

Nebraska Advertiser.

Journal

VOLUME XLV

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1901.

NUMBER 49

Local News

Call on us for job work.
See Hill & Keeling for fire insurance
Dr. W. I. Seymour, No. 1219 K st., Lincoln, Neb.
The O'Brien wagon sold and guaranteed by Chambers & Hiatt.
Fine line of lap dusters and fly nets just received at Hiatt's harness shop.
Dr. Harlan, osteopath, graduate of A. T. Still school, Office in Auburn. Consultation free. 6-7

Mrs. Rebecca Berger returned from Auburn Saturday.
Nelson Hadlock returned from St. Joe the latter part of last week.
Clyde Hill went to Stella Friday morning to visit friends for a few days.
Mrs. Rosina Wheeler went to Auburn Thursday to visit her son, T. W. Wheeler.
Tom Hiatt and Dick Chambers started for Woodward, Oklahoma, Tuesday.
See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

Miss Nellie Sanders has been visiting her cousin, Miss Roxie Parker, at Auburn, this week.
An ice cream festival will be given at the Larkin school house Friday night of this week.
Rowen & Webb have bought a new separator—the Avery. They also got in two car loads of coal.
Miss Hazel and Master Harry Parker visited their aunt, Mrs. W. W. Sanders, from Sunday until Tuesday.
Mrs. H. S. Gaither, Mrs. Maye and Miss Lela returned from Doniphan, Kansas, Wednesday morning.

MRS. THEO. HILL
IS HAVING A
GRAND CLOSING OUT SALE OF Summer Millinery

Miss Grace Bready, of Lincoln, is visiting her brother, J. C. Broady, and friends in Nemaha and vicinity. She came Monday.
Herbert Aynes returned to Nemaha last Saturday. Herb does not feel at home away from Nemaha. He doesn't like it at Sargent.
Master Claude Thurman, who has been visiting his uncle, F. L. Woodward, for two or three weeks, returned to his home at Atchison, Kansas, Monday.
F. L. McNowan was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday and Wednesday. He has been engaged for another year as principal of the Athens ward school at Auburn.
The children's day exercises that were to have been given at the Methodist church next Sunday night have been given up on account of the small-pox scare.
Wm. Daniels and Mrs. Jennie Cliff returned from Oklahoma Monday. They were both well pleased with the country and each bought a quarter section of land.
Mrs. Ed E. Sanders and children, of Albany, Mo., who have been visiting Mrs. J. M. Sanders, of London precinct, came to Nemaha Thursday and are visiting the editor and family.

Our postmistress, Miss Lillian Minick, took a vacation Thursday and went over to the Nishna to fish, in company with Misses Ethelle and Grace Paris and their father, Arthur B. Paris.
Miss Ethelle Paris closed her school in the Fairview district Friday of last week. The pupils and patrons had a picnic on that day. Miss Ethelle has been engaged to teach the school another year.
The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gaskill, of Aspinwall precinct, was buried in the Nemaha cemetery Wednesday. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. V. Wilson preached the sermon.
Gilbert & McCandless received a car load of flour from the Crete mills Thursday morning. There were 400 sacks of the celebrated Victor high patent spring wheat flour, the balance of the car load being Coronet flour and corn meal.
Thursday was Woodmen of the World decoration day and was appropriately observed in Nemaha. The graves of Charles A. Titus and Lew Mather, the deceased sovereigns, were covered with flowers by the Woodmen. Many other graves were also decorated with flowers by loving friends.

FOR YOUR
FOURTH OF JULY HATS
Go to
MRS. SEDORAS, at NEMAHA.
She is selling everything at way down figures.
A Few Sample Prices:
Children's Hats, worth $2.00, only $1.25
Beautiful Turbans, worth $4.00, only $2.50
Ladies' Leghorns, nicely trimmed, only $2.50
A good line of cheaper Hats, from 98 cents to $2.25
Street Hats, worth $1.00 to $1.50, for 75 cents and $1.00
A nice line of Children's Hats as low as 50 cts. trimmed
No Old Stock. Everything Fresh and the Latest Styles.
The patronage of the ladies of Nemaha and vicinity is solicited. Call and be convinced that her stock is the best and her prices the lowest.

Eugene Howe, who has been visiting at Springfield and Omaha for a few days, returned home Tuesday.
Miss Roxie Parker, of Auburn, was the guest of her cousin, Miss Nellie Sanders, Saturday and Sunday.
The editor was unfortunate enough to have a fine Jersey cow die from clover bloat Thursday evening.
Mrs. Lillie Walsh returned to Lincoln Monday, after a two weeks' visit with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Hoover.
Seymour Howe is quite sick with stomach trouble and typho-malarial fever, but is thought to be a little better.
Will S. Jay, representing the Lincoln State Journal and the Lincoln Evening News, gave us a social call Friday morning.
Have your watches and clocks repaired by a competent jeweler at Glasgow & Co.'s.
Ice cream freezers—best in the market—for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

To the Citizens of Nemaha and Vicinity:

Having bought the stock of General Merchandise of Glasgow & Co., I desire to assure the citizens of Nemaha and vicinity that I am

HERE TO STAY.

I have leased the store room for Five Years and will stay with you

I appreciate the liberal patronage given when I was here, and ask for its continuance. The same courteous treatment will be given customers, and prices will at all times be the lowest.

Call and see me, whether you want to buy anything or not.

L. H. BATTLES

NEMAHA,

NEBRASKA