The Curtis Dramatic Co. stopped over last Saturday night and gave another play at the opera house. This company is a good one and will get good houses if they should ever come back.

Little Marie Woodward got the large finger on the right hand badly crushed last Friday. Mrs. Woodward was wringing out some clothes and Marie got her finger caught in the cogs. The nail was taken off and the flesh ground to a pulp.

As the form for the last page of the paper was being lifted on the press last Saturday morning it slipped through to the floor and was "pied." We concluded that page had gone democratic, so we sent the paper out with the last page blank.

Last Saturday we received a copy of the Sheffield (England) daily Telegraph of October 23rd from Hon. Church Howe, who is the consul at that place. In another column may be found an article copied from the Telegraph.

The first quarterly meeting for this conference year will be held at the Methodist church in Nemaha on Saturday, Nov. 17th, at 3 o'clock p. m. and on Sunday at 11 o'clock. It is expected that Dr. Peter VanFleet, presiding elder, will be with us.

Mrs. Woodward raised the champion crop of pumpkins this year. One vine came up in the spring and was let grow. Last week Mrs. Woodward gathered the crop and got fifteen great big yellow pumpkins and left one on the vine that had not ripened.

Wonder if those candidates who predicted that if McKinley was elected we would have no more fourth of July celebrations and no more presidential elections don't feel rather silly when they remember what they said and see what effect it had upon the voters.

On one subject the voters of all parties in Nemaha agreed upon Tuesday and that was that the Methodist people provided the best dinner and supper for 15 cents each that they had ever eaten. One hundred and nineteen meals were served and there were plenty of good things left.

S. Grey Howe, of Beatrice, a former newspaper man but who is now traveling for a Chicago house, gave this office a social call Wednesday afternoon. We made the acquaintance of Mr. Howe about fifteen years ago when both of us lived in South Auburn, and we were pleased to meet him again.

Albert R. Titus has rented the John Skeen farm of fifty-five acres joining Nemaha on the northwest and will put in forty acres of apple seedlings next year. He had in about 22 acres of seedlings this year and made money on them but believes with the experience he has had he can do much better next year.

In June the editor helped Mrs. R. I. Brown and Mrs. Woodward rescue a little chicken that had fallen into a small hole about four feet deep. Mrs. Brown, who owned the chicken, promised us that when it got big enough she would invite us over to help eat it and she kept her promise last Sunday. Of course we enjoyed the feast.

We will send The Advertiser for one year and the Farm Journal until Jan. 1st, 1901, for only $1, if paid in advance. This offer applies to both old and new subscribers.

Big Republican Gains

Nemaha Precinct Surprises Everybody.

How the Election resulted in Nemaha.

There was a greater interest taken in the election in Nemaha on Tuesday than has been the case for four years at least. Special efforts were made to get out every vote, and very few escaped, with the result that 238 votes were cast. It was after one o'clock before the canvass was completed. The following are the votes and pluralities received, the name of the republican candidates being given first:

McKinley electors, 136; Bryan electors, 94; mid road populist electors, 1. Plurality for McKinley, 42.

Governor—Dietrich 125; Poynter 97; Jones 2; Flick 1; Dietrich's plurality 28.

Lieutenant governor—Savage 130; Gilbert 93; Lawson 1; Reiter 1; Savage's plurality 37.

Secretary of state—Marsh 131; Svoboda 94; Whitney 2; Starkey 1; Marsh's plurality 37.

Auditor—Weston 132; Griess 93; Brodie 2; Taylor 1; Weston's plurality 39.

Treasurer—Stuefer 130; Howard 94; Crowell 1; Tipton 1; Stuefer's plurality 42.

Superintendent—Fowler 134; Beck 93; Blain 1; Mrs. Kellie 1; Fowler's plurality 41.

Attorney general—Prout 130; Oldham 93; Strong 2; Stevens 1. Prout's plurality 37.

Land commissioner—Follmer 132; Carey 91; Hickman 1; Salmon 2. Follmer's plurality 41.

Congressman—Berkett 119; Berge 84; Davies 1; Brewster 1. Berkett's plurality 35.

Preference for U. S. senator—Rosewater 31; scattering 26.

State senator—Berlet 127; Burress 93. Berlet's majority 34.

Float representative—Beethe 120; Grist 82. Beethe's majority 38.

Representatives—Armstrong 131; Titus 127; Hawxby 101; McCarty 77. Armstrong's majority over Hawxby, 30; over McCarty, 44; Titus' majority over Hawxby, 26; over McCarty, 40.

County attorney—McIninch 136; Quackenbush 95. McIninch's majority 41.

Assessor—Minick 124; Anderson 84. Minick's majority 40.

Constables, to fill vacancy—Titus 138; Minick 126; Thompson 83. Titus' majority 55; Minick's majority 43.

Road overseers—Dist. 32, May 29; Stillwell 14, May's majority 15.

Dist. 33, Devors 18; Stiers 15. Devors' majority 4.

Dist. 34, Russell 22; Hawxby 27. Russell's majority 5.

Four years ago McKinley carried the precinct by 24. In 1897 Post, for supreme judge, got 20 plurality. In 1898 Hayward got 18 plurality. In 1899 the precinct went fusion, Holcomb getting a plurality of 2. This year McKinley gets a plurality of 42.

The greatest surprise in this precinct was the vote received by G. N. Titus. It is recognized by all that the form of the ticket caused him to lose many votes. Many who voted a straight republican ticket did not think when they voted about there being two members of the legislature to elect, and as Armstrong's name came first they voted for him. McCarty, on the fusion ticket, suffered the same way, running 17 votes behind his ticket. With the old style ticket Mr. Titus would have received the largest vote of any man on the ticket, and would have been elected by a good big majority.

Auburn will Ratify.

A grand ratification meeting will be held at Auburn Saturday night. Hon. Frank Martin of Falls City and other speakers will make addresses, there will be a parade headed by the flambeau club, fireworks and a big time generally. A special invitation is extended to all republicans of the county to be present.

Mrs. Sylvester Yates fell and was badly hurt Wednesday. She was assisting Mrs. Pearl Larimore clean up the Cooper place and stepped on a board in the yard each end of which rested on stones. One end of the board slipped off the stone and Mrs. Yates was thrown to the ground, hurting her hip and knee. She was carried in the house and afterward carried over home on a cot. She suffers severely from her injuries.

If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea so common to small children. O. P. M. Holliday of Deeming, Ind., who has an eleven months' old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once." For sale by Keeling.

Stor of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D Williams of Manchester, Mich., says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work. This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. It is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Cure guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by W. W. Keeling, druggist.
