Mrs. Ken p'hone commenced school at Maple Grove Monday with a good attendance. She taught the same school last year.

Social.

Class No. 7 of the M. E. Sunday school will give a sociable at the Minick hall Saturday night of next week—September 15th. Everybody is invited.

Mrs. Matne, living in Missouri, had her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Josiah Matne, living in the southeastern part of Nemaha county, arrested for assault and threatening to shoot the old lady. The trial was held before Judge Smiley Thursday of last week and the younger lady found innocent, thus throwing the costs on the mother-in-law. The latter said all she had was the clothes she wore and she offered to give them up but the judge and Special Constable Sperm Titus decided to throw off their costs and let her go.

Not long since E. J. Clark, who owns a farm near Howe, lost three cows by some mysterious disease. He had the carcasses of the animals removed to a hog pen, where he fed them to a lot of shoats. Not long afterwards the shoats developed the same symptoms as were noticeable in the cows just before they died and the result was that the hogs were soon numbered with the dead. A dog belonging on the place ate some of the meat off the carcasses of the cows, and it, too, died of the same strange disease.—Auburn Herald.

A new fakir is abroad in the rural regions. He drives through the country and sells soap worth $5 a box, which sum includes the price of forty yards of carpet, selected from samples which he has in his wagon. He takes the $5, leaves the box of soap, promises to deliver the carpet of the selected sample within a week and drives away. The soap is worth probably fifty cents. It stays with the purchaser. The carpet is worth probably $15, but it stays with the fakir and has not yet been delivered to a single victim. Farm families should be on their guard against this new fakir and against all other fakirs.—Ex.

George B. Moore, for over eleven years editor of the Granger, died at the home of his sister at Webster Corners, Maine, August 23rd, 1900, aged 69 years, 9 months and 5 days. Mr. Moore was a resident of Nemaha county for eighteen years. He was an able man and one of the best editors in the state. He moved to Boston in 1886. He was a brother of A. Moore of Auburn.

Mrs. Henry Field, of Shenandoah, Iowa, arrived at Bracken Friday morning on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. P. Thompson—her first visit home since her marriage, four months ago, and she was beginning to get a little homesick.

Congressman Burkett has begun to earn his campaign for re-election. Everywhere he goes he receives a veritable ovation. Two years ago he was a comparative stranger in the district but his frank and honest methods soon won for him the favor of the people and his majority was phenomenal. He never resorts to abuse or falsification. He has hosts of friends in all parties who are working for his re-election. Every man who supported him two years ago is proud of the fact and is glad to do so again. His record in congress has strengthened the faith of the people in him.
