Mrs. E. M. Baker, of Oklahoma, has been visiting Nemaha friends for the past week or ten days.
A member of the Salvation Army was in Nemaha Thursday, soliciting donations for the work.
Mrs. Rebecca Berger went to Auburn Thursday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Parker, for a few days.
Miss Dora Morton begins teaching a school near Brock next Monday—the same school she taught last year.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred August drove down from Brownville Thursday to do some trading with our merchants.
On account of the rain Wednesday the German-American picnic at Auburn was postponed until Saturday.
For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn W. W. Harris prop'r.
Mrs. F. B. Woodward, of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in Nemaha Thursday on a visit to her son, Frank Woodward.
T. A. Clark came home on sick leave last Sunday from Solomon, Kansas. He will rest up awhile before returning to duty.
Mrs. Mattie Grate, of Omaha, came to Nemaha Tuesday afternoon on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark.
Mrs. Florence Jarvis and children, who have been visiting her parents at Wabash, Neb., returned home Wednesday afternoon.
Rev. G. W. Woodbey, of Omaha, a colored gentleman, is holding meetings in the park this week in the interest of the socialist party.
F. G. Hawxy came in from Auburn Tuesday to stay at home a few days under "mother's" care, as he has been about sick ever since he returned from Oklahoma.
J. H. Linn came down from Lincoln a few days ago and is looking after his farm and visiting friends. He shipped twenty-four baskets of fruit up home Thursday.

A small class has been formed for the study of Latin outside of school hours, with Prof. Steuterville as instructor.
Those having trouble with their eyes, ears, nose and throat should consult the noted Dr. Seymour, No. 1116 K street, Lincoln, Neb.
Will Keeling has a very sore hand, caused by snagging in on a rusty nail last Saturday night. It was very painful for a few days but is healing up nicely now.
Go to Miss Eva Able for dressmaking and millinery. New fall stock of millinery just received. All the latest styles and novelties. Prices reasonable. Call and see her stock.
We had a high wind for a few minutes shortly after nine o'clock Wednesday night, and for a little while it had the appearance of a hard storm, but soon quieted down. Very little rain fell.
E. Bordwell, of Nebraska City, auditor of the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co., was in Nemaha Tuesday and Wednesday, looking over the business and planning some additions and improvements thereto.
R. I. Brown is enjoying a visit with two of his Pawnee county friends, L. H. Crouch and R. H. Sanford, who are taking an overland trip through the country for health and enjoyment and stopped off here for a few days' visit.
County Commissioner John Stevenson gave us a social call Friday of last week. John is paying close attention to the roads and bridges in his district just now, as election is near at hand and his term of office expires this fall.
The plate glass in the front of the Anderson store building was badly cracked by the heat in the recent fire. Fortunately Mr. Anderson had the glass insured in a plate glass insurance company and on Monday workmen replaced the glass.
W. H. McInisch, of London precinct, can convince a man that this is the land of the "big red apple." We have in this office an apple raised on his farm that measures 13 inches in circumference. It is said to be of the variety called Wolf River.
The educational rally and picnic at Brownville last Saturday was quite well attended and the exercises were excellent. The addresses of Rev. Mr. Wright and State Superintendent Fowler were fine. The rain interfered considerably with the program.
As Lester and Harry Russell were going home Saturday night they ran off the culvert a half mile north of town, two wheels going into the gutter and turning the buggy upside down. Fortunately the horse did not run. The buggy and harness were broken a little but the damage was very slight.
Rev. A. V. Wilson drove a borrowed horse last Sunday as his horse was in the care of a veterinary. When near the Titus nursery the horse stumbled and fell in a heap. When Mr. Wilson succeeded in getting the horse on his feet again and made an examination he found the crossbar and one shaft broken and the harness damaged. He managed to get to Nemaha, staying here all night, and the next morning by the liberal use of wire patched up the broken places so he thought they would hold together and started for Brownville.
My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it! It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H J Stickfaden, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash. For sale by W W Keeling.
A Practicing Physician in Monticello, Ill., formulated Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Ask at Keelings drug store.

Old Settlers Meeting

The members of the Nemaha County Old Settlers' association are called to meet at The Advertiser office a 3 o'clock p. m. Saturday, September 28th, 1901, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. All residents of Nemaha county who came to Nebraska before its admission as a state, in 1867, are entitled to a vote at this meeting.

NOTICE

Dr. W. W. Spivey, V. S., of Tecumseh, Neb., will be at Knapp's livery barn Sept. 30th for 10 days. The Dr. comes very highly recommended by all who know him. Parties having horses that need the services of a first class veterinary surgeon will do well to see the doctor while here. See small bills.

Read it in His Newspaper.
George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkezeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will bear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by W W Keeling.

Rev. J. J. Pleasant, pastor of the colored Methodist church of Nebraska City, came to Nemaha Wednesday to preach us a sermon, having been invited to come for that purpose, but his audience consisted of only three beside himself, so he concluded there was not such an urgent demand for his presence as the pressing invitation he received would indicate.
Rev. P. C. Johnson, of Holmesville, Neb., Grand Master of the Odd Fellows of this state, came to Nemaha Tuesday to meet with the members of the lodge here and confer with them regarding the advisability of rebuilding their hall. The lodge has virtually decided on building a two-story brick, probably 22x60, and will begin preparations to that end in a few days.

McKinley Shot

Last Friday afternoon the nation was shocked by the news that President McKinley had been shot and badly wounded. A full account is given on an inside page. The last accounts say the president is doing well and is practically out of danger. He is taking nourishment, resting well, and is steadily gaining.
Sam Lawrence has to take the pump out of his well for a queer reason. A few days ago a large bull snake crawled into the well and then into the pump from the bottom, passing the first valve and then getting fast.
Some time ago Newt Jarvis brought suit to have a guardian appointed for his father, I. J. Jarvis, claiming the latter was mentally incapable of transacting business. After several postponements the case was set for trial on Thursday, but before the time arrived Newt concluded to pay the costs and drop the suit. The costs amounted to about $50, besides the attorney fees.
Nemaha has been blessed with preachers this week. On Sunday we had Revs. Smith and Wilson at their regular appointments. On Monday Rev. G. W. Woodbey, of Omaha, a colored brother, began a series of what he calls "socialist gospel meetings" in the park. Wednesday Rev. J. J. Pleasant, a colored brother from Nebraska City, preached in the hall, and Thursday we were visited by a member of the Salvation Army.
September 11, 1901.
I desire the good people of Nemaha to know that I did not come to your town without an invitation. I was invited and insisted upon to come to your town and preach the gospel. I did not come down to solicit money but to preach the word of God. I hope that my visit will not prove detrimental.
Rev. J. J. Pleasant.
662 5th st., Nebraska City, Neb.
PNU, Neb., Sept. 8, 1901.
Mr. Sanders:—Dear Sir: I desire to express my gratitude through your paper to all persons who fought the fire so heroically for the protection of property in Nemaha last week, and saved my property, no doubt, along with others. There are acts of kindness that can never be paid, and this is one. I could not forbear expressing my appreciation of your efforts. Again thanking you one and all.
HELEN M. HITT.
Just at present there is peace in the Hillsdale and Larkin school districts—Nos. 55 and 60. Monday morning Mrs. Kempthorne and W. H. Dresler both appeared at the Larkin school, prepared to teach, the latter having been engaged by the school board after they learned of the contract between Mrs. Kempthorne and district 55. The director refused to unlock the door until it was decided who was to teach. County Superintendent Parlett came down from Auburn, and after considerable discussion Mrs. Kempthorne gave notice that at the end of the month she would sue the district for a month's pay, and went home. Mr. Dresler opened the school in the afternoon and is now teaching. We understand district 55 has engaged a teacher and will open school next Monday.
Just Saved His Life
