

IF WE CAN'T GET THE BEST

We want none. That's our principal in buying. We deal only with firms who handle the best. We order only the choicest of the best. There is not an article in our store that will not please you, and we have everything in DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, AND SELZ SHOES. Compare our prices with any. You will find they are lowest here for the best.

Ladies' Shirt Waists, latest styles, worth $1.50; now 98c
 Ladies' Shirt Waists, latest styles, worth $1.25; now 83c
 Ladies' Shirt Waists, latest styles, worth 85c; now 57c

New Line of Ladies' Wrappers just received. See them.

Dimities, worth 7½c; now 4½c
 Dimities and Organdies, worth 10c; now 7c
 Dimities, Organdies and Batistes, worth 15c; now 11c
 One lot Men's fine Shirts, worth 65c; now 39c
 One lot Men's fine Shirts, worth 85c; now 53c
 Boys' Felt Hats from 19 cents up
 Men's Felt Hats from 50 cents up
 Men's and Boys' Straw Hats at all prices
 Ask to see Selz Rip-Not Shoes for Boys
 Come and spend the Fourth at Brownville. Bring your baskets and wraps. Leave them at our store. They will be cared for.

JNO. W. RITCHEY
 Brownville, Nebraska

Harvesting is in full blast.
 See M T Hill for fire insurance.
 Next Friday is the Fourth of July.
 Property is changing hands rapidly in Nemaha.
 Earle Gilbert received a fine Kimball piano Thursday.
 See Keeling's new wall paper for prices and beauty.
 Jake Shuck and family moved back to Nemaha Tuesday.
 Mrs. Margaret Snow came in from Auburn Wednesday.
 Get your machine oil at the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.
 Mrs. George McClure and children came home from Beatrice Thursday.
 Boone Codrington arrived in Nemaha from Oklahoma Monday afternoon.

Miss Pearl Wasson started for La Grande, Oregon, Wednesday.
 We understand M. H. Taylor has been appointed postmaster of Shubert.
 It is said there was a light frost last Saturday morning, but no damage was done.
 Don't forget that Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. carry the best mixed paints.
 Uncle Jim Barker of Aspinwall precinct is visiting his son, W. H. Barker, this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rumbaugh went to Mound City, Mo., Tuesday, to visit friends a few days.
 Miss Sylvia Smith of Auburn came in to Nemaha Monday and is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Daniel Maxwell.
 Call and see us for reduced rates on magazines and newspapers.

Because we sell Gasoline for 15 cents per gallon it has been industriously reported our's was an inferior grade. Bought from same tank at same time as those who sell for 20 cents. Try it.

M. T. HILL

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

Harry Conard has charge of the B. & M. station at Bracken during the absence of C. T. Minick.

John Shuck, who has been visiting in Iowa for several months, returned to Nemaha Thursday.

Miss Belle Galbraith went to St. Joe Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Eleanor Hadlock, for a few weeks.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney, prop.

For sale—A fine shorthorn bull one year old. Price $35 if sold by July 4th. J. H. SEID.

Headquarters for harness, whips, dusters, fly nets. Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn W. W. Harris prop'r.

The Bank of Nemaha has had a big sign painted on the front of the building. Cary Pumel of Auburn did the work.

Miss Tудie Scovill, who has been staying at Topeka, Kansas, for several months, returned to Nemaha last Saturday.

Mr. Douglas of St. Joe was in Nemaha from Friday until Monday, looking after the interests of the F. J. Chew estate.

Mrs. J. B. Hoover went to Brownville Saturday afternoon and visited her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Rainey, until Monday evening.

A horse came near crippling Ed Maxwell Sunday, kicking him on the knee but fortunately not hard enough to cause much injury.

Claud Scovill went to Smartville, Nebr., Tuesday, to take charge of the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.'s business for a few days.

Ed Knapp was kicked in the stomach by a mule Sunday and didn't lean up against anything with that portion of his anatomy for a few days.

V. P. Peabody bought two and one-half lots south of the Methodist church instead of one and a half as reported last week. He has also bought four lots in the northeast corner of the block south—block No. 39.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Maxwell returned to Lincoln Thursday after a week's visit with Frank's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Maxwell. They expect to go to housekeeping at once at 702 north 16th street, Lincoln.

Mrs. Bertha Horner of Omaha visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rumbaugh, from Thursday of last week until Tuesday of this week, when she went over to Mound City, Mo., with her parents to visit friends.

Old papers for sale at this office.

CLOSING OUT PRICES
 —ON—
SUMMER GOODS
 Come and be convinced
MRS. THEO. HILL

Miss Florence Minick returned home last Saturday, after a visit of several weeks with her sister, Mrs. R. S. Scofield, at Taylor, Nebr.

Mrs. Mary Hart and daughter, Miss Vera, started for California last Saturday, after visiting a few days with Mrs. Hart's sister, Mrs. Peter Kerker.

H. M. Tollinger has had the front of Edward & Bradford Co.'s store buildings repainted and had a furniture sign painted in addition to those already on the buildings.

Miss May Kerker invited a few of her friends to a party Friday night of last week, in honor of her cousin, Miss Vera Hart. Those present spent a delightful evening.

Carl E. Sanders of London precinct, who was a delegate to the populist state convention, came in to Nemaha on the freight Thursday morning, going on home in the afternoon.

Ed Thompson, who has been assisting E. E. Rumbaugh in the barber shop for three or four weeks, started for Anderson, Iowa, Thursday morning, and will open a shop of his own.

Furniture Furniture
 Just received a car load. Call in and see it. The price will be right. Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Casner Barnes returned home last Saturday from Chicago, where he went a month previously for medical treatment. He went to the Presbyterian hospital where an operation was performed, which was perfectly satisfactory. It is thought he will now have better health than for years, and we trust these hopes will be fully realized.

Lester Peabody went to Wymore last Sunday, going to Beatrice on the excursion train. He returned by way of Lincoln and Nebraska City, getting home on the morning passenger.

A swarm of bees collected on a limb on one of the shade trees in front of Earle Gilbert's home Tuesday. Swift McCandless and Ed Knapp got some ladders and hived the bees and are now putting in their spare time figuring on the amount of honey they ought to get.

Mrs. Mary A. Chambers' children and grandchildren gave her a surprise last Sunday in honor of her 53rd birthday. Her four sons and two daughters—Tom, Dick, Alva and Cad Chambers, Mrs. Walter Maxwell and Mrs. Fred Hoover—were all present with their families.

Hope lodge No. 29, A. F. & A. M., installed the following officers Friday night of last week:

W. M.—Alfred B. Kinton.
 S. W.—Benjamin T. Skeen.
 J. W.—William W. Seid.
 Treasurer—Alonzo L. P. Thompson.
 Secretary—William W. Sanders.
 The remaining officers will be installed at a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Maxwell invited relatives and a few friends to a dinner Tuesday, given in honor of their son, Frank W. Maxwell, and his bride. Forty-seven persons were present. There were four generations of the Maxwells represented—Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell, their sons and daughter, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The dinner was a feast fit for the president of the United States or anybody else. A good time was enjoyed by all.

GILBERT & McCANDLESS

While it is hardly necessary to make any remarks in placing this advertisement before you, yet we feel that a few words may be in order. Our stock of merchandise in all its branches was never more complete than at present. We are constantly receiving new goods. We do not sell you some article at cost and aim to make up our profit on something else, which is a very easy thing to do.

Satisfying our customers and reducing profits to the lowest possible point without reducing quality has been our constant aim.

All kinds of produce taken in exchange at highest market price.

We extend a cordial invitation to everybody to call in and look over our goods and get our prices.

HAVE JUST RECEIVED

- New Calicoes—100 bolts
- New all-over Embroidery
- New all-over Lace
- New assortment Trimming Buttons
- New Tucking
- New line of Parasols
- New line of Shoes
- Lots of news things too numerous to mention

GILBERT & McCANDLESS

L. H. BATTLES