George Schaub, a well known Ger-man citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volks-zeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamber-lain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire con-tents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by W W Keeling.

The populists had a high old time at their convention last Saturday. A goodly number of delegates were op-posed to fusion but the majority were in favor of the combine. The trouble was started over an apparently inno-cent motion made by Edgar Ferneau that Geo. E. Codington be renominated for treasurer. The fusionists suspected a trap, and some one offered an amend-ment that a committee of three be ap-pointed to confer with the democrats and arrange for fusion and a division of the offices. Ferneau argued that the amendment was not in order but was overruled and the amendment was carried after considerable wrang-ling, during which Wm. Daily said he had always fought the court house ring, which was taken as a reflection on Codington, Snow, Parriott and Ste-venson, but had always voted the straight populist ticket. This Ferneau doubted and finally told Daily he did not believe what he said. Daily start-ed across the room toward Ferneau but was headed off before he got to him. Then the chairman was stuck on how to state the original motion as amended, but finally had them vote on it without its being stated, and then the question was raised as to whether Codington was nominated or not. It was decided, however, that he was not nominated. The committee was ap-pointed, the basis of fusion arranged, giving the democrats the clerk, super-intendent, coroner and surveyor and the populists the remaining offices. The following nominations were made:

Treasurer—G E Codington.
Clerk—C O Snow.
Sheriff—John Berger.
Judge—T J Oliver.
Superintendent—W C Parriott.
Clerk of district court—W J Davies.
Coroner—Dr Opperman.
Surveyor—Riley Gilbert.
Commissioner—John Stevenson.
F. G. Hawxby was nominated for judge, but when he heard of it he posi-tively declined the honor and then T. J. Oliver was nominated.
F. G. Hawxby was elected chairman of the county central committee.
