

State Historical Society

GILBERT & McCANDLESS

Have just received a large stock of the latest styles in

Dress Goods

Prints

Dry Goods

Notions

and a complete stock of

Fresh Groceries

Also a large assortment of

Boots and Shoes

Trunks, Valises, etc.

You are invited to call and see them.

GILBERT & McCANDLESS

Local News

The sleighing is about spoiled.

See M T Hill for fire insurance.

Mart Quiller has been very sick with scarletina.

M. T. Hill received his stock of wall paper Thursday.

The Advertiser and the Chicago Inter Ocean for $1.40

There is only one case of smallpox in Nemaha or vicinity.

Thirty Plymouth Rock cockerels for sale at the Titus Nursery.

Mrs. Rose Gilbert went to Lincoln Wednesday to visit friends

Call and see us for reduced rates on magazines and newspapers.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

Claud Scovill is now employed by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rainey, of Brownville, were Nemaha visitors Sunday.

Oscar F. Scovill has had his pension increased from $8 to $10 per month.

Miss Lillian Minick visited her brothers at Bracken Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. D. B. Lake closed his meetings Monday night, on account of the small-pox scare.

Seymour Howe visited friends in Omaha from Tuesday until Friday of last week.

Miss Mamie Bartlett, of Shubert, was the guest of Miss Florence Burns this week.

The Advertiser and the St. Louis Globe Democrat both one year for only $1.75.

Charley Lindsey has moved to Langdon, Mo., where he will run a blacksmith shop.

I have for sale 4 head of good horses, 1 fine pony, 1 fresh Jersey cow, and a lot of pole wood, all on my farm between Peru and Brownville.

JNO. S. STULL, Auburn, Nebr.

Frank Woodward went to Kansas City Thursday to see his mother, who is worse again.

Mrs. John Quinn, of Bedford precinct, visited Mr. and Mrs. James M Burns Wednesday.

Call in and see us if you want to subscribe for any paper published in the United States.

All the old maids of Nemaha will be at the Old Maid's Convention Saturday night, February 22nd.

Gene Combs, of Pawnee City, came to Nemaha last Saturday and visited friends until Monday.

The Old Maid's Convention will be held at Hoover's opera house Saturday night, February 22nd.

John I. Dressler, of Auburn, was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday and gave The Advertiser office a call.

Mrs. Strain went to Nebraska City Tuesday to see her daughter, Mrs. Morris, who is very sick.

Dr. Stiers has his offices equipped with Hot Air apparatuses for treating rheumatism and nasal catarrh.

W. T. Banks, of North Platte, visited Nemaha friends from Saturday afternoon until Monday forenoon.

Miss Florence Minick returned home last Saturday after a visit of several days with her brothers at Bracken.

Little Neva Russell, daughter of Lester Russell, has been very sick with scarletina, but is getting some better.

For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn W. W. Harris prop'r.

George Lindsey was taken sick Tuesday with a severe chill and symptoms of pneumonia, but we understand is getting better.

We still have thirty Plymouth Rock cockerels. If you need any call at once. We want to close them out.

TITUS NURSERY.

Dr. MacVean will be at Mr. Young's residence, Brownville, Thursday of each week, for the next thirty days. Eyes tested free. Twenty per cent. off on glasses for school children.

1902

Wall Paper

AT

Hill's Drug Store

Mrs. Tollinger, who has been visiting in Iowa, returned to Nemaha Wednesday.

Fay Gaither, of Maitland, Mo., came to Nemaha Wednesday morning, visiting friends until Friday forenoon, when he started for Alliance.

Charley Woodward came in from Hastings last Saturday and visited his parents and friends until Thursday, when he went to Kansas City.

Burch McGrew, of Auburn, started for the Philippine Islands last Saturday, being one of the teachers sent by our government to instruct the young Filipinos.

Early Monday morning Nate Sedoras called for us to "Come over and see my BOY. He's a fine one—weighs 10 pounds." The young gentleman was born Sunday.

Oscar F. Scovill, who has been stopping at the soldier's home at Milford, Nebr., for several months, came to Nemaha Monday evening and is visiting friends for a few days

We understand W. C. Parriott, county superintendent, and Miss Besie Tynan, of Stella, were married Wednesday. The Advertiser extends congratulations and best wishes.

The editor has been suffering from an attack of the grip for almost a week—not quite sick enough to go to bed but too sick to do anything except sit around and feel miserable

Mrs. D. H. Clark and children returned home last Friday afternoon, after a visit of several days with their parents and grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Chamberlain, at Johnson.

J. F. Ramsey, who for some time has had the contract for carrying the mail on the star route from Nemaha to St. Deroin, has been awarded the contract again. He gets $500 per year under the new contract.

My stock of furniture and stoves is complete. If you are needing anything in my line give me a call and I will assure you fair treatment.

J. W. ARMSTRONG, South Auburn, Nebr.

Having bought the harness stock of John A. Hiatt, we will hereafter carry a complete stock of harness and harness supplies, whips, halters, saddles, robes, etc. Prices guaranteed right. Call and see us.

EDWARDS & BRADFORD LUMBER CO.

You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active, energetic man with a torpid liver, and you may know his liver is torpid when he does not relish his food or feels dull and languid after eating often has headache and sometimes dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price, 25 cents. Sample free at Keeling's drug store.

Old papers for sale at this office.

ANDREW AYNES

Invites all his old customers and many new ones to call on him in the new brick Odd Fellows building, where you will find him with an entire new stock of which will be held at Hoover's opera house Saturday night, February 22nd, will be one of the best entertainments ever given in Nemaha. If you want to enjoy yourself thoroughly do not fail to attend. Admission: Adults, 20 cents; children, 15 cents; reserved seats, 25 cents.

Furniture, Hardware, etc.

The Old Maid's Convention

Mrs. Chas. P. Scovill had a narrow escape from burning to death Friday of last week. In taking a lid off the stove her apron caught fire. She tried to put out the blaze, burning her right wrist severely, but could not succeed, and ran to the home of Dick Chambers, living next door, where the fire was extinguished. If help had not been very near she would probably have been severely if not fatally burned.

Curtis Brown, who has been visiting in Pawnee county, returned home early Friday morning. He came to Tecumseh on the train Thursday afternoon, getting there too late for the passenger train. When he found there would be no freight that night he started out and walked home, getting here the latter part of the night tired out and with badly frozen ears

Dr. Dillon, of Auburn, was a pleasant caller Monday. He had been down to Morgan's Island to see some small-pox patients three members of a family living on the island having the disease in a light form. While here the doctor visited William Smiley and said was the worst case he had seen.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H J Stickfaden, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash. For sale by W W Keeling.

Frank Flack has bought property in South Auburn and expects to move out there in about two weeks. He will hold on to his Nemaha property so he can move back here when he gets tired of Auburn.

Prof. C. D. Schell and family will leave tomorrow for their long journey to Manila. They go from here to New York and take passage for the Philippines by way of Gibraltar and the Suez canal. Prof. Schell has been a valued instructor in our public schools and the loss will be keenly felt, not only in educational but in social circles as Prof. and Mrs. Schell were well known and popular people.—Falls City Journal

Mrs. Schell is a daughter of Mrs. John Clark, of this precinct, and a sister of D. H. Clark.

Last Sunday was Mrs. E. A. Minick's birthday and her daughters planned and carried out a very pleasant surprise. She was persuaded to attend services at the Christian church that morning. When she got home she found a bountiful dinner all ready to be eaten, and waiting for her were her brother-in-law, H. T. Minick, and wife, and all her children and grandchildren living near here—Oscar L. Minick, wife and three children, Chas. T. Minick, wife and two children, Albert R. Titus and wife, Misses Florence and Lillian Minick, and Cyrus Minick.

Order of Hearing and Notice of Petition for Settlement of Account.

In the County Court of Nemaha county, Neb., The State of Nebraska County of Nemaha, ss. To Joseph Yetter, Frank Yetter, Mrs. Ella Hibbard, Jacob Yetter and Mrs. Sarah Lemmon, and all persons interested in the estate of Gabriel Yetter, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that F. L. Woodward has filed a petition praying for final settlement and allowance of his administration account filed in this court on the 21st day of January, A. D. 1902, and for the sum of twenty dollars ($20.00) for extraordinary services rendered said estate, and the same has been set for hearing on the 17th day of February, 1902, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the county court room of said county, in Auburn, when and where all persons interested in said matter may appear and show cause, if there be any, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, and if sufficient cause be not shown the court may grant the prayer thereof, and make such further and other orders as may be proper.

Dated this 21st day of January, 1902.

RICHARD F. NEAL, County Judge.

L. H. BATTLES

Nemaha, Nebr.

Come and see us when in Nemaha. We can offer you substantial inducements to trade with us

POULTRY WANTED!
Hens, 7 1-4c cash; 7 1-2c in trade.
Received at this price Mondays and Tuesdays.