DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid, troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

J. L. Speece will have a public sale at his residence, five miles northeast of Shubert, next Tuesday, selling cattle, mules, hogs, chickens, farm implements, 8 tons of hay, household furniture, etc., etc.

John Russell has bought the Grandma Skeen property where he is now living. He is going to tear down the old brick house on the farm and use much of the material in repairing and improving the house where he is now living.

John G. Sanders has started a newspaper at Clutier, Tama county, Iowa—the Clutier Record—the first copy of which reached us Tuesday. Clutier is a new town only five months old, on a new line of railroad in a thickly settled community, is nine miles from any other town, and all kinds of business are well represented from a national bank to a blacksmith shop. The Record starts out with a good patronage. John is a good newspaper man and will give the people of Clutier a live paper.

One year ago Wm. Rossell and Mrs. J. B. Berger spent Thanksgiving in Galveston, Texas. Of the ten who took dinner together on that day only three are now living. The company consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Berger, W. L. Berger, their son, his wife, baby boy and father-in-law, Mr. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Lorraine, Ethel Parker and Mr. Rossell. Mr. Elliott died a short time after that, Mr. Berger died in February, and W. L. Berger, wife and baby, Mrs. Lorraine and Ethel Parker were drowned in the great storm at Galveston September 8th.

Tom Meeham, who is working for Tom Hiatt, had a narrow escape from being killed last Saturday. Tom and John Seeley were hauling lumber from the depot. They were going after a load, having no bed on the wagon, and Tom, who was driving, was standing on the front bolster or houn, when the pin holding the coupling pole came out and the wagon came uncoupled. Tom was thrown forward and one foot was caught in some way. The horses became frightened and ran, dragging Tom on the ground. They were just west of the bridge near the depot. When the wheels struck the railroad track they jumped three or four feet in the air. The horses ran into the gate going into the meadow east of the depot and this stopped them, though every board in the gate was broken. Tom was badly bruised and jarred but no bones were broken and it is thought he will be all right in a short time.

Everybody Can Afford It

There was a time when many families could not afford to take a daily paper, but now that the Lincoln Evening News is sent by mail at the cheap rate of 25 cents a month, the daily paper with all its advantages is within the reach of every family, and the reduction in price has brought The News several thousand new subscribers. The News is printed at the state capital, the fountain head of news events, and with its eight big pages, with markets, telegraph and state news makes it one of the brightest papers in Nebraska. It's worth more but it only costs you 25 cents a month. Why not have The Lincoln News visit you during the long winter months now coming on You can subscribe through your postmaster or The Advertiser office or send your order to The Lincoln Daily News, Lincoln, Neb.

The Advertiser and the St. Louis Globe Democrat both one year for only $1.60.

Mr. Albert B. Titus and Miss Mellinger Minick were united in marriage Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th, 1900. The wedding took place in the Methodist Episcopal church. At 8 o'clock the wedding march was played by Miss Emma Crim and the bride and groom took their places at the altar. Rev. Albert V. Wilson pronounced the ceremony that made them husband and wife. After congratulations from the friends Mr. and Mrs. Titus repaired to the residence of the bride's mother and partook of the elegant supper prepared for the occasion. Many handsome presents were received.

The young couple are among the very best and most popular of our young people. Mr. Titus is a son of James A. Titus, and is an energetic, enterprising young man. The bride has been teacher of the primary department of the Nemaha school for over three years and is one of the most efficient teachers in the county. Both the bride and groom were born in this county and grew to manhood and womanhood here. They have their furniture bought and are preparing to go to housekeeping. The Advertiser adds congratulations and best wishes to those of the host of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Titus.

Married—At the residence of Dr. H. S. Gaither, Nemaha, Nebr., Thursday evening, November 29th, 1900, by Rev. E. S. Chamberlain, Mr. W. M. Hartley, of Bolckow, Mo., and Miss Jennie Calvin, of Nemaha, Nebr.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the wedding march was played by Miss Maye Gaither and the bride and groom took their places in the parlor, the short but impressive ceremony was performed, and they were pronounced husband and wife. After congratulations by the assembled guests a sumptuous supper was partaken of. Thirty-five guests were present. A large number of handsome presents, principally fine china and silverware, were received.

Mr. Hartley is a hardware merchant of Bolckow, a young man respected by all who know him. Mrs. Hartley is a niece of Mrs. Gaither and has made her home with her for several years. She has won the respect and love of a large number of acquaintances during her residence in Nemaha. We extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Hartley for a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley started for Bolckow Friday afternoon. Friends showered rice upon them as they got on the train.

ANDERSON & BROWN

Are making a specialty of

just now. If you haven't been in their store recently you will be surprised at the large stock of holiday goods they carry and still more surprised at the low prices. It is their intention to carry so large and varied a stock and make such low prices that there will be no good reason for any one going away from Nemaha to buy holiday goods. In the line of Chinaware they have some elegant designs. There are dainty little cups and saucers so thin you can see through them; moustache cups; sets of plate, cup and saucer; tea sets; novelties in shaving mugs; cigar and tobacco sets; and a whole lot of novel designs of different kinds. They have a large line of Silverware—some handsome mugs, cups and saucers, card receivers, powder boxes, etc., etc. Celluloid jewelry boxes, handkerchief boxes, glove boxes, cuff and collar boxes, etc. Fancy baskets. Albums. Books. Dolls. Toys. Jewelry. Watches. Pictures. And a whole lot of what Sam calls "pretty things."

They invite all to pay them a visit before buying holiday goods. If they dont have just what you want they can order it.
