Fine line of lap dusters and fly nets just received at Hiatt's harness shop.

Dr. Ebnother and daughter Theora left Monday for their home in Downs Kansas.

Have your watches and clocks repaired by a competent jeweler at Batties'.

A great many of our farmers are busy harvesting. Grain is ripening very fast.

The Advertiser and the St. Louis Globe Democrat both one year for only $1.60.

Miss Minnie Yates went to Nishna, Mo., Tuesday to visit relatives for a week or two.

Dr. Harlan, osteopath, graduate of A. T. Still school, Office in Auburn Consultation free. 6-7

Mr. Robison, of Hickman is visiting his brother, L. L. Robison, the B. & M. section foreman.

T. W. Wheeler, of Auburn, visited his mother, Mrs. Rosina Wheeler, Wednesday and Thursday.

E. S. and A. R. McCandless went to Omaha Monday. Ally returned on Thursday and Swift on Friday.

Theodore Hill, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Stella for the past two weeks, returned home Sunday.

Miss Grace Paris was on Monday night elected teacher of the Kennedy school, two and one-half miles north-west of Brownville.

A future harvest hand in the person of an eight pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Workman on last Wednesday evening.

W. E. Seid, Charley Scovill, Fred Hoover and the editor have been putting in their time acting as jurors for a couple of weeks. They don't like the experience.

W. T. Mudd, of Auburn, is assisting in L. H. Batties' store this week, while Mr. Batties is helping his wife and daughter move and get the household goods in proper order.

If you want to have a good time on the 4th of July, come to Nemaha. There will be no long-winded speeches from politicians, but plenty of music, recitations, etc., the finest shade anywhere, cool water, etc.

L. H. Batties moved his family and household goods from Auburn to Nemaha this week. He occupies the Judge Stull property. The house has been repainted inside, every room repaired, a cistern dug, and other improvements made.

We missed a good job Friday morning by being at Auburn. Henry Clark called to get us to shock wheat, but as we were not at home he was reluctantly compelled to get another hand.

BURLINGTON ROUTE—Holiday Rates.
July 3 and 4—between stations not more than two hundred miles apart. Return limit, July 5.
Minimum rate 50 cents.

Bessie Anderson, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Fox, at South Auburn, returned home Monday. She had a severe attack of diphtheria but is entirely well now, though still somewhat weak.

J. Ben Rief, who was charged with attempted rape upon the ten-year old daughter of J. R. Dailey, plead guilty in district court Tuesday afternoon and was sentenced to five years at hard labor in the penitentiary. He certainly got off very easy.

G. N. Titus had a case of raspberries fall off the load he was taking to the depot Monday morning. One wheel of the buggy ran over the case, totally wrecking it and ruining all the berries. Nat says he has been hauling berries for thirteen years but this is his first experience of this kind.

The jury at this session of district court is the first one in the history of the county that had as a member a "gentleman of color." Albert Brown, of Brownville, a colored gentleman, is on the regular panel. He sat on his first case Wednesday—the case of the State of Nebraska vs. Taylor Adams, charged with illegal voting.

We desire to extend our most heartfelt thanks to the kind friends and neighbors who so nobly helped us during the long illness and death of our darling Clarence. Only heaven can reward such kindness and may each one receive heaven's rich blessings.

J. F. EBNOTHER
MINNIE EBNOTHER.

A few of the Nemaha ladies spent a very pleasant day at Mrs. George Yackley's last Wednesday. Quilting was the order of the day but I think the hardest work was done about high noon at the table with things too numerous to mention. We would be very much pleased if Mrs. Yackley would have another quilting in the near future. One who was there.

Conductor Cronkhite narrowly escaped a bad fall Tuesday afternoon. As the train got even with the depot platform the conductor stepped down on the lower step and it broke. Fortunately he had hold of the railing, but came near falling, and might have received serious injuries, as the train had not yet stopped.

The case of Miss Grace McGrew vs. the town of Peru, in which Miss McGrew sued the town for $10,000 damages for injuries received in March, 1893, on account of a defective sidewalk, was decided Tuesday night in favor of the plaintiff, but the damages were assessed at $500. This is the fifth trial of this case, and of course this verdict was a compromise one.

A Holiday in California.
A month in California is an education of the best kind. It will give you new ideas, sharpen your powers of observation, bring you into contact with people who regard life from an unusual standpoint. Go there next July—at the time of the Fourth League meeting in San Francisco. Never will you have a better opportunity. Never have the rates been so low. Think of it—$45 for a round trip ticket from Omaha to San Francisco. Less than the regular one-way rate. Stop-overs allowed both going and returning. Tickets good to return until August 31. Beautifully illustrated folder, giving full information, mailed on request. J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Ag't, Omaha, Neb.

Just Saved His Life
It was a thrilling escape that Charles avis of Bowerston, O., lately had from a frightful death. For two years a severe lung trouble constantly grew worse until it seemed he must die of Consumption.  George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by W W Keeling.
