GILBERT & McCANDLESS

Edward E. Lowman, the Brownville merchant, gave us a pleasant call Thursday afternoon—how pleasant can be judged by the advertisement on the last page.

The brick work of the Odd Fellows building is completed, the roof is on, windows are in and the floors laid, and the ceilings are now being lathed. The work is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

Miss Eva Able has the latest styles of millinery and her prices are right. Dressmaking of all kinds done promptly. Satisfaction guaranteed.

W. D. Hartwell, of Pawnee City, state bank examiner, was in Nemaha Tuesday and examined the Bank of Nemaha. Of course he found everything all right.

M. T. Hill returned from Omaha last Saturday, having bought an entire new stock of drugs, medicines and sundries, which are now arriving. See his announcement.

Miss Blanche Lytle was given a surprise party Monday night, at the residence of Mrs. Rosina Wheeler. The young folks present passed a very pleasant evening.

Dime Sociable

The Methodist Sunday school will give a dime social in the front room of the opera house building Saturday night of this week for the purpose of raising money for Christmas.

See M T Hill for fire insurance

Rain, sleet and snow Thursday.

Less than two weeks till Christmas. A cold wave struck us Friday morning.

If you want any fire insurance call on W. W. Sanders.

We understand Nemaha will soon have a new meat market.

Wm. G. and Alva Maxwell started for Alliance, Nebr., Tuesday.

George Eldredge returned from David City, Nebr., Monday afternoon.

Frank Titus is clerking in Battles' store and will stay there until after the holidays.

Mrs. John C. Boyd, of Aspinwall precinct, returned from Omaha last Saturday.

J. H. Littrell went to Nebraska City Monday afternoon, returning the next forenoon.

Mrs. A. F. Walsh is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. H. Hoover, and her sisters in Lincoln this week.

J. C. Pomeroy has moved into the brick where Mrs. Crim kept a boarding house for so many years.

Dr. Stiers has his offices equipped with Hot Air apparatuses for treating rheumatism and nasal catarrh.

Mrs. D. H. Clark went to Johnson Thursday, to visit her parents, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Chamberlain.

The Keeling drug store was moved to its new location in the Keeling building, on the east side of the street, Wednesday.

L. H. Battles went to St. Jos Sunday evening and the next day bought a lot of new goods, returning to Nemaha that evening.

Mrs. Oscar L. Minick came in from Bracken Monday and visited Misses Florence and Lillian Minick, returning home the next day.

In the list of officers of the Boyal Highlanders, published last week, we omitted the name of Nate Sedoras, who was elected Warder.

Frank Lindsey is a new subscriber to The Advertiser. He also subscribes for the Chicago Inter Ocean and the Kansas City Journal.

Miss Della Smith, of Table Rock, Nebr., visited her aunt, Mrs. Walter Hadlock, from Saturday until Tuesday, when she went to Auburn.

Mrs. Dagenheart, of Bloomington, Ill., is visiting her brother, Walter Paris, and her cousin, Mrs. May Baldwin. She arrived here Monday.

Just received, a stock of skates, sleds, harmonicas, archarena boards, etc. Come in and look at them.
EDWARDS & BRADFORD LBR. Co.

Mrs. Rosina Wheeler has bought of Mrs. Carse the three lots west of the opera house and will build a cottage thereon. She will probably wait until spring before building. The location is one of the best in Nemaha.

Geo. McClure was surprised Tuesday morning to receive a call from an old schoolmate, Mr. Temple, whom he had not seen for over twenty years. Mr. Temple's home is in Illinois but he has been in Oklahoma for some time.

Brimble & Coons' livery barn caught fire Friday morning, but by hard work the fire was extinguished with but little damage. The fire caught in the loft over the office, from a defective flue, and was blazing lively when discovered. A few buckets of water put it out in short order, but it was a close call.

Valentine Ritter died at his home in Aspinwall precinct at 6 o'clock Monday morning, of inflammation of the bladder, aged 82 years, 11 months and 21 days. He was an old resident of this county, coming here in 1869. Every one who knew him liked and respected Uncle Vol Ritter. He leaves a wife and eight children: Valentine, Jr., of California, J. B., G. L. and John of this county, Mrs. J. W. Taylor, of Auburn, Mrs. Jack Jones, of Aspinwall precinct, and Mrs. C. C. Banks, of Cozad, Nebr.

S S Lawrence, father of John, Abe, Doc and Sam Lawrence, died at the home of Abe Lawrence, with whom he has been living, Monday evening of this week. He has been in poor health for many years, and recently had been worse, but was able to go to the supper table that evening, and dropped over dead while eating supper. He was aged 76 years, 1 month and 14 days. He was an old resident of the county, coming here in 1868. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. D. B. Lake, were held in the Methodist church at Brownville Wednesday forenoon. His aged wife and the five sons have the sympathy of all in the loss of a loving husband and father.
