in a harness shop in Nemaha, and will also be prepared to do shoe repairing. He has rented the brick building next to the livery stable and will put in a stock of harness goods in a few days. He has engaged John E. Crother to work in the shop.

For the best assortment of Dry Goods and shoes go to the Daylight store of South Auburn; W. W. Harris, Proprietor

I have sold the stock of general merchandise belonging to the S. Gilbert estate to Earle Gilbert and A. R. McCandless. In closing up the business we wish to thank the people of Nemaha and vicinity for their kindness and very liberal patronage during the many years we have been in business here. For our successors we would ask a continuance of the same, and assure the public that the new firm will continue the fair dealing that has ever characterized the firm in the past.
 ROSE GILBERT, Adm.
 S. Gilbert estate.

A PICTURE OF YOURSELF ABSOLUTELY FREE.

Until May 1st we will give as a premium
A Life-Size Portrait with every $10 worth of goods purchased of us by one person.

This offer is limited, and should be taken advantage of at once.
 These pictures are from one of the best portrait companies in the country and will be true to life.

THE DRY GOODS EMPORIUM

.....OF.....
ANDERSON & BROWN
 Nemaha, Nebraska.