TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Much More Courteous.

Let us all take a lesson from Admiral Schley, and, instead of telling a gentleman that he lies, urge gently that his memory has a defective flue. It's ever so much more courteous.

End to "Don" and "Senor."

Gen. Wade has issued a circular in southern Luzon, doing away with the Spanish titles of "don, senor, senora and senorita," and giving for those appellations the American equivalents of Mr., Mrs. and Miss.

Wilhelmina a Total Abstemious.

The young queen of Holland is a total abstemious and ostentatiously refuses on all occasions to take wine. She is said to be the only teetotaler among reigning monarchs, if we except the sultan of Turkey.

Pinching the Ornamental.

A New Jersey court has decided that a bank whose cashier stole a large part of its funds must make good the shortage. Such a rule would greatly reduce the number of directors who give nothing but their names to their banks.

Notoriety Has Its Rewards.

Notoriety has its rewards. Mrs. Taylor, the woman who shot the Horseshoe falls in a barrel, has already received $200 for a magazine article, a bid for her services as an exhibit at the Buffalo exposition and an offer of marriage.

An Obedient Heir Apparent.

The duke of York is an obedient son. His father told him to go around the world, but nowhere to get off of British territory. So when he was on British land he stayed on a British man-of-war, and thus carried his territory around with him.

Swedes Read Daily Papers.

Stockholm, the capital of Sweden, has 320,000 inhabitants, who read 12 daily papers. The city also has a press club of 440 members, of whom 21 are women. King Oscar is always considerate to newspaper men and is very popular with them.

Wonders of Science.

Great is science. A German professor, after long investigation and calculation, has discovered that it takes a person one-fourteenth of a second to wink. Science may yet tell us how long it takes the person winked at to smile over the realization that he is "such a devil of a fellow."

The Rich Man and the Church.

President Blanchard, of Wheaton college, in an address delivered at a meeting of the Congregational ministers of Chicago, was unusually severe against the tenderness and consideration with which ministers sometimes treat their wealthy parishioners. All the sheep in the flock should be treated alike or if any distinction is to be made it should be in favor of the poor. The rich, having more of the root of evil in their hearts, are presumably more evil in their lives.

President Roosevelt's Lunches.

When luncheon time comes the president glances around his office at the white house and says: "Well, let's all go and have some luncheon," and marches in at the head of the company that happens to be with him, whether it is one man or a dozen. He has had somebody at dinner, and usually three or four, every night since he has been in the white house. The number he has had at luncheon will average three a day, and there have been a dozen guests at breakfast at various times.

Too Easily Detected.

"None but the ignorant attempt murder by poison these days," the speaker was Dr. William Krauss, the well-known Memphis microscopist, in the course of a conversation the other day. "All the ordinary poisons are so easily and positively identified these days," he continued, "and the symptoms produced by the poisons are so well known to the medical profession that there is absolute certainty of detecting the presence of deadly drugs and philters whenever their use is attempted."

THANKSGIVING PROCLAIMED.

President Roosevelt Names Thursday, November 28, as a Day of Prayer for Blessings Material and Spiritual.

Washington, Nov. 3.—President Roosevelt Saturday issued his proclamation fixing Thursday, November 28, as a day of national thanksgiving. It follows:

The season is nigh when, according to the time-hallowed custom of our people, the president appoints a day as the special occasion for praise and thanksgiving to God.

This Thanksgiving finds the people still bowed with sorrow for the death of a great and good president. We mourn President McKinley because we so loved and honored him; and the manner of his death should awaken in the breasts of our people a keen anxiety for the country, and at the same time a resolute purpose not to be driven by any calamity from the path of strong, orderly, popular liberty which as a nation we have thus far safely trod.

Yet in spite of this great disaster, it is nevertheless true that no people on earth have such abundant cause for thanksgiving as we have. The past year in particular has been one of peace and plenty. We have prospered in things material and have been able to work for our own uplifting in things intellectual and spiritual. Let us remember that, as much as has been given us, much will be expected from us; and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips and shows itself in deeds. We can best prove our thankfulness to the Almighty by the way in which on this earth and at this time each of us does his duty to his fellowmen.

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 28th day of this present November, and do recommend that throughout the land people cease from their wonted occupations and at their several homes and places of worship reverently thank the Giver of all good for the countless blessings of our national life.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 2d day of November, in the year of Our Lord 1901 and of the independence of the United States the 129th.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT, President.

SULTAN'S LAVISH PROMISES.

Dispatch of the French Squadron Causes an Irrade from Abdul, But He Has Paid No Cash.

Paris, Nov. 4.—The dispatch of Admiral Caillard's squadron from Toulon to Turkish waters has already had its effect. The French foreign office has received a telegram from M. Bapts, councillor of the French legation at Constantinople, announcing that the sultan yesterday sent him a message accepting all the French claims, including the Lorando claim. The porte also telegraphed to the French minister of foreign affairs, informing him that the Lorando claim had been settled and that the sultan had signed an irade accepting the figure fixed by France for the payment of the claim. It is understood the French government also will demand an understanding that Turkey will not renew the recent interference with the diplomatic mail bags.

GEN. SMITH ANNOYED.

Conditions in the Island of Leyte Not Reassuring—Secret Aid to Insurgents in Samar.

Manila, Nov. 4.—Advices from Catabogan, Samar, say it is well known that, in spite of the fact that all ports of Samar are closed, supplies still reach the insurgents. Most of this work is done during dark nights by small boats from the island of Leyte. Every available gunboat is now trying to prevent this.

The capture of Lubkan's commissary has proved a great blow to the insurrection, as it renders future supplies very precarious.

Conditions in the island of Leyte are very annoying to Gen. Smith. A large number of junks are used with the express object of aiding the insurgents in Samar, covering the movements of fugitives and landing provisions and clothing.

EDWARD STOKES DEAD.

Man Who Killed "Jim" Fisk for Love of a Woman Passes Away in New York.

New York, Nov. 4.—Edward S. Stokes, once a partner of Jay Gould and one of a group who once controlled the financial interests of the country, died Saturday after a long illness at the home of his sister in this city, soul-stricken by the memory of the murder of "Jim" Fisk, whom he killed for love of a woman. It is a memory which has lived over a quarter of a century. Josie Mansfield, adventuress, is the only living figure in the story of a woman's treachery, of Jim Fisk's weakness and dishonor and of Edward Stokes' revenge.

Their Records Must Be Good.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The president has told his advisers that, except in exceptional cases, he would send to congress the names of those appointees who received their appointment from President McKinley after the adjournment of congress. He wanted, however, to inform himself as to the character of the men and the service they have rendered since appointment.

SHE PREFERS SMALL FEET.

Wife of Minister Wu Ting Fang Says Chinese Practices Are Not So Injurious as the Constriction of Woman's Waist.

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—Mme. Wu Ting Fang, wife of the Chinese minister at Washington, arrived from the orient yesterday. In speaking of the efforts of American missionaries in China Mme. Wu said: "There was a movement among the missionaries last year to deery and, if possible, stop the practices of stunting the young girls' feet. This movement assisted the sentiment already in existence in favor of modifying the custom. I prefer small feet to a little waist. My vital organs are not affected in any way or injured by confinement of my feet in childhood, but the health of many an American woman is ruined by the constriction of her waist."

ROBBED A MAIL BAG.

Two Thousand Dollars Mysteriously Taken from a Pouch on a Rock Island Train in Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Ok., Nov. 5.—The fact that a mail bag had been robbed of $2,000 did not become known until yesterday morning when Cashier Lotson, of the Bank of Enid, Ok., became suspicious and refused to honor a draft on the First national bank, of Kansas City. An investigation followed and disclosed the fact that on October 31 the mail bag from Lahoma, Ok., to Rock Island points north had been cut open and $1,400 in drafts stolen, in addition to $600 in other forms. Many of the stolen drafts have been cashed in Enid.

NOT HELPING DALTON.

Warden Jewett, of the Kansas Prison, Denies That He Is Interested in Clemency for the Noted Bandit.

Lansing, Kan., Nov. 5.—E. B. Jewett, warden of the state penitentiary, denies emphatically the story that he had discussed with Gov. Stanley and members of the legislature the question of a pardon for Emmett Dalton, the Coffeyville bandit. Mr. Jewett declared that he had not only not talked to state officials on the matter, but had not impounded anyone in behalf of Dalton. The statement that he had written legislators in regard to the matter was, he said, absolutely untrue.

APPEALS TO ENGLAND.

Sultan of Turkey Asks Protection from France Under the Terms of the Convention of 1878.

Paris, Nov. 5.—"The porte has asked Great Britain," says the Constantinople correspondent of the Echo de Paris, "to fulfill the terms of the convention of 1878 whereby, in exchange for the island of Cyprus, Great Britain guarantees the integrity of the sultan's Asiatic possessions. The porte claims under this convention that Great Britain should protect Asia-Turkey against attack by France and suggests that Great Britain should send a squadron to the Levant for that purpose."

Here Is Edward's Title.

London, Nov. 5.—King Edward, at a meeting of the privy council Monday, signed the proclamation giving him his new title, as follows: "Edward the Seventh, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions Beyond the Sea, King, Defender of the Faith, and Emperor of India."

Egged a Methodist Parsonage.

Alma, Kan., Nov. 5.—In the absence of Rev. J. B. Gibson, pastor of the M. E. church, and while his wife and niece were at meeting, a crowd of toughs decorated their porch with beer kegs in acknowledgment of his activity in the campaign against Alma saloons. The house was also pelted by a storm of eggs.

Knocks Out Prof. Koch's Theory.

New York, Nov. 5.—Positive signs of tuberculosis have appeared in the cow that was inoculated with germs by Dr. George D. Barney, of Brooklyn. He claims that he has disproved Dr. Koch's theory that human tuberculosis and bovine tuberculosis are not intercommunicable.

Queen Alexandra's Gifts to Soldiers.

London, Nov. 5.—Queen Alexandra, following the example of Victoria, is sending Christmas gifts to the troops in South Africa. For this purpose she has ordered thousands of briar pipes, each silver mounted and bearing the stamp of the crown and her own monogram.

Mahsuds Slaughter British Troops.

Simla, India, Nov. 5.—A detachment of 32 Royal lancers, who were escorting a surveying party, were attacked yesterday by Mahsuds. Thirteen of the lancers were killed. Some of the Mahsuds were captured.

An Oil Strike in Kansas.

Wellington, Kan., Nov. 5.—It is reported that oil has been found at Blackstone, a small station on the Kansas Southwestern railroad in this county, between Anthony and Caldwell.

Cables in the Philippines.
Our government has concluded that surety and secrecy can only be obtained by a cable ship owned and worked by its own officers. To this end the first official cable vessel will be put in readiness. As necessary as the cable is in times of war, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is of far more importance, for it makes people well. It cures indigestion, flatulency, constipation, biliousness and nervousness, also prevents malaria, fever and ague. We urge you to try it.

An Evolution.
"Do come home with me to dinner. I want you to meet my eccentric old uncle, John."
"Eccentric! It was only a year ago that you said he was an old boor."
"I know, but that was before his brother left him a fortune."—St. Louis Republic.
