J. W. ARMSTRONG,

The first quarterly conference for the Brownville, Nemaha and Bethel Methodist churches was held at Brownville Friday of last week. Presiding Elder J. S. W. Dean was present. Rev. D. B. Lake's salary was fixed at $700 and parsonage. No change was made in the services. Those present from Nemaha were Mrs. F. L. Woodward, Mrs. R. I. Brown and W. W. Sanders.

If you want a stove that will burn hard coal, soft coal, wood and cobs and get you the most heat out of the fuel, get the Beckwith Round Oak. This stove I have sold for the last ten years and can assure you entire satisfaction. Do not fail to call and see them.

A representative of The Press was in Nemaha recently and there saw the most wonderful collection of canes probably in existence. The exhibit belongs to Burl Hoover, an old and respected pioneer merchant at that place. The sticks were all made and finished by Mr. Hoover, many of them being of beautiful and unique pattern, and all of the wood was cut and seasoned by him, the work covering a period of thirty years. The most remarkable part of the collection lies in the fact that nothing but native Nebraska wood has been used and there are seventy-two varieties. He has one cane inlaid with all the different kinds of wood, for which he has been offered $125. The whole exhibit stands on a platform of unique design, also of Mr. Hoover's own make, in the center of which stands still another evidence of his genius in the shape of a large chair. Mr. Hoover says it will take several years yet to finish the work. It is worth going miles to see.—Stella Press.

Dr. I. C. Sutton, Henry Williams, Frank Shubert, W. W. James, and two or three others from Shubert attended Masonic lodge at Nemaha Thursday night and assisted in conferring the degree of Master Mason on Frank L. Woodward.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by W W Keeling.
