George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by W W Keeling.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the result in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. S. W. Gardner, of Idaville, Ind., says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he don't care whether he lives or dies. It gave me new strength and appetite. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Keeling's drug store.
 Every bottle guaranteed.

Mrs. F. B. Woodward, who has been visiting her son, Frank Woodward, for two weeks, returned to her home at Kansas City Saturday. She has spent the summer visiting relatives in Iowa and other places. Mrs. Frank Woodward and Marie went to Kansas City with her and will visit there for a few days.

A letter from Luther H. Barnes instructs us to change the address of his paper from Waukomis to Bison, Oklahoma. The latter is a new town on the Rock Island road within five miles of Mr. Barnes' farm. It is only six weeks old and has two elevators, two lumber yards, hardware and grocery store, etc.

Mrs. Theo. Hill has had a handsome case in her millinery establishment for the display of hats. She can now show the hats to much better advantage than heretofore and at the same time keep them away from the dust. She has also widened the shelving, repapered and repainted the room, and has made many other improvements.

The people of Nemaha were delighted when they learned that Rev. D. B.
 Lake would be pastor of the Methodist church here the ensuing year. Bro.
 Lake is a general favorite in Nemaha with all classes of people. He is one of the ablest ministers in the conference. We do not know whether he will fill his appointment next Sunday or not.

Dunraven Castle No. 36, the Royal Highlanders, gave an entertainment and supper in the Masonic building Monday night, to the members of the castle, their families and a very few invited guests. The entertainment consisted of singing of the opening ode, recitation by Fair Lady Mellinger Titus, recitation by Mrs. Kate Sampson, duet by Fair Ladies Mellinger Titus and Lillian Minick, address by C. L. Stiers, W. V. Steuteville, and the singing of the closing ode. The recitations, singing and address were all fine. Then came the best part of the program—the supper. The Highlanders are noted for the good suppers given, and this was no exception. It made us rejoice that we were a Highlander. A good time was enjoyed by all.

A camp of the Modern Woodmen of America was organized in Nemaha Monday night. The Brownville camp turned out in force and took charge of the ceremonies. The team is finely drilled and put on the work in good shape. The camp starts out with a membership of about thirty. The following is a list of the officers:

- Consul—Leslie L. Robison.
- Adviser—Edgar S Stiers.
- Clerk—W W Sanders.
- Banker—J H Seid.
- Escort—Charley Lindsey.
- Physician—Dr A L Stiers.
- Watchman—Chas Colerick.
- Sentry—Lee Devorss.
- Managers—Stephen Cooper, Fred E
 Hoover, G F Larimore.

R. D. Spelts, of Lincoln, was the organizer. There are several persons who have been examined and are ready to join but who were not able to be present Monday night. The camp will meet again Friday night of this week.
