M. T. HILL

Don't forget that Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. carry the best mixed paints.

Mrs. Theo. Hill went to Brownville Tuesday to attend the funeral of her niece, Mrs. Ned Opelt.

In next week's Advertiser a new serial will be commenced, entitled "My Strangest Case," by Guy Boothby.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness. For sale by M T Hill.

Miss Lizzie Hawxby, who has been teaching for the past year at Clarks, Nebr., returned home Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Maye Gaither is giving lessons in music to a number of pupils in Nemaha. She is a good and thorough instructor.

R. A. Lee, representing the Good Will Mission for Erring Girls, Omaha, was soliciting aid in Nemaha Friday of last week.

We are have plenty of rain. Last Saturday morning's rainfall was 43-100 of an inch. Wednesday morning it was 40-100ths.

The school trustees have had a fence put around the south part of the school grounds, to keep people from driving across the yard.

T. A. Bath of London precinct was seriously injured one day last week by being thrown from a horse he was breaking to ride.

The Methodist Sunday school will have their children's day service Sunday evening. An excellent program has been prepared.

Mrs. Earle Gilbert has been appointed superintendent of the Junior League of the Methodist church. The league meets at 3 o'clock every Sunday afternoon.

C. D. Neal, editor of the Fraternal Review of Omaha, published in the interest of the Odd Fellows, was a Nemaha visitor from Saturday until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kindig started for the Pacific coast last Saturday. They expect to be gone some time and if they like the country will probably locate there.

G. N. Titus started for Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Sunday, to attend a meeting of the National Nurserymen's convention. He expects to be gone about a week or ten days.

Wes Clark was putting a pump in a well Thursday of last week and had it elevated several feet when it fell over and struck him on the head and back of the neck. He has not been able to do much since then.

Last Friday was decoration day for the Woodmen of the World. No services were held at Nemaha, but members of the order went to the cemetery and decorated the graves of Sovereigns Lew Mather and Charles A. Titus.

Just received a car load. Call in and see it. The price will be right
Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Williams and daughters Ruth and Helen drove up from Shubert Wednesday evening. Miss Helen is just six weeks old and is as pretty as a peach.

The Nemaha river overflowed the low lands the first of the week and the fish got out of the channel of the river and were speared in quantities by our fishermen. More carp were caught than any other one variety.

Casner Barnes of near Howe went to Chicago last week and underwent a very successful surgical operation which it is hoped will greatly improve his health, which has not been of the best during the past few months.—Auburn Post.

Our jeweler did not stay with us very long but did a thriving business while here. He left for the south last Saturday evening. Those who bought gold watches and jewelry of him are not saying much but are doing a whole lot of hard thinking.

The ladies of the Christian church will give a lawn sociable at the H. W. Shubert farm, one mile south of Bracken, Saturday evening, June 21st. Refreshments will be served from 4 p. m. until 10 p. m. Every one cordially invited and guaranteed a good time.

On the fourth page may be found notice of the death of Eli Keathley, an old resident of Aspinwall precinct but who for the past eight months has been living with his daughter, Mrs. Bert Heasley, in St. Maries, Idaho. Other items of interest to our citizens may be found on this page.

Henry Clark has bought Mrs. M. T. May's property in the west part of town, paying $1245 for it. He does not expect to move until toward fall. He has sold his farm to his son, John M. Clark. Mrs. May will either buy or build in Nemaha—probably build. She wants to get farther down town.

Another one of our citizens had a bottle of Auburn whiskey break in his pocket Tuesday. Of course he was bringing it in for another man. The bottle exploded while the man was coming up from the depot. Either the bottles used are very poor or the Auburn whiskey is very bad—probably both.

A change was made in the livery business the first of the week. Ed H. Knapp sold an interest in his barn to his brother Eli, and the new firm bought the livery and dray business of Chambers Bros., so we now have only one livery and one dray. They put in a new carriage and a new rubber-tired buggy. Chambers Bros. kept the building and part of the stock.

M. T. Hill says even tobacco is beginning to explode. He filled his pipe with tobacco Tuesday, lit it and started in to have a good smoke, when a piece of the burning tobacco flew up and struck him in the eye. Mart says probably the piece was not large than a grain of wheat but it felt as big as a bushel basket. His eye pained him a great deal for awhile.

Lockjaw From Cobwebs.
Cobwebs put on a cut lately gave a woman lockjaw. Millions know that the best thing to put on a cut is Bucklin's Arnica Salve, the infallible healer of Wounds, Ulcers, Sores, Skin Eruptions, Burns, Scalds and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Keeling's.
