Mr. Davis, the junior proprietor of the Falls City News, gave us a pleasant call last Saturday. Mr. Davis drove up from Falls City Friday evening and was visiting Nemaha and Brownville and the neighborhood thereabouts.

The children's day exercises at the M. E. church last Sunday were excellent and reflected credit on the children taking part and on the training given them by Miss Lillian Minick. The little folks under ten years were, with hardly an exception, the ones taking part in the exercises, and not one had to be prompted. The singing by the little folks was fine.

Nemaha was visited by a hail storm Wednesday, but fortunately little wind was blowing at the time the hail was falling and little damage was done, although the hail stones were quite large. In places between here and Auburn the hail stones were larger than those falling in the previous storm that did so much damage, but on account of no wind blowing the damage is slight.

The citizens of Nemaha pride themselves in always doing full as much as they promise in all celebrations. For this reason it has been decided to make a statement regarding the Fourth of July. The committees have been unable to get a band, a ball team or other attractions and therefore will not make a big spread on the glorious Fourth, but will have a picnic in the park to which everybody is invited to bring well filled baskets and enjoy themselves. Rev. J. M. Darby will make an address, there will be some singing and a general good time in a quiet way. If you want to come where you can have plenty of good shade, cool water, nice grass, and enjoy yourselves generally, come to Nemaha.

The editor and wife attended the quarterly conference of the M. E. church at Bethel last Monday forenoon. After the meeting we accepted an invitation from John Bath, proprietor of the Londondale Stock Farm, and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bath until toward evening. They have one of the most beautiful and comfortable homes in Nebraska. Mr. Bath has been engaged extensively in raising fine thoroughbred Shorthorn cattle, and realized $9,665 from a public sale two or three weeks ago, 62 head being sold—an average of $155.00 a head. One animal sold for $500—and the buyer was delighted with his bargain. In addition to raising fine cattle Mr. Bath always feeds several car loads of cattle and hogs each year. He is one of the largest land owners and farmers in Nemaha county and one of our best citizens.

Wednesday afternoon G. N. Titus got Lela Gaither and Lena Maxwell and started to drive to the nursery with them to give them a treat of raspberries, cherries, etc. He stopped at Fuller Burns' residence to get an empty berry crate. Just as he was putting the crate in the spring wagon used for delivering the horse gave a leap and started on a run. Lela Gaither had held of the lines and she tried her best to stop the horse but had no effect. The horse turned the corner by Mrs. Collins' house without upsetting the wagon or throwing the girls out. At the next corner, south of Dick Morton's, Lena Maxwell was thrown out and when almost to the bridge, this side of Frank Flack's, Lela Gaither was thrown out. Both were badly bruised. The wagon had run over one of Lena's limbs, bruising it but fortunately breaking no bones. The children were taken home and treated by Dr. Gaither, and the next day were feeling better except for being sore and extremely nervous. The shock was a bad one. The horse was never known to run away before. Of course Nat felt very bad about the accident. It was fortunate there were no more serious results.

Mrs Emma McCain died at her residence in Nemaha Saturday night, June 23, 1900, after suffering for several weeks with consumption. Mrs. McCain was born in Nemaha November 10, 1876. March 6, 1892, she was married to Samuel Houk, who was drowned in the Missouri river about four years ago. June 9, 1898, she was married again to William McCain. She joined the M. E. church when she was 14 years old. The night she died Frank Taylor was sent for, and after the hymn "A Charge to Keep I Have," was sung Mr Taylor offered a prayer, in which Mrs. McCain joined by frequently saying Amen. She knew she was dying and was resigned. She leaves two children, a boy 6 years of age and a girl 3 years of age, and a sister, Mrs. May Baldwin, and a brother, Wm. Kerley. Her mother died January 1st last.

The funeral services were held at the M. E. church Monday at 11:30 a. m. Rev. J. M. Darby preached the funeral sermon. The remains were taken to Hillsdale for burial.

A very serious accident happened at the home of Llewellyn Williams Wednesday morning whereby the horse belonging to Frank Skeen is no more. She was in the barn lot and in trying to jump out fell on a post, ripping her open just in front of the hind legs letting out her inward organs. Dr. Sutton was called and with the aid of a number of men and boys succeeded in getting her inwards back, but it was seen that there was no hope for her and they considered it a humane act to kill her and put her out of her misery, which they did. This is quite a loss to Frank and one that he can ill afford and he has the sympathy of all.—Shubert Citizen.

Pres. Barker, the republican war horse of Aspinwall, was in town Monday, and speaking of the storm and its causes said: "Owing to the recent dry weather he had written to Mark Hanna telling him if he didn't send some rain out here pretty soon this state would go pop, and Mark in his efforts to win the state back into the republican ranks became a little over zealous and overdone the storm business, hence the cause of the hail."—Shubert Citizen.

If her hostess does her own work the girl guest who is thoughtful may properly give a helping hand in washing the dishes, or dusting the parlor, but this help must be tactfully offered and not intrusively urged; some women are averse to assistance from their guests.—July Ladies' Home Journal.

A Good Cough Medicine.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the coughs following la grippe, and find it very efficacious" For sale by Keeling.

Annual School Meeting.

The annual school meeting was held Monday night. The director and treasurer made their annual reports, which were accepted. Then came the election of two trustees to succeed F. L. Woodward and Dr. Keeling. Dr. Keeling, F. L. Woodward, S. K. Anderson and Ora Thorp were placed in nomination. A motion to vote for two candidates at the same time was carried. The first ballot stood as follows: Woodward 14, Keeling 15, Anderson 15, Thorp 16. A. R. McCandless 2. Thirty-one votes were cast. Thorp was declared elected. On the next ballot Woodward received 11 votes, Dr Keeling 4, Anderson 16. S. K. Anderson was declared elected.

A levy of 25 mills was made, 10 mills for teacher's fund and 15 mills for incidental fund. The meeting then adjourned.

Josiah Allen's Wife Goes a-Visitin'

"Josiah Allen's Wife" has sharpened up her pen again, and with her patient, amiable, unobtrusive husband "goes a-visitin'" for The Ladies' Home Journal. Every one, knowing that Josiah's wife is "observant" and "critical," can anticipate that in laying bare the shortcomings and mistakes of those she visits she will have abundant opportunity for the exercise of her quaint humor and homely philosophy. In the course of her "visitin'" she finds many things to set right, and there is a definite purpose underlying all her sketches. "Josiah and I Go a-Visitin'" is perhaps the best series that Mrs. Holly has ever written—superior even to her description of the Centennial which established her reputation as a humorist-philosopher of the first order. The first sketch of this new series will be published in the August Journal.

Country Mail Service.

AUBURN, Neb., June 22.—The post-office department has taken the initial steps towards organizing a country mail service in this county, the first carrier beginning his work this morning, starting from South Auburn, delivering it to Eden and Bracken. The department gives it out that it will be established generally in this part of the county. Other carriers are soon to be started. It is a service that has long been needed here, and is due to the work of Congressman Burkett.

Unnecessary Loss of Time.

Mr. W. S. Whedon cashier of the First National Bank of Winterset, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by Keeling
