Dick has a great many friends here who wish him all kinds of prosperity. His family will remain in Nemaha for awhile.

MRS. THEO. HILL

HAS READY FOR INSPECTION New Fall and Winter Millinery PRICES, AS USUAL, THE LOWEST

E. M. Boyd, cashier of the Carson National bank of South Auburn, came in to Nemaha Wednesday afternoon, returning Thursday forenoon. He gave The Advertiser a short call Thursday morning.

James H. Hall, a former resident of Aspinwall precinct, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary for forgery at the session of district court held at Falls City last week. Hall plead guilty to the charge.

The county commissioners at their meeting this week received bids for superintending the poor farm for the ensuing year. A number of bids were made but the contract was awarded to Robt. I. Brown. Mr. Brown pays $500 rent for the farm of 100 acres and receives $2 per week per inmate for boarding and taking care of the paupers. He takes possession Dec. 1st.

Mrs. J. F. Wykes will on Saturday of this week sell at public auction the household goods belonging to the late Mrs. Crim. The sale will begin at 1 o'clock.

Marion Eshart, who was a former resident of Nemaha, but who has for some time been fireman on the Santa Fe railroad, is now at the hospital at Topeka, Kansas, having been badly scalded recently.

M. T. Hill has bought the building now occupied by the Keeling drug store and will put in a stock of drugs and sundries in a short time. The Keeling drug store will be moved into Dr. Keeling's building, where the restaurant now is.

FOR SALE

One two-year-old Jersey heifer; will be fresh about March first; one Jersey yearling heifer, and twelve head extra good shoats, six black and six red, will weigh about 100 pounds apiece.

Inquire of M. T. HILL.

If you want a stove that will burn hard coal, soft coal, wood and cobs and get you the most heat out of the fuel, get the Beckwith Round Oak. This stove I have sold for the last ten years and can assure you entire satisfaction. Do not fail to call and see them. J. W. ARMSTRONG, South Auburn, Neb.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE

R. M. Pellock, of Lincoln, field secretary of the Nebraska State Sunday School association, will hold a Sunday school institute in Nemaha next week, beginning Monday night at the Methodist church and continuing Tuesday and Wednesday. Everybody is invited to attend, especially those interested in Sunday school work.

Rev. James Hiatt gave us a social call Thursday. He drove up from Falls City Wednesday to attend the marriage of his granddaughter, Miss Lucy Russell to Clark Cary. Mr. Hiatt is pastor of a new church organization—the Holy Ghost and Fire-Baptized Church or some such name. He recently held a meeting in Falls City at which there were nearly eighty converts.

Mark Hall, of Auburn, was in Nemaha Wednesday. Mark had the Oklahoma fever a few months ago and had it bad. He was farming but sold out and went to Oklahoma and started a saloon. He soon became disgusted with that business and tired of the country, so he came back to Auburn and is now running a restaurant there. He says Nemaha county is good enough to live and die in.

Mr. Clark Cary and Miss Lucy J. Russell were joined in marriage on Wednesday evening, Nov. 20, 1901, at 8 o'clock, J. T. Smith, Christian minister, officiating. There were present a few immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

Mr. Cary is prosperous farmer of Fremont county, Iowa and is the owner of a good farm near Sidney. The bride, Miss Lucy, is the daughter of our esteemed townsman, Mr. J. R. Russell. She is deservedly popular among the young people of Nemaha and will be greatly missed from her circle of friends and acquaintances. The Christian church will also miss her services very much as she was their organist, and very faithful and efficiently performed her work. But now that she has gone to make her home at once in the cosy house prepared by her husband, her friends all wish her and her husband much joy.

EXCLUSIVE CASH STORE

Read it in His Newspaper.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by W. W. Keeling.
