Call at Keeling's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are an elegant physic. They also improve the appetite, strengthen the digestion and regulate the liver and bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H. J. Stickfaden, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash. For sale by W. W. Keeling.

A Practicing Physician in Monticello, Ill., formulated Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Ask at Keeling's drug store.

Old Settlers' Picnic Saturday, Aug. 17.

It has been decided to hold the annual reunion and picnic of the Old Settlers' Association at Nemaha on Saturday, August 17th. Ex-Gov. R. W. Furnas, president of the association, has been appointed the committee to procure speakers, which insures first class talent. F. L. Woodward is the committee on stand rights.

Sam Anderson went to Auburn on the 1 o'clock freight Monday afternoon, took the M. P. train for South Omaha, getting there about six o'clock, drove nine miles to Papillon, transacted some business, drove back to South Omaha, caught the M. P. train for Nebraska City, and Tuesday forenoon got back to Nemaha on the 9:40 passenger train. It was a quick trip.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by W. W. Keeling.
