Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.
If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail,

Fred Smith had an experience with an overcoat thief last week. He was in Auburn one evening when a nice looking old gentleman asked him to buy a fur overcoat. He offered the coat for $2.50 and as it was a good coat Fred bought it. He soon learned that the coat belonged to John McCarty and had been stolen from his office.
A warrant was issued and the old man was arrested at Falls City and taken back to Auburn. Fred has gone out of the overcoat business.

NOTICE

No. 109. This is 480 acres unimproved, located two miles from depot in Red Cloud, Neb. It has about 120 acres in cultivation, 10 acres in alfalfa and balance in grass. Plenty of timber for fencing and shedding, school house at corner of place. This is all good soil and what is not in cultivation is very best of grass land. Owner also claims to have living water on the place. We are able to offer this farm at the present time for $5500, which is a thousand dollars less than heretofore offered for.
This is certainly a great bargain and no one will object to the price after seeing the farm. It will pay you to investigate this at once. For further information please call on or address D. J. MYERS, Red Cloud, Neb.

Santa Claus.

BY J. FRANK DAY.

This is our Christmas festival.
'Twas made for girls and boys;
When "Santa" comes to scatter His famous Xmas toys.

Away in Scandinavia
He's called the "Zulu man;"
And they say he packs his presents To little Fritz and Yan.

With reindeer and on sledges He skims the country o'er;
And leaves his yuletide treasures At every "Flika's" door.

Far off in sunny Deutschland "Kris Kringle" is his name;
And to all the little "kinders" Old Kris is one of fame.

But here in grand Nebraska We call him "Santa Claus;"
For such is the tradition Taught by our pa's and ma's.

I thought to get my stockings full Of candy, nuts and toys;
And all the little gimcracks That please girls and boys

Yet I'd rather have them here displayed Upon this Christmas tree Than to have them in my stocking Where none but homefolks see.

I've tried to be a good girl, too,
And mind my mama true;
Yet this is very hard sometimes For little folks to do.

But I'm getting quite impatient now Old Santa Claus to see,
As I think he's nung a present For Cora on this tree.

FOR HOMES OF TASTE.

The famous old Delineator, which for 27 years has occupied a unique position in the American magazine world makes a great departure with the January number, just out, by printing a prospectus of what will appear in the twelve issues for 1901. With The De-lineator in the house half a million practical women know that they have the very latest dress news at hand, set forth in such a way that by her own needle each woman can keep up to date positively and inexpensively. The science of housekeeping the care of children in sickness and in health, the art of living and of living well, a life progressive in a home beautiful—of all these things The Delineator is acknowledged to be the best exponent in the world.

Rev. J. B. Carns, state superintendent of the anti-saloon league, gave a lecture at the Methodist church Thursday night. The church was fairly well filled and good attention was given the speaker, who gave a good lecture. An organization was effected with about forty members. The following officers were elected:

- President—Dr. W. W. Keeling.
- Secretary—W. H. Dressler.
- Treasurer—Miss Lillian Minick.
- Agitation committee—W. W. Sanders, F. L. Woodward, H. D. Beebe.
- Legislative committee—Rev. John T. Smith, W. V. Steuteville.
- Enforcement committee—Rev. A. V.
Wilson, John Watson, Walter Hadlock.
- Enrollment committee—Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Gaither.
- Financial committee—Mrs. Brown, Miss Nora Aynes.
- State collector—Miss Florence Minick.

The initial number of The Designer for 1901 from cover to cover is replete with helpful matters of interest, to feminine readers in particular. The winter fashions and millinery are charmingly set forth in artistic colors and in black and white, and the many other illustrations are of equal merit.
Designs of great originality for masquerade and fancy costumes are given in this issue, and Points on Dressmaking contains the valuable and seasonable advice commenced in December on the Making of Fur Garments. There are three capital and entirely new ideas given for holiday entertainment, viz.: A New-Fashioned Candy Pull, An Exposition Evening and An End of the Century Party. There are three short stories, Aunt Maria's Castaway, The Finger of Duty, and Jack Frost, the last a tale for the little folks. The parlor comedy this month is How Kate Proposed, and it may be performed effectively by amateurs without the aid of special scenery or costumes. A very attractive illustrated article is Some New Dinner Cards, which will undoubtedly prove of great value to the holiday hostess. Congenial Fields for Women Workers treats this month of the woman designer. The regular departments of Fashion and Fabrics, Florisculture, For Health and Beauty, Book Notes, Knitting and Crocheting, House Furnishing, Among Ourselves, The Kindergarten in the Home, Etiquette, Nursery Lore, Household Advice, and Cookery are, as usual, timely, interesting and instructive.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the result in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. S. W. Gardner of Idaville, Ind., says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he don't care whether he lives or dies. It gave me new strength and appetite. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Keeling's drug store.
Every bottle guaranteed.

The Youth's Companion in 1901.

The ends of the earth will be laid under tribute for the 1901 volume of The Youth's Companion. Statesmen, Diplomats, Travelers, Trappers, Indian Fighters, Cow-Punchers and Self-Made Men and Women of Many Vocations will contribute to the entertainment of young and old in Companion homes.
Theodore Roosevelt will write upon "The Essence of Heroism." The Secretary of the Treasury will answer the question, "What is Money?" Frank T. Bullen, the old sailor who spins fascinating yarns of life at sea, will contribute a story. W. D. Howells will describe the relation between "Young Contributors and Editors." Paul Leicester Ford will write about "The Man of the Dictionary"—Noah Webster.
There is not space here to begin to tell of the good things already provided for readers of the new volume of The Youth's Companion—interesting instructive, inspiring—from the pens of famous men and women.

Illustrated announcement of the volume for 1901 will be sent free to any address, with sample copies of the paper.

All new subscribers who send in their subscription now will receive not only the 52 issues of The Companion for 1901, but also all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1900 free from the time of subscription, besides the beautiful "Puritan Girl" Calendar for 1901, lithographed in 12 colors and gold.

ANDERSON & BROWN

Are making a specialty of

HOLIDAY : GOODS

just now. If you haven't been in their store recently you will be surprised at the large stock of holiday goods they carry and still more surprised at the low prices. It is their intention to carry so large and varied a stock and make such low prices that there will be no good reason for any one going away from Nemaha to buy holiday goods. In the line of Chinaware they have some elegant designs. There are dainty little cups and saucers so thin you can see through them; moustache cups; sets of plate, cup and saucer; tea sets; novelties in shaving mugs; cigar and tobacco sets; and a whole lot of novel designs of different kinds. They have a large line of Silverware—some handsome mugs, cups and saucers, card receivers, powder boxes, etc., etc. Celluloid jewelry boxes, handkerchief boxes, glove boxes, cuff and collar boxes, etc. Fancy baskets. Albums. Books. Dolls. Toys. Jewelry. Watches. Pictures. And a whole lot of what Sam calls "pretty things."

They invite all to pay them a visit before buying holiday goods. If they dont have just what you want they can order it.
