

JUNE SPECIALS

From Now until July 1st we will place on sale our entire stock of SUMMER GOODS. The assortment is good and prices lower than you can buy the same goods for elsewhere. Bigger Bundles for the money than ever. Come and choose where the variety is greatest, the qualities guaranteed and the best values given. THAT'S HERE.

200 yards Dimities, worth 7½c, now 4½c
 300 yards Dimities and Organdies, worth 10c, now 7c
 400 yds Dimities and Organdies, stripe or figure, worth 12½c now 9c
 600 yards Organdies and Batistes, worth 15c, now 11c
 400 yards Organdies and Batistes, worth 20c, now 15c
 125 yards Organdies and Batistes, worth 25c, now 19c
 One lot Men's fine Shirts, worth 65c, now 39c
 One lot Men's fine Shirts, worth 85c, now 53c
 Men's Socks, 5c
 Ladies' Shirt Waists, latest styles, worth $1.50, now $1.10
 Ladies' Shirt Waists, latest styles, worth $1.25, now 98c
 Ladies' Shirt Waists, latest styles, worth 85c, now 66c
 Ladies' White Aprons, worth 20c, now 12c
 Ladies' fine black Skirts, worth $1.00, now 79c

These are only a few of the Bargains you will find here.

Come and See Me

JNO. W. RITCHEY
 Brownville, Nebraska

Corn looks fine.

See M T Hill for fire insurance.

Excursion to Beatrice next Sunday.

See Keeling's new wall paper for prices and beauty.

R. V. Muir of Brownville was a Nemaha visitor Thursday.

Get your machine oil at the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Mrs. Alice Wade went to Beatrice Thursday to attend the chautauqua.

Miss Vera Minick returned to her home near Bracken Friday of last week.

H. T. Minick is looking after the elevator at Bracken during the absence of C. T. Minick.

John I. Dressler has sold his residence property in Auburn to John W. Felton, the consideration being $2,000.

Don't forget that Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. carry the best mixed paints.

Miss Dora Morton went to Peru Monday to attend the county teachers' association.

Judge Broady of Lincoln came to Nemaha Saturday and spent Sunday with his sons.

The annual school meeting will be held at the school house Monday night, June 30, at 8 o'clock p. m.

The Nemaha Advertiser is the oldest continuously published paper in the state.—Nebbraska City Daily.

Headquarters for harness, whips, dusters, & nets.
 Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Furniture Furniture

Just received a car load. Call in and see it. The price will be right.
 Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Because we sell Gasoline for 15 cents per gallon it has been industriously reported our's was an inferior grade. Bought from same tank at same time as those who sell for 20 cents. Try it.

M. T. HILL

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

Mrs. W. W. Keeling and Mrs. W. F. Keeling were Auburn visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. W. H. Barker went to Shubert Wednesday evening to visit her mother.

Geo. W. Harmon of Auburn was in Nemaha Monday repairing the telephone line.

T. W. Wheeler came in from Auburn Wednesday afternoon, returning Thursday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eldredge, now living near Stella, were Nemaha visitors last Saturday.

Peru had a big rain Friday morning of last week—almost a waterspout. Six inches of water fell.

George Yackley has had a good cave made, walled up with rock, and is now prepared for cyclones.

About twenty-five ladies were present at a quilting bee at the home of Mrs. Sylvester Yates Wednesday.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness. For sale by M T Hill.

Mrs. George McClure and children went to Beatrice Thursday to visit relatives and attend the chautauqua.

For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn W. W. Harris prop'r.

Even the banker plays croquet in Nemaha. The editor seems to be about the only man in town that doesn't play.

Ed Knapp says the fine rubber-tired ball-bearing buggy at the livery stable is for the use of the proprietors and no one else.

Tom Chambers and family drove in from their home near Auburn Sunday and visited relatives until Monday afternoon.

Miss Stella Washburn, who is attending the summer normal school at Peru, came down home Friday, returning Saturday.

G. N. Titus returned home Monday from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where he had been attending the National Nurseryman's convention.

John I. Dressler and two of his children, Bessie and Bert, started for Illinois Tuesday afternoon. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

G. N. Titus, Mrs. James A. Titus, F. L. Woodward, Walter S. Maxwell, D. H. Clark, A. N. Harris and W. W. Sanders went to Lincoln Tuesday.

Whoever expected to see the Thompson house remodeled and made into a neat dwelling, as is now being done?
 OLD TIMER.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhane, prop.

CLOSING OUT PRICES

—ON—

SUMMER GOODS

Come and be convinced

MRS. THEO. HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Knapp of Stella visited their sons, John and Eli, of Nemaha, Monday. Ed Knapp's little daughter Ruth, who is making her home with her grandparents, came over with them.

Mrs. Mary Hart and daughter, Miss Vera, of Slater, Mo., are visiting Mrs. Hart's sister, Mrs. Peter Kerker, and family this week. They are on their way to San Francisco, where they will make their future home.

C. T. Minick, B. & M, agent at Bracken, started for Wyoming Monday, with his family, for a two weeks' outing. This is Charlie's first vacation for three years and he will enjoy the relief from the cares of his office.

Mr. Little, who has been living on the Hackney farm a mile and a half north of Nemaha for the past three months, has moved to Howe and is working for Ed Tucker in the elevator. Willis Coons has moved on the Hackney farm.

Dr. H. S. Gaither has bought three lots south of the Christian church and four lots west of the church, in the same block, and is making preparations to build a good house thereon. He has concluded he cannot find a better place to live than Nemaha and is going to quit paying rent.

A. C. G. Shockey of Colony, Kansas, arrived in Nemaha last Saturday on a visit to his sister, Mrs. C. P. Barker of Aspinwall precinct, and other relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mr. Shockey was a former resident of this county but has been away for twenty-seven years. He finds many changes. Mr. Shockey went to Lincoln Tuesday and from there was going to Hastings to visit for a few days.

The passenger train Friday morning scared one of Knapp Bros.' teams that was hauling lumber from the depot. The horses straddled a telegraph pole, breaking the wagon tongue, but were stopped before any further damage was done.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Maxwell went to Lincoln Wednesday to attend the wedding of their son, Frank W. Maxwell, to Miss Eugenia Maude Noyes. Their two daughters, Ruth and Wilma, went with them. All returned home Thursday afternoon.

Last week Frank Woodward hired Mr. Brown to take his flat boat to Hillsdale and take some horses across to the island. After they got down there Frank bought the boat. Mr. Brown will build a larger boat at once and put in horse power.

Miss Minnie Chester of St. Deroin precinct, who attempted to commit suicide by cutting her throat Monday evening, June 9, is still alive and has a fair chance for recovery. It is said she now wants to live. She will probably be taken to a hospital where she can be better cared for.

Mr. and Mrs. John Watson have not felt satisfied since they moved away from Nemaha, and on Monday Mr. Watson bought of F. L. Woodward the Thompson property which Frank recently bought at referee's sale. Mr. Watson will have some necessary repairs made on the house and will then move back to Nemaha.

Call and see us for reduced rates on magazines and newspapers.

You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied. For sale by M T Hill.

GILBERT & M^CCANDLESS

While it is hardly necessary to make any remarks in placing this advertisement before you, yet we feel that a few words may be in order. Our stock of merchandise in all its branches was never more complete than at present. We are constantly receiving new goods. We do not sell you some article at cost and aim to make up our profit on something else, which is a very easy thing to do.

Satisfying our customers and reducing profits to the lowest possible point without reducing quality has been our constant aim.

All kinds of produce taken in exchange at highest market price.

We extend a cordial invitation to everybody to call in and look over our goods and get our prices.

HAVE JUST RECEIVED

New Calicoes—100 bolts

New all-over Embroidery

New all-over Lace

New assortment Trimming Buttons

New Tucking

New line of Parasols

New line of Shoes

Lots of news things too numerous to mention

GILBERT & M^CCANDLESS

L. H. BATTLES