

EDWARDS & BRADFORD LUMBER CO.,

DEALERS IN

ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL and COAL.

If you are going to build come in and figure with us. It costs you nothing and may save you money.

Our Lumber stock it is complete.

In Hardware we can't be beat.

We handle Paints—they are the best.

Come in and we will do the rest.

Local News

Still it is warm.

Wm. Daniels visited Stella Monday.

See Hill & Keeling for fire insurance

Neckyokes for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Leslie Woodward is assisting in the drug store for a few days.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

Tin fruit cans for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

John McGechie is a Lincoln visitor this week. He went on his wheel.

For your tin spouting go to the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. Nemaha.

Seymour Howe donated a bushel of fine peaches to the editor a few days ago.

Rev. J. M. Darby will preach his farewell sermon at Nemaha Sunday night.

The annual conference for the M. E. church meets at Nebraska City next Wednesday.

Good peaches are retailing at about 75 cents a bushel. Extra nice ones bring more.

Miss Jennie Hawxby returned home Monday after visiting friends in Auburn for a few days.

Sherm Titus is building a barn on the east end of the lot west of Birl Hoover's grocery store.

G. N. Titus went to Omaha Monday and from there to Lincoln, returning home Thursday evening.

Rev. J. M. Darby and wife and Miss Blanch Darby, of Brownville, visited Nemaha friends Monday.

Will Keeling has moved into the Gilbert house in the south part of town, vacated a few days ago by C. F. Zook.

There will be a full morning service and holy communion at St. John's Episcopal church next Sunday morning

For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn; W. W. Harris prop'r.

Miss Noma Haith went to Auburn Sunday and on Monday entered the high school, which she will attend this year.

Von Farson, who is farming near Arago, Richardson county, visited Nemaha friends two or three days this week.

The educational rally and picnic at Brownville Thursday of last week was a success and reflected credit on those getting it up.

Miss Clara Diltz is teaching the St. Deroin school. It is the same school she taught last year and the patrons were well pleased.

Dr. W. W. Keeling and Dr. J. L. Melvin took the 3:30 freight Thursday morning, on their way to Lincoln to take in the state fair.

Go to the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. for corn knives—best knives.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Maxwell and Lester Peabody were the only passengers from Nemaha on the excursion train to the state fair Tuesday.

Dr. Keeling and Wm. Rossell have formed a limited partnership in the fishing business, but Mr. Rossell seems to catch nearly all the fish.

L. H. Merritt returned from Vesta Tuesday, driving through. He says he interviewed every man he saw on the road and found everything 10 to 1—10 republicans to 1 Bryan man.

Mr. Alberson, of the firm of Alberson & Hobbs, proprietors of an extensive nursery at Bridgeport, Indiana, paid the Titus Nursery a visit Wednesday, and bought a car load of apple seedlings.

A J Baldwin, of Stella, was in Nemaha Wednesday and gave us a social call, spending some time talking over old times when he and the editor "bached" together in Nemaha twenty years ago.

We unintentionally failed to notice the visit of Miss Sadie McCandless, of Omaha, who attended the old settlers picnic and visited her brothers, E. S. and A. R. McCandless, and friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Phelps, of Perkins county, Nebraska, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Scrivener, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Gaither, of Nemaha, and Mrs. J. M. Sanders, of London precinct, for the past three weeks.

Ambrose and Emery Howe went to Peru Tuesday to attend the Normal school. They are going to back but will probably come home once a week to feast on "mother's" cooking and lay in a supply for the next week.

D. R. Steele, who sold his Nemaha residence to T. J. Rumbaugh, expects to leave here with his family the first of next week. He has not yet fully decided where he will go but now talks of going to Oklahoma and buying a farm.

MONEY—MONEY—Do you wish to use any either to pay an old loan or to buy more land? Private money—good terms—good amounts. Mortgages bought. Call on or write me

HENRY C. SMITH, Falls City, Neb.

A mad dog was killed in Nemaha Wednesday night. The dog, which was a good sized one of a brownish color with a white neck and head and having a leather collar on, had been around town for several days. About nine o'clock Wednesday night it was seen that the dog was mad and he was shot and killed by Bob Sayers. It is said the dog bit several other dogs in town before he was killed.

W W Keeling guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whoopingcough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

Social

Class No. 7 of the M. E. Sunday school will give a sociable at the Minick ball Saturday night of next week—September 15th. Everybody is invited.

Almost every woman you see now complains of being tired out—"been putting up peaches." And nearly every man, boy or girl is also complaining of "that tired feeling" because they have "been helping put up peaches."

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Zook and Mrs. Scott and family started for Indiana Monday, where they expect to make their home. Charley is a good citizen and we hate to have him leave us, but predict that he will eventually return to Nemaha.

The Nemaha schools opened Monday with a good attendance of pupils, there being 23 pupils in the high school, 48 in the intermediate department and 48 in the primary, a total of 119. Twelve of these pupils reside outside the district. W. V. Steuterville is principal, Willard Dressler teacher of the intermediate department and Miss Mellinger Minick teacher of the primary department.

LANDS—FARMS—Do you wish to buy, sell or exchange for a larger or smaller tract? Tell me what you have and what you want in the way of a ranch, a farm, mill, hotel or merchandise; many years in business gives me a wide acquaintance. Cash buyers for great bargains. I may know of just what you want or get you a buyer for what you have.

HENRY C. SMITH, Falls City, Neb.

"HOME VISITORS" EXCURSIONS.
September 10 and 20.

Nebraskans can go east very cheaply September 10th and 20th.

On these dates the Burlington Route will sell tickets to all points in Iowa, Wisconsin and Northern Peninsula of Michigan at rate of ONE FARE plus $2 for the round trip.

Same low rate will apply to points in Southern Minnesota, Northern Missouri and Central and Western Illinois. Tickets will be good to return any time within 30 days from date of issue.

For further information, consult nearest ticket agent, or write to J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Omaha, Neb.

LADIES, WHY DON'T YOU?
Editor of The Advertiser:

Is there anything at all that we can say or do to convince ALL your lady readers that we are actually giving away to every married lady in the United States who writes for it an elegant sterling silver-plated sugar shell like jewelers sell at 75c each? There is no "catch" about this offer. There is nothing to pay, nor any requirement to buy anything in order to secure this beautiful souvenir gift. It is our way of advertising the merits of Quaker Valley silverware. A copy of the Home-Furnisher, our own publication will also be sent free. Surely this beautiful sugar shell gift is worth asking for. Then it seems to us that we should hear from every married lady who reads your paper. Quaker Valley Mfg. Co., Morgan and Harrison Sts., Chicago

Harry Crane, of New Orleans, La., was shaking hands with Nemaha friends Wednesday. Harry is a dentist and is doing a good business in his adopted home where he has been for thirteen years. He is visiting his mother at Brownville.

Andy Jarvis, Joe Stilwell and Clarence Aynes started on a hunting expedition Wednesday. They will be joined at Omaha by George Stilwell. They drive through, and expect to go to the sand hills near Broken Bow. It is uncertain how long they will be gone.

Mrs. Wade, of Vesta, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Merritt. Mrs. Wade is an ardent republican, is quite an orator, and has done good work in making public speeches not only in Nebraska but in other states. It is probable she will do some public speaking this fall.

The state law provides that prairie chickens and grouse may be legally killed only during the months of September, October, November and December; quail during the months of November and December; geese and all kinds of wild ducks from the 1st day of September to the 30th day of April, inclusive.

At the quarterly conference of the M. E. church held at Brownville Thursday of last week the following officers for the church at Nemaha were elected:

Trustees—Dr. W. W. Keeling, W. W. Sanders, R. L. Brown and Seymour Howe.

Stewards—W. W. Sanders, Mrs. R. I. Brown and Miss Lillian Minick.

Oddities of the Calendar—
Under the above heading the following item has appeared in a great many papers;

January and October of the same year always begin with the same day. So do April and July, also September and December, February, March and November.

This is true on all years except leap years, when the first day of January and October, and February and March or February and November are on different days of the week.

If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea so common to small children. O P M Holliday of Deeming, Ind., who has an eleven months' old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once." For sale by Keeling.

It Helped to Win Battles—
Twenty-nine officers and men wrote from the front to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for burns, skin eruptions and piles. 25 cts a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold W W Keeling druggist.

Coal for threshing machines for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

The editor was so lame with rheumatism Wednesday afternoon that he could hardly walk. An Auburn populist called in and preached Bryan and reform for about an hour and when he left the editor discovered that he had no rheumatism. We suppose the populist talk acted on the principle of a counter irritant.

Mrs. May Baldwin went to Pawnee City last Saturday with little Viannah Houk, with a view of placing her in a good home. She was left in the home of a well-to-do farmer who lives near the farm of Mr. Brown, where Johnnie Houk is making his home. Both the children now have good homes and are well satisfied. Mrs. Baldwin returned home Wednesday.

SAVE ME.
I am worth 50 cents toward one dozen Cabinet pictures till December 1, 1900, at STONEMAN'S STUDIO.
One taken on each dozen. Auburn, Neb.

This Paper | Farm Journal
One Year. | nearly 5 Years.

PAY UP AND GET BOTH PAPERS FOR THE PRICE OF ONE.

We want to get 500 new subscribers to our paper, and are going to do it if we can, we therefore continue our arrangement with the Farm Journal by which we can send The Nebraska Advertiser and the Farm Journal for the remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, both for $1. And we make the same offer to all old subscribers who will pay all arrearages and one year in advance.

You know what our is, and the Farm Journal is a gem—practical, progressive—a clean, honest, useful paper—full of gumption, full sunshine, with an immense circulation among the best people everywhere. YOU OUGHT TO TAKE IT.

Prevented a Tragedy.
Timely information given Mrs George Long of New Straitsville, Ohio, saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her; and she writes, this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are a positive proof of its power to cure all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1. Guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Keeling's drug store.

Star of a Slave.
To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D Williams of Manchester, Mich., says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. It is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Cure guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by W W Keeling, drug gist.

Cards for mounting stamp photos for sale at The Advertiser office—twenty for five cents.