

INSTEAD OF SELLING ON CREDIT

and asking the same old high price for goods, we do the reverse; that is:

Buy for cash,
Get cash discount,
and sell for cash
at lowest prices

Our line of Shirt Waists are of the latest styles and range in prices from 85 cents to $1.50
Dimities and Lawns at 4¢ cents per yard
Good Prints, light or dark, 4¢ per yard
We handle Selz Shoes—nothing better made
Good Crackers, per pound, 7c
10 bars Monday Morning Soap, 25c
Extra fancy Rio Coffee, per pound, 15c

Come and See Me

JNO. W. RITCHEY
Brownville, Nebraska

Everything is growing fast.

See M T Hill for fire insurance.

Boone Codington returned to Oklahoma Tuesday.

C. F. Zook is a new subscriber to The Advertiser.

See Keeling's new wall paper for prices and beauty.

T. A. Bath of London precinct was in Nemaha Monday.

Sam Porter started for Weatherford, Oklahoma, Tuesday.

Misses Annie and Dora Morton came in from Auburn Wednesday.

Get your machine oil at the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

W. S. and A. C. Chambers took the afternoon train Wednesday for Omaha.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Call and see us for reduced rates on magazines and newspapers.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

John W. White and Joe Stilwell went to Avoca, Nebr., Monday.

Frank McNow was shaking hands with Nemaha friends Thursday.

We had another shower last Saturday afternoon—40-100ths of an inch.

Miss Morrow and Miss Felt of Shubert were Nemaha visitors Monday.

Chauncey Parker of Auburn visited his cousins, Will and Nellie Sanders, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Headquarters for harness, whips, dusters, fly nets.

Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn W. W. Harris prop'r.

Because we sell Gasoline for 15 cents per gallon it has been industriously reported our's was an inferior grade. Bought from same tank at same time as those who sell for 20 cents. Try it.

M. T. HILL

Don't forget that Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. carry the best mixed paints.

Thomas McNight of Auburn has been granted a pension of $8 per month.

Will S. Jay, representing the Lincoln Journal and News, was in Nemaha Wednesday.

Earle Gilbert, Will F. Keeling and Charley Galbraith have had their houses repainted.

John E. Crother writes that he is well pleased with Manilla, Iowa, where he is now located.

Elmer E. Allen moved the bank safe into the vault Tuesday and now feels safe from fire and burglars.

We notice that the pension of F. H. D. Hunt of St. Deroin precinct has been increased to $12 per month.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness. For sale by M T Hill.

Miss Jessie Steuterville of Brownville has a music class in Nemaha and comes down every Tuesday to give lessons.

A tramp printer struck us for a few hours' work Saturday afternoon. He is the first one to visit Nemaha for many months.

Elmer Beam, who had been visiting his brother-in-law, Ed Buel, and family for a few days, started for his home in Michigan Monday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hill, Saturday morning, May 31st, 1902, a fine boy—Mart says the smartest and best looking boy in the state.

Harry Linn was shaking hands with Nemaha friends Saturday evening. Harry is now a practicing dentist of Nebraska City and is doing well.

J. B. Rees, who had the livery stable in Nemaha twenty years ago, was shaking hands with old friends Monday. Jim is now a resident of Pawnee City.

Mrs. L. H. Merritt and Sadie went to Avoca, Nebr., Saturday and spent Sunday with Mr. Merritt. They came home Monday, Mr. Merritt coming with them.

Misses Opal and Bebe Seabury went home with their former teacher, Carl E. Sanders, of London precinct, Sunday afternoon, staying until Wednesday afternoon.

Our old friend Aaron Palmer of Beatrice gave us a pleasant call Saturday afternoon. Aaron is a former Brownville boy but has been in Beatrice for many years.

Mr. Liebhart of Gretna, Nebr., who has been visiting his daughters, Mrs. E. J. Maxwell and Mrs. Frank Titus, for several weeks, started home Wednesday morning. His daughters went with him. They drove through.

CLOSING OUT PRICES

—ON—

SUMMER GOODS

Come and be convinced

MRS. THEO. HILL

The village board of trustees at their meeting Tuesday night appointed Wesley H. Clark street commissioner, and gave instructions to have the weeds around town cut down.

Furniture Furniture

Just received a car load. Call in and see it. The price will be right Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Will F. Sanders, Miss Nellie Sanders and Miss Maye Gaither drove out to the home of Mrs. J. M. Sanders, northwest of Brownville, Tuesday, and visited and picked strawberries until evening.

Fine watch and clock repairing by experienced workman at Chambers meat market. Watches cleaned, 75c; clocks cleaned, 50c; all work warranted. Also nice line of watches for sale. J. H. GRINSPAN.

Just as we expected, the owner of the money we found last week came around in less than an hour after the Advertiser was in the postoffice, proved ownership and took the money away from us.

The rage for the festive game of croquet has broken out in Nemaha and the click of the mallet and balls can be heard early and late. Croquet grounds have been fitted out between The Advertiser office and Hill's drug store, so we get the full benefit of the game.

Sadie Merritt celebrated her eighth birthday Monday evening by giving a party to a few of her little friends. The little folks had a delightful time. Ice cream and strawberries were served. Those present were Avis Carse, Hazel and Adelaide McClure, Mabel Kerley, Lela Gaither and Lillie Hiatt.

Peru had a fire Wednesday night, a barn until recently occupied as a livery, one or two smaller stables, sheds, etc., burning. The fire broke out about 11 o'clock. Peru recently bought some hose and has a system of waterworks, and the fire was stopped before it reached the business part of town. It was a close call, however.

Brownville is making arrangements to celebrate the Fourth of July, and we suggest that Nemaha citizens go there on that day. Brownville turns out in full force to our old settlers picnic and we believe in reciprocating by attending their celebration. They are making preparations to have a big time. Let's go up and help them.

Rev. D. B. Lake was called to Louisville, Nebr., last Sunday and therefore did not fill his appointments on the circuit. He arranged to have Rev. Mr. P'esson of Auburn fill his appointment at Bethel and Rev. Mr. Rodabaugh at Brownville and Nemaha, but for some reason—probably poor health—Mr. Rodabaugh did not get to Nemaha.

The Christian Sunday school gave their children's day exercise at the Christian church Sunday evening. The exercises consisted of singing, recitations, class exercises, etc., and an address by Rev. John T. Smith. The program was a good one, well carried out, and was received with enthusiasm by the audience. The church was crowded.

Lockjaw From Cobwebs. Cobwebs put on a cut lately gave a woman lockjaw. Millions know that the best thing to put on a cut is Bucklin's Arnica Salve, the infallible healer of Wounds, Ulcers, Sores, Skin Eruptions, Burns, Scalds and Piles. It cures for no pay. Only 25c at Keeling's.

GILBERT & M<sup>c</sup>CANDLESS

HAVE JUST RECEIVED

- New Calicoes—100 bolts
- New all-over Embroidery
- New all-over Lace
- New assortment Trimming Buttons
- New Tucking
- New line of Parasols
- New line of Shoes
- Lots of news things too numerous to mention

While it is hardly necessary to make any remarks in placing this advertisement before you, yet we feel that a few words may be in order. Our stock of merchandise in all its branches was never more complete than at present. We are constantly receiving new goods. We do not sell you some article at cost and aim to make up our profit on something else, which is a very easy thing to do.

Satisfying our customers and reducing profits to the lowest possible point without reducing quality has been our constant aim.

All kinds of produce taken in exchange at highest market price.

We extend a cordial invitation to everybody to call in and look over our goods and get our prices.

GILBERT & M<sup>c</sup>CANDLESS

L. H. BATTLES