For integrity and all that goes to make up a good citizen it would be difficult to select more representative men than those on the republican county ticket.

John Kempthorne, Will and Dan Maxwell are surely staunch republicans. They drove to Auburn Monday morning, through the rain, to hear and see our next vice president.

All our farmer readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer we this year make, which includes with this paper The Iowa Homestead, its Special Farmers' Institute editions, The Poultry Farmer, and The Farmers' Mutual Insurance Journal. These four publications are the best of their class and should be in every farm home. To them we add for local, county and general news our own paper and make the price for the five for one year $1.35. Never before was so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The four papers named which we club with our own are well known throughout the west and commend themselves to the reader's favorable attention upon mere mention. The Homestead is the great agricultural and live stock paper of the west. The Poultry Farmer is the most practical poultry paper for the farmer published in the country; The Farmers' Mutual Insurance Journal is the special advocate of farmers' co-operative associations, and the Special Farmers' Institute editions are the most practical publications for the promotion of good farming ever published. Take advantage of this great offer.

The condition of James A. Titus remains about the same. He is confined to his bed, not having been able to sit up for eight months, but does not suffer a great deal. He is always pleased to see his old friends.

William Russell is eighty years old but he can beat any of the younger men fishing. He fishes with hook and line and has caught one hundred and two fish this week—all of them a nice size and some weighing three, four and six pounds each.

Old Settlers Meeting.
The annual meeting of the Old Settlers association for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting will be held at The Advertiser office at 3 p. m. on Saturday, Oct. 13th. Every old settler who came to Nebraska previous to its admission as a state is invited to be present.

Dr. W. F. Lee, a former citizen of Brownville but who has been living in Beatrice for twelve or thirteen years, got into a difficulty with a hack driver by the name of Will Hurn last Sunday and shot Hurn, inflicting what was at first pronounced a fatal wound. The quarrel was over a bill presented by Lee for treating Hurn's wife. It is now thought Hurn will recover and the doctor has been released on bail.

G. N. Titus probably gives employment to more persons than any other one man in Nemaha county, and every one of them, man, woman, boy or girl, has a good word to say for Nat Titus. If the election was left to them Nat would go in by a unanimous vote. The many customers of the Titus Nursery and the fruit farm embrace all opportunities to speak a good word for Nat Titus. The strongest democrat or populist can say nothing truthfully against his character. He is a clean, honorable, intelligent business man—just the kind of men we need in the legislature.
