

Advertiser Supplement

Brownville Locals

It rained and the next night it rained again.

Mrs. Alice A. Minick visited Peru Tuesday.

Maud Slack was shopping in Nemaha Saturday.

What's the matter of enforcing the Sunday closing law?

Willie Kauffman spent Sunday in Peru with his brother, John.

Eph Loyd bought a new buggy from the Vandeventers Tuesday.

Miss Kelso, of Iowa, is making her brother John and family a visit.

Willie and Jennie Christie went to Johnson Wednesday to spend the summer.

The home team was defeated in a match game of ball at Peru memorial day.

Mrs. Robertson and children are visiting Mrs. Robertson's parents at at Peru this week.

Quite a number of our colored population went up to Nebraska City to make their future home.

There are gold bricks and Auditorium bricks and the Brownvillians are selling strawberry bricks.

F. O. Fritz dined on new potatoes the 30th and A. Vandevanter the 31st, being the first of the season.

Dr. P. VanFleet, presiding elder, preached Saturday night and Sunday morning at the M. E. church.

Mr. Aynes went to Kansas City Wednesday to consult a specialist about a cancerous growth on his face.

Is the sanitary condition of the town such that smallpox could be handled properly if here? We understand there are two cases in Nemaha.

Professor Barrett and his sister boarded the Saturday evening train for Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

Dad Andrews has had the streets mowed fronting his property. "Go and do thou likewise"

Ex-Gov. and Mrs. Furnas visited over Sunday with their old friend, J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska City.

Charlie Shantz, who has been visiting the parental home the past week, took his departure for Beatrice Friday.

Brownville has some lady singers of whom she is justly proud as all can testify who attended the memorial day exercises.

Miss Leora Woodworth, of Exeter, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. E. Vandeventer, returned to her home Friday.

Oscar F. Scovill, of Nemaha, stayed over night here Tuesday night, crossing over to Phelps, Mo., Wednesday, enroute to Oregon.

Two of our young men were up before Police Judge Clayton Monday and received a fine of $10 and costs for disturbing the peace.

Children's day was observed at the Christian church Sunday evening. A splendid program was given and a generous offering taken for mission work.

Miss Haslet, a representative of the M. E. hospital of Omaha, came in town Tuesday to solicit supplies. She stopped over night with Rev. A. V. Wilson.

The Methodist brethren are being criticized by some parties for bringing one of their members to trial for signing a saloon petition but our motto should be "Purge the temple."

Mrs. McClary, who has been a patient sufferer for so many months,

(OVER)