

Local News

Warm weather.
Farmers are very busy.
See Hill & Keeling for fire insurance
Who will start a bank in Nemaha?
See Keeling's new stock of wallpaper.
The prospects are fine for a big fruit crop.
Mrs. E. A. Minick returned from Johnson Tuesday.
Mrs. R. I. Brown and son went to Pawnee City Friday.
Mrs. Maud Lemon returned to Brownville last Saturday.
County Commissioner John S. Stevenson gave us a social call last Friday.
Several Indians passed through town Wednesday on their way to South Dakota.
Henry Seid was able to come to town Thursday for the first time in several weeks.
Willie Yates went to Brownville last Saturday to visit his sister, Mrs. Maud Lemon.
We print on one of the inside pages a portrait of Congressman Elmer J. Burkett.
The Royal Highlanders will hereafter meet in the Masonic hall until further notice.
Little Gilbert McCandless, who has been very sick for some time, is now much better.
As the 22nd comes on Sunday this year, next Monday will be celebrated as Arbor Day.
We had good showers Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The soil is now in fine shape.
Jimmy Jones has moved on his farm in Bedford precinct and is now a hardy handed farmer.
E. E. Rumbaugh and Joseph Stillwell have leased Hoover's opera house for a year. They took possession Thursday.

Wall Paper!

Keeling's drug store has just received a handsome line of wall paper—latest styles and handsome ones too. Prices very reasonable.

SEEDS! SEEDS!!

Best western grown flower, garden, and field seeds, warranted fresh and true to name, for sale by Kerker & Hoover.

DR. W. W. KEELING, DRUGGIST, invites the continued patronage of the citizens of Nemaha and vicinity. The patrons may be assured of receiving fair treatment. A good line of

DRUGS

and druggist's sundries always kept in stock. Also latest patterns in

WALL PAPER.

A good stock of

JEWELRY

in handsome designs and latest styles.

STATIONERY

Best of

PERFUMERIES

A handsome line of

LAMPS

A full stock of

PAINTS AND OILS

If you want anything in our line call and see us. Prices right

Mrs. J. B. Hoover and Mrs. John E. Crother went to Brownville Wednesday, returning Thursday.

Mrs. Buchenau started for Custer county, Oklahoma, Tuesday, to visit her son and other relatives and friends.

Misses Flora Hiatt and Rose Seabury gave The Advertiser office a very pleasant call Friday afternoon of last week.

Write to Dr. W. I. Seymour if you are having any trouble with your eyes, ears, nose or throat. No. 1219 K st., Lincoln, Neb.

Hill & Keeling write both farm and city insurance and will save you money

EARLE GILBERT.

A. R. McCANDLESS.

Gilbert & McCandless

having bought the S. Gilbert stock of goods, and added a large invoice of new goods which are now being received, giving us a full and complete stock of

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, NOTIONS, HATS, SHOES, ETC., ETC.

A fine line of Shirt Waists just in.
Sunbonnets, ready made, and cheaper than you can buy the material and make them.
A large stock of Slippers and shoes—good goods—low prices.
Latest styles in Hats—large assortment—lowest prices.
We have the goods and have put prices low enough to sell them. Your patronage is invited. We will treat you right.
Highest market price paid for all kinds of produce.

GILBERT & McCANDLESS.

Our readers are promised a treat in the beautifully illustrated articles of travel written by the noted Dr. W. I. Seymour of Lincoln, Neb.

Mrs. Mary Shelhorn, of Chicago, has been visiting her brothers, Casner and Luther H. Barnes, of Nemaha precinct, and her sister, Mrs. C. M. Welton, at Johnson, for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Alice McCandless will give a recital at McGeechie's opera house, Shubert, Saturday night, April 28th. The Shubert Mandolin club will assist in the entertainment.

Luther H. Barnes has sold his lease of the Hoover pasture northeast of town and the one in Lockwood Bend to Aven Harper and another gentleman, and Lute started for Oklahoma Friday to look up a location.

As it rained on Easter Sunday many are predicting that it will rain for seven Sundays. But The Advertiser weather prophet ventures the prediction that the old saying will be proven false. Now keep tab and see who is correct.

We have an interesting letter from Jake Tidrow, written to his sisters, Mrs. Woodward and Mrs. Yackley, which will be published next week. Mr. Tidrow is a volunteer soldier in the Philippine Islands and gives a brief account of what he has seen.

We invite the ladies to call and see the tinware, galvanized iron ware, enameled ware and woodenware. The best and easiest running washing machine made just received. Barrel churns. Do not forget to investigate the merits of Cementco, the finest wall finish made. Get some of our paint and brighten up the woodwork of your houses. Buy some of our woven fencing. Get a new hoe, rake and other garden making tools. Call and see our stock of goods anyway, whether you buy or not.

Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co., Nemaha, Neb.

LIGHT BRAMA EGGS—A few settings for sale at 50 cents per setting. JOHN HIATT.

Miss Veva Clark is taking some excellent outdoor views with her kodak. She is fast becoming an expert in photography.

The bazaar held at Brownville Friday of last week by the Methodist ladies' aid society was a great success. The ladies took in $55 16.

Mrs. Jennie Chambers returned to her home near Tecumseh Tuesday, after a visit of several days with relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Mart May, Sherman May and Aug Quiller went to Phelps, Mo., Monday and brought back with them a fine jack, "Judge Mammoh," which Mr. Quiller recently bought invites all the "Queens of America" to call and see her fine stock of

MRS. THEO. HILL

Spring & Summer Millinery

Call and see her at the "Store for Bargains."

John A. Hiatt received his stock of harness goods the first of the week and is now ready for business for anything in that line. John E. Crother is at work and will make you a new set of harness, repair your old one or patch up your shoes in short order.

Rev. D. A. Youtzy, of Elk Creek, gave his lecture on "Ben Hur," illustrated with stereopticon views, at the Christian church Wednesday night. The lecturer gave a synopsis of the book as the views were turned on the screen, and interested all. The entertainment is a very interesting one.

Harry Shadley, who has been section foreman at Nemaha for several years, has resigned, and we understand will soon take the position of foreman of the B. & M. rock quarry west of Auburn. Fuller Burns has been temporarily appointed section foreman and will probably be appointed permanently.

Nemaha is now well supplied with business enterprises with the exception of a bank. During the past six or eight months there has been added to the business of the town another hardware store, a lumber yard, a restaurant, a photograph gallery, and a harness shop, and a new elevator has been opened within the last year. In addition to this the merchants carrying general merchandise have greatly increased their stocks of goods. Nemaha is steadily improving.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing.

I wouldn't be without DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for any consideration," writes Thos B Rhodes, Centerfield, O. Infallible for piles, cuts, burns and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. W W Keeling

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E W Grove's signature on every box. 25c

The Odd Fellows of Nemaha are preparing for a big blowout next Thursday night, that being the anniversary of the institution of the order. An interesting program has been prepared, which will be given in Odd Fellows hall. Rev. J. M. Darby will deliver an address. Supper will be served in the Minick hall.

G. W. Fairbrother, of Brownville, had a stroke of paralysis Tuesday and is in a critical condition. On a count of his age and enfeebled condition the chances are against his recovery. Mr. Fairbrother is one of the pioneer editors of Nebraska, and was for a number of years editor of The Advertiser. He has many friends all over the state who earnestly hope for his recovery.

Having sold the general merchandise stock belonging to the S. Gilbert estate, I wish to settle up all the business of the estate as quickly as possible, and would ask all owing accounts to call and settle by cash or note. All notes and accounts will be in the office of Gilbert & McCandless and can be settled there at any time.

ROSE GILBERT, Admx.

For the best assortment of Dry Goods and shoes go to the Daylight store of South Auburn; W. W. Harris, Proprietor

Any one needing native lumber can find the same at my residence, one and a half miles south of Nemaha.

W. W. SEID.

Insure your farm and town property with Farmers and Merchants Insurance Co. of Lincoln F. H. D. Hunt Agent, Nemaha, Neb

We have a number of sample copies of the Inter Ocean that we will give to any who call for them. It is a good paper. We will send The Advertiser and the Inter Ocean both for one year for only $1 40.

A PICTURE OF YOURSELF ABSOLUTELY FREE.

Until May 1st we will give as a premium

A Life-Size Portrait

with every $10 worth of goods purchased of us by one person.

This offer is limited, and should be taken advantage of at once.

These pictures are from one of the best portrait companies in the country and will be true to life.

THE DRY GOODS EMPORIUM

.....OF.....

ANDERSON & BROWN

Nemaha, Nebraska.