Married—At the residence of the bride's mother, Auburn, Nebraska, on Wednesday, July 10, 1901, by the Rev.
 W. Dieffenbach, Mr. James E. McClain to Miss Lillie M. Cannedy, both of Auburn, Neb.

The members of the school board met at the school house Monday night and reorganized the board as follows: President—John R. Russell.
 Secretary—W. W. Sanders.
 Treasurer—Ora J. Thorp.

A number of ladies met at the residence of Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover Tuesday night to make arrangements for a musical for the benefit of Miss Emma Crim. It was decided to have the entertainment Saturday evening, July 27th, at the opera house. Miss Emma has always given her assistance so cheerfully whenever called upon that the people feel like showing their appreciation of her efforts in this way.
 An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged. Reserved seats 15 cents.
 Further particulars will be given next week.

'Gene Combs has a host of friends in this vicinity who will regret to learn that 'Gene is now an inmate of the insane asylum at Lincoln. He was taken there Wednesday of last week. His affliction was caused by being overheated. We have not learned as to the chances for his recovery but hope that the affliction is only temporary and that he will soon be restored to his right mind.

Since the above was in type we had a brief conversation with Mr. Blankinship, of Peru, father-in-law of Mr.
 Combs, and infer from what he says that the chances are against 'Gene's recovery. His physical condition is very bad. He has been under a physician's care for over a year, and has steadily grown worse. It is a sad case.

Died—Naoma Daugherty, at the home of her son, John Daugherty, in Brownville, Nebraska, July 11, 1901, aged 84 years, 7 months and 25 days.
 Grandma was a widow of over forty years. She was the mother of ten children, six of whom survive her.
 She had been in poor health for years.
 Her last sickness was about eight weeks. The deceased first joined the Presbyterian church when 34 years of age, and six years later united with the M. E. church, and has continued a member of that organization since that time, but for the past few years was unable, owing to poor health, to attend church. She died trusting in Jesus.
 The funeral was held at the residence July 12th, at 3 p. m., conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. V. Wilson. The remains were interred at Brownville.

A Holiday in California.
 A month in California is an education of the best kind.
 It will give you new ideas, sharpen your powers of observation, bring you into contact with people who regard life from an unusual standpoint.

Go there next July—at the time of the Epworth League meeting in San Francisco.
 Never will you have a better opportunity. Never have the rates been so low.

Think of it—$45 for a round trip ticket from Omaha to San Francisco.
 Less than the regular one-way rate.
 Stop-overs allowed both going and returning. Tickets good to return until August 31.

Brownville Locals
 Wm. Kauffman made a business trip to Auburn Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lewelling went out to Auburn Saturday.

Mrs. D. E. Vandevanter was visiting Mrs. Sedoras, of Nemaha, Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Quillen went out to Auburn Wednesday with a load of apples.

Mrs. Alice A. Minick and Miss Perle drove up to Peru Monday, returning in the evening.

Grandpa Lewelling and Mrs. C. M.
 Lewelling went to Marysville, Kansas, Monday, to have some dental work done.

Harris Covington, of Chicago, stopped off between trains Tuesday and made his brother, R. C., and family a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. VanDorn, of Ward, Colorado, have been visiting a short time with Mr. VanDorn's parents, John Loyd and wife.

The extremely hot, dry weather is causing people to become languid and depressed. A good rain would be acceptable at present.

Dad Andrews moved into his new house on College and Second streets Wednesday and is now at home in one of the finest houses in Brownville.

The weather crop reports continue to give glowing accounts of the bountiful crop prospects of Nebraska, but the true condition has begun to look very much like 1894 in all that part of the state south of the Platte river.
 Board of trade gamblers please take notice and let wheat advance one or two points.

What might have been a fatal accident happened to old Bro. Aynes down near Shubert a few days ago. He was driving along when without any warning a team dashed up behind him, the tongue of the wagon lifting the seat and buggy top with Bro. Aynes and throwing them to one side of the road, making his horse run away. Besides a few slight cuts and being jarred a little he was otherwise unharmed.

'Squire Clayton gassed his 81st mile stone July 5th, being, it is claimed, the oldest man in town, but there are one or two women a few years older. Mr.
 Clayton came to Brownville when he was but 34 years old, nearly 47 years ago, and is one of the oldest settlers here. He has been identified with the ups and downs of this country through prosperity and adversity. He is one of the few surviving Mexican war veterans. He is in good health and bidfair to see the reborn of July 5th many times yet.

John H. Heddon, the temperance evangelist of Blair, Nebraska, lectured at the M. E. church Sunday and Monday, giving stereopticon views in connection therewith, and gave a complete stereopticon entertainment Tuesday evening, which was the best it was ever our pleasure to witness. Mr.
 Heddon as a lecturer is pleasing and interesting from start to finish and has the faculty that few men possess, of making strong points and doing it so kindly that no one could take offense.
 Mr. Heddon was greeted with a full house each night, and if he ever comes this way again will be greeted by an appreciative people.
