

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME XLIV

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, JUNE 15, 1900.

NUMBER 51

Local News

Nemaha will celebrate the Fourth.

See Hill & Keeling for fire insurance.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing.

We had a good rain Tuesday. It was badly needed.

Joe Flack's condition is very serious and his recovery is doubtful.

Dr. W. I. Seymour, EYE SPECIALIST, 1219 K at Lincoln, Neb.

H. D. B. went to Peru last Saturday and visited his sister until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bennett visited their son Hanney at Auburn Monday and Tuesday.

E. D. Roger of Auburn was shaking hands with Nemaha friends Monday morning.

Cyrus Minick visited his brothers, Oscar and Charlie, at Bracken Tuesday and Wednesday.

Prof. W. D. Steutville, the principal of our schools next year, was in Nemaha Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanney Bennett of Auburn visited with Mr. Bennett's parents last Sunday.

Henry Clark brought in some fine new potatoes Saturday and donated them to the editor's wife.

Miss Dora Morton went to Auburn Tuesday to attend the meeting of the teacher's association.

Mrs. Swartz of St. Joseph, Mo., and Mrs. Cliff were the guests of Mrs. Kemp home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hiatt drove to their old home in Iowa last Saturday, returning Tuesday.

There is a great demand for cherries now and the Titus nursery is unable to fill all orders received.

Prof. Frank L. McNowen came down from Peru last Saturday and visited Nemaha friends until Monday.

Miss Nellie Sanders visited her cousins, Miss Roxie and Hazel Parker, at Auburn Tuesday and Wednesday.

Try Anderson's Good Luck flour, $1 a sack. A souvenier with every three sacks. At Anderson & Brown's.

G. N. Titus started for Chicago Tuesday to attend a meeting of the national nurserymen's association.

John A. Hiatt moved his harness shop into the Kerker & Hoover building next to the meat market Wednesday.

Misses Mellinger and Florence Minick and Mabel Barker are attending the teachers association at Auburn this week.

Elmer Farnsworth, who has been assisting in the lumber yard for a few days, started for Sioux City, Iowa, Monday.

A. V. Farson sr., who has been visiting his son Von Farson for two or three days, returned home the first of this week.

The social given at the Minick hall last Saturday night by class No. 7 was a success, and $10 was paid to Rev. J. M. Darby.

E. E. Wood & Co. of Auburn have a large stock of clothing, hats, etc. which they are closing out regardless of price or value. Prices way down.

Mrs. Kempthorne has been engaged to teach the Maple Grove school the ensuing term. It is the same district in which she taught last year.

The best paint in the world, (The Sherwin and Williams) one dollar and fifty cents per gallon at Keeling's drug store.

See Keeling's new stock of wallpaper.

S. Cooper sells Page's Woven Wire fence—best fence on earth.

For the best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn; W. W. Harris proprietor.

Mrs. Garretson who lived in Nemaha for several months died at the residence in Brownville Monday. The funeral services were held Tuesday.

M. H. Carman, ex-county superintendent, and Miss Carrie Leech, deputy postmistress of Auburn, were married in Omaha Wednesday of last week.

Keep out the flies by putting up screen doors and screen wire to the windows. We sell them. EDWARDS & BRADFORD LUMBER CO., Nemaha, Neb.

The Methodist Sunday school will give the children's day service one week from next Sunday night. It will take the place of the regular service.

Wm. Young, of Rockport, Mo., was in town Tuesday soliciting orders from our merchants for calendars for next year. He took a number of orders.

S. K. Anderson has bought the corner lot north of Anderson & Brown's store room—the Banks lot which B. C. Morton bought in at the sale of the estate.

If you are troubled with deafness, arrange with Dr. Seymour and Cox for treatment. They are very successful in the treatment of the eyes, ears, nose and throat.

Attention Woodmen of the World: You are requested to meet at the hall next Wednesday night without fail as there is some special business to transact.

The safe at the B & M depot at Brownville was blown open Friday night of last week, but the thieves got only 14 cents for their trouble. The safe door is a total wreck.

Daniel D. Davis of South Aspinwall precinct was in town Tuesday and took the train for Auburn to see the county commissioners about some bridge repairs near the county.

Wall Paper!

Keeling's drug store has just received a handsome line of wall paper—latest styles and handsome ones too. Prices very reasonable.

Dr. Ed Keeling and son Ray of Virginia, Indiana, arrived in Nemaha last Saturday on a visit to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling. They went to Omaha Thursday morning. Mrs. W. W. Keeling went with them to Omaha.

DR. W. W. KEELING, DRUGGIST, invites the continued patronage of the citizens of Nemaha and vicinity. The patrons may be assured of receiving fair treatment. A good line of and druggist's sundries always kept in stock. Also latest patterns in

DRUGS

WALL PAPER.

A good stock of

JEWELRY

in handsome designs and latest styles.

STATIONERY

Best of

PERFUMERIES

A handsome line of

LAMPS

A full stock of

PAINTS AND OILS

If you want anything in our line call and see us. Prices right

Lester Peabody, an old railroad man who ran into this city for six or eight years and who is now farming in Nemaha county, is here on a visit with James Napier.—Nebraska City News.

Mr. Marvin Nelson, who is on his way home to Nebraska from the Kearney military school where he graduated a short time ago, was visiting at the home of John Kempthorne Sunday and Monday.

Marshall Pryor, Ed Moore and Tom Hiatt were courting at Auburn last week, getting home Monday. All there were on the case of Grace McGrew as Peru. The jury disagreed. This is the fourth trial of this case.

Grandma Culp fell down a bank Monday near where her daughter, Mrs. Yates lives, and was seriously injured, her hip being badly bruised and wrenched. As she is over 90 years of age her injuries are serious and it will probably be a long time before she recovers.

A fellow who killed a cow belonging to Frank Gerlaw a few months ago and was a short time ago arrested in Iowa, was convicted and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. This is the same fellow who was here with a woman or two and put up a tent near the B & M water tank, and had the tent burn up.

Uncle Samuel Allen died at his farm five miles southwest of Nemaha last Saturday and was buried Sunday. Uncle Sam was well known and highly respected, a man of strict integrity and strong in his convictions. He has been an invalid for many months, having had a stroke of paralysis last summer.

The third annual quarterly meeting for the Brownville, Nemaha and Bethel circuit, M. E. church, will be held at Bethel Sunday, June 24th. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Darby, and at 3 p. m. and 8 o'clock by the presiding elder, Dr. P. Van Fleet. Quarterly conference at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Dr. I. H. Dillon, coroner, and Deputy Sheriff Hughes of Auburn were in town last Saturday. They had been to Hillsdale to hold an inquest on the body of the Meredith boy who was drowned at Nebraska City about two weeks ago before and whose body was found in the river near Hillsdale Friday of last week.

A quiet little wedding took place at the home of W. E. Stokes of Auburn Thursday morning at 8 o'clock when Mr. C. Shuck of Nemaha and Mrs. R. A. Cupp were united by Rev. Stone. The bride was dressed in silk with ecuffon trimmings. The groom wore the customary black. A nice little breakfast was served, and the happy pair departed at once on a wedding tour to western points and will be absent a month. On their return they will make their home in Auburn. We extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Shuck.

W. W. Mayhew, Merton, Wis., says, "I consider One Minute Cough Cure a most wonderful medicine, quick and safe." It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, grippe, whooping cough, pneumonia and all throat and lung diseases. Its early use prevents consumption. Children always like it and mothers endorse it. W. W. Keeling.

Cleanse the liver, purify the blood, invigorate the body by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills always act promptly. W. W. Keeling.

Farm Journal, 5 years (1900-1901-1902, 1903 and 1904), to every subscriber who will pay one year in advance to The Advertiser; both papers for $1. No better paper than the Farm Journal. This offer is made to you.

Call on us for job work.

Make your preparations to celebrate in Nemaha.

We had a fine rain Tuesday—just what was needed.

Henry Williams was up from Shubert Wednesday.

Croquet sets for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McCandless and children drove out to Auburn Thursday.

A good line of hammocks just received by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Mrs. Brooks, who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Earle Gilbert for several weeks went to Douglas Friday.

The editor is busy taking the census this week and therefore has devoted very little time to the paper. If it is better than usual give credit to the assistants.

Gilbert & McCandless have put in a print rack which saves them much time in showing prints, dress goods, etc., and keeps these goods in better shape. It is very convenient.

V. P. Peabody is building a good sized addition to his residence on the farm southwest of Nemaha. He says he can afford to under the prosperous reign of McKinley and the republican party.

Lucy E. Dodge of Salem will lecture on temperance at the Methodist church Thursday and Friday nights of next week. Friday afternoon she will hold a meeting with the children. Admission free. A collection will be taken each evening to defray expenses. Everybody is invited.

Having sold the general merchandise stock belonging to the S. Gilbert estate, I wish to settle up all the business of the estate as quickly as possible, and would ask all owing accounts to call and settle by cash or note. All notes and accounts will be in the office of Gilbert & McCandless and can be settled there at any time.

ROSE GILBERT, Admx.

The Advertiser and the St. Louis Globe Democrat both one year for only $1.00.

LIGHT BRAMA EGGS—A few settings for sale at 50 cents per setting.

JOHN HIATT.

24 Photos for 25 cents.

For a short time only I will make 24 stamps for 25 cents.

E. W. AGNEW, Photographer.

Flour & Wheat Exchange

and Flour for sale at the Keeling building.

Cobs for sale. Call at the feed store.

Before making arrangements for your year's supply of reading matter call and get our clubbing rates. The following are some of our combinations:

The Advertiser one year and the Farm Journal until Dec. 31, 1904, for only $1

The Advertiser and St. Louis Globe Democrat both one year for $1.60

The Advertiser and the Chicago Inter Ocean for $1.40

The Advertiser and either the Toledo Blade or the New York Tribune for $1.35

The Advertiser and the Household, a home monthly, for $1.35

The Advertiser and the Iowa Homestead, Poultry Farmer and Insurance Journal all one year for $1.35

W. W. SANDERS, Notary - - Public

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA.

Future Conventions.

Republican national convention, Philadelphia, June 19th.

Democratic national convention, Kansas City, July 4th.

Nebraska democratic convention, Lincoln, July 11th.

Nebraska populist convention, Lincoln, July 11th.

Silver republican national convention, Kansas City, July 4th.

Silver republican state convention, Lincoln, July 11th.

Fusion congressional conventions, Fifth district, Holdrege, August 22d

Populist, democratic and silver republican conventions, Adams county, Hastings, Saturday, June 30th.

Call in and see us if you want subscribe for any paper published in the United States.

AUBURN, Neb., June 13.—A small tornado crossed this county yesterday evening about 5 p. m., so far as known, only touching the ground twice. It passed from the southwest to the northeast, near the town of Johnson, this county, removing a building from the foundation, and seriously damaging it. It again struck the ground six miles north of this city in a field, doing no damage. Heavy rains fell over nearly all this county yesterday.

The committee on stand rights for the 4th of July celebration at Stella will be on the grounds $\frac{1}{4}$ mile south of Stella, Neb., on Tuesday, June 19, for the purpose of letting stand and other rights for the 4th of July.

A. E. CAMBLIN, Chairman.

Cards for mounting stamp photos for sale at The Advertiser office—twenty for five cents.

Farm Journal is the oldest farm monthly published. But it is not old and moss grown; it is bristling and brimming over with good things. You should know it. Here's a chance. Pay up your subscription to the Advertiser one year ahead, and we will send it nearly five years, the remainder of 1900, and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904; both papers at the price of one.

Blank deeds, chattel mortgages, farm leases, etc., for sale at this office.

Mow down the weeds. We have the scythes to do it with.

EDWARDS & BRADFORD LUMBER CO.

We will send The Advertiser for one year and the Farm Journal until Jan. 1st, 1905, for only $1, if paid in advance. This offer applies to both old and new subscribers.

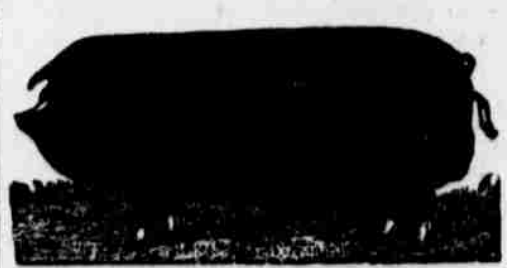

A MONSTER DEVIL FISH

Destroying its victim, is a type of constipation. The power of this malady is felt on organs, nerves, muscles and brain. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a safe and certain cure. Best in the world for stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Only 25 cents, at Keeling's drug store.

Insure your farm and town property with Farmers and Merchants Insurance Co. of Lincoln. F. H. D. Hunt Agent, Nemaha, Neb.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding. Quick time. All trains met. John McElhane, proprietor.

Old papers for sale at this office.

J. H. SEID,
Breeder of Thoroughbred Poland China
HOGS.

NEMAHA - - - NEBRASKA